GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 796 (J. & L. 14/15)

INSTRUCTIONS RELATING TO APPEALS TO THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, ISSUED UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR

The following instructions relating to Appeals to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council are published for general information:—

1. (a) If intimation is received from or on behalf of a convict, that it is intended to apply to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council for special leave to appeal, the execution shall be postponed and a date, three weeks later, shall be fixed before which proof must be furnished to the Governor or to an officer specially authorized by him in that behalf that the necessary instructions and funds have been sent by air mail to a firm of solicitors in London and the necessary papers by registered ordinary mail. The petitioner and his adviser shall then be informed of the date so fixed and the papers and funds which must be sent; and also where the petitioner indicates his intention of applying in forma pauperis of the procedure relating to such applications as set out in Instruction 3 below. They shall be informed at the same time that unless the petition for special leave to appeal is lodged in the Privy Council Office before a further date fixed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies and communicated to the firm of solicitors intimation will be received from the Colonial Office, and the execution will not be further postponed.

Note (i).—If sentences of death have been passed on more than one person in the same case, and if intimation is received from, or on behalf of, only one or more but not all of them of an intention to apply for leave to appeal to the Privy Council, the execution of the sentence shall be postponed not only in the case of the person or persons from whom, or on whose behalf, such intimation has been received but also in the case of the other person or persons from whom, or on whose behalf, no such intimation has been received.

Note (ii).—The necessary funds will be a minimum of fifty guineas if one Counsel is engaged, but will be eighty to one hundred guineas if the record is bulky or more than one Counsel is engaged. The petitioner and his adviser should, therefore, be advised, on receipt of intimation of intention to apply for special leave to appeal, and that fifty guineas must be sent by the date fixed, and that it is not unlikely than thirty to fifty guineas more will be required.

Note (iii).—The necessary papers should include two copies of the printed paper book and a certified copy and two further copies of the judgment, etc., of His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa.

Note (iv).—Whenever an intimation is received of the intention of a person condemned to death to apply to the Judicial Committee for special leave to appeal, three copies of the paper book and of the judgment of the Court of Appeal shall be forthwith addressed directly by the Governor to the Legal Adviser at the Colonial Office one copy of each being a certified copy. One of such sets of papers will be sent by the first available air mail.

(b) If proof is not furnished before the date fixed that the necessary papers, instructions and funds have been sent, to a firm of solicitors in London, the execution will not be further postponed unless the Governor is satisfied that the delay is due to no fault of the petitioner or his adviser. If, in any special case, the Governor for this reason allows an extension of the date for furnishing of proof the further date within which proof must be furnished shall be intimated to the petitioner or his adviser.

(c) If proof is furnished before the date fixed the petitioner or his adviser shall intimate the name of the firm of solicitors to whom the papers, instructions and funds have been sent and the registered numbers of the packages containing such papers, instructions and funds, and the name of the firm, the date of the dispatch of the papers, etc., and the registered numbers of the packages will be communicated to the Colonial Office by telegram by the Governor.

Note.—If proof is furnished that the necessary papers and instructions, but less than the minimum funds referred to in 1 (a), Note (ii), have been sent to a firm of solicitors in England, the Governor shall forthwith telegraph to the Colonial Office the names of the petitioner and such solicitors.

(d) After proof is furnished that the necessary papers, instructions and funds have been sent to England, the execution will be, except in cases under 3 (c), postponed until intimation is received by the Governor from the Colonial Office that the petition for special leave to appeal has not been lodged in the Privy Council Office by the date fixed, or by such date as the Secretary of State may have decided to extend the date to, or that the petition has been dismissed by the Judicial Committee.

2. (a) On receipt of the telegram referred to in the note to 1 (c) above, inquiries will be made by the Colonial Office of the petitioner's solicitors whether they are prepared to proceed with the case, and on receipt of a reply that the firm of solicitors will proceed the Secretary of State will fix a date by which the petition for special leave to appeal must be lodged at the Privy Council Office. This date will be communicated to the petitioner's solicitors and telegraphed to the Governor. If the solicitors do not reply that they will proceed, the Governor will be informed by telegram and the execution will not be further delayed.

(b) When a petition for special leave to appeal has been lodged in the Privy Council, the Colonial Office will inform the Governor of the fact by telegram.

(c) The Colonial Office will inform the Governor of developments in the Privy Council in any case which presents unusual features.

(d) The Colonial Office will communicate to the Governor by telegram the result of a petition to the Privy Council for special leave to appeal. The Colonial Office will also forward in due course a copy of the Order in Council to the Governor by ordinary mail.

3. (a) In furnishing proof that he has dispatched the necessary papers to a solicitor in England, a petitioner who intends to make application in forma pauperis under Rule 8 of The Procedure Rules of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, shall also furnish proof of dispatch by air mail of an affidavit or affirmation made by himself stating that he is not worth twenty-five pounds in the world except his wearing apparel, accompanied by a certificate of Counsel that the petitioner has reasonable grounds of appeal. Thereupon proof of the dispatch of funds as required by Instruction 1 (a) shall not be required.

(b) The affidavit or affirmation of means referred to in the immediately preceding clause (a) shall, if made in the vernacular, be accompanied by a translation verified by affidavit or affirmation of the person making the translation.

(c) Such a petitioner and his advisers shall be informed that the solicitors in England are under no obligation to act in a case in forma pauperis. The solicitor instructed by them must be instructed by air mail and be required to inform the Legal Adviser, Colonial Office, in writing, whether he intends to act or not. If the Colonial Office receives no such consent, or receives intimation that the solicitor instructed is unable to act, the Governor will be informed by telegram and the execution will not be further delayed.

4. In every case where the Colonial Office has been informed of the postponement of execution of a sentence owing to the petitioner's intention to apply to the Privy Council for special leave to appeal, the Colonial Office shall also be informed in due course by telegram that the sentence has been carried out or has been commuted, as the case may be.
