GENERAL NOTICE No. 1856

AUSTRIAN RESTITUTION LAWS

THE following is published for general information:—

Claims by persons resident outside Austria for the restitution of their rights to property which had been confiscated under National Socialists discriminatory laws should be made before 31st December, 1949. This was announced in the Board of Trade Journal on 25th June.

There are three Austrian Restitution Laws. The first provided for the restitution of confiscated property which is at present administered by the Austrian Federal or Provincial Authorities, the second dealt with property which by reason of forfeiture came under the ownership of the Austrian Republic and the third with property which is at present in the possession of physical persons or legal entities.

Claims arising under the first and second Restitution Laws must be formally asserted with the provincial Finance Directorate (Finanz Landesdirektion) in whose district the property in question is located, and under the third Law with the Restitution Commission of the Landes (Kreis) Gericht in whose district the defendant has his normal residence.

Persons resident outside Austria have previously been advised to submit a notification of their claims under the Restitution Laws to the Federal Ministry for Property Control and Economic Planning. Claimants who have already notified their claims to that Ministry are advised that this does not constitute a formal assertion of a restitution claim, though it may be that the Ministry have passed the notification of claim to the proper Austrian authority. They should, therefore, communicate with the appropriate Austrian authority either direct or through their legal representative in Austria to ensure that their claims have been properly asserted and if they have not, take the necessary action without delay.

Land Reform in Hungary

The Hungarian Government have now indicated that claims may be registered by British subjects whose property has been affected under the Hungarian Land Reform Act of 1945, and the subsequent modification thereof. Such claimants may claim compensation under the relevant provisions of Hungarian Decree 3520/1948 by registering their land reform claims (separately from any Peace Treaty claims which they may be making) with the Hungarian Reparations Office, Jozsef Nador Ter 3, V. Budapest, either personally or through their attorney. All those claimants who have already registered claims in respect of Land Reform, whether they have done so directly to the Hungarian authorities or whether they included them in claims made under Article 26 of the Hungarian Peace Treaty registered with any British or Hungarian authority, are required to make a fresh registration of their Land Reform claims which can be effected by means of the procedure set out below.

Citizens of the United Kingdom and legal entities constituted under the laws of the United Kingdom who possessed this status on 18th March, 1945, whose property has been subjected to measures of Land Reform and who have not already registered the property with the Administration of Enemy Property Department, or who have not already received a communication from that Department and who wish to register their claims through His Majesty's Government should apply to the Foreign Office (Claims Department), 3 Cleveland Row, London, S.W.1, who will forward them a claim form with explanatory instructions. Such applications must be made to the Foreign Office (Claims Department) not later than 30th September, 1949.

This announcement and the claim form to be completed relate solely to property affected by Hungarian Land Reform legislation and do not apply to property affected by nationalization or other measures.
