3. There shall be substituted for section 63 of the principal Ordinance the following sections—

63 It shall not be a defence for a person who takes any oath or engagement in the nature of an oath mentioned in section 61, section 62 or section 62A of this Code to prove that he was compelled to do so unless within five days after the taking of such oath or engagement in the nature of an oath or, if he is prevented by physical force or sickness, within five days after the termination of such physical force or sickness, he reported to the police, or if he is in the actual service of the military forces in the Colony or in the police force either he so reported as aforesaid or he reported to his commanding officer everything he knows concerning the matter, including the person or persons by whom and in whose presence and the place where, and the time when the oath or engagement was administered or taken

Insertion of new section 175A in the principal Ordinance

Chain

4. There shall be inserted next after section 175 of the principal Ordinance the following new section—

175A (1) Any person who sends or causes to be¹⁰ sent any chain letter or who sends or receives any money or money's worth in connexion with any chain letter is guilty of a misdemeanour and is liable to a fine of four thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprison-¹⁵ ment

(2) For the purposes of this section 'chain letter' means any one of a series of similar documents addressed by one person to another person requesting the person to whom it is addressed—²⁰

(a) to send a similar letter to a specified number of other persons, and

(b) to remit to a person or to an address specified in the letter money or money's worth

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

There have recently been a number of cases of the administration of unlawful oaths within the categories of unlawful oath specified in section 62 of the Penal Code. There have also been cases where oaths have been administered by force or under threats or intimidation, in which, as the oath administered did not fall within the categories specified in section 61 or 62 of the Penal Code, the accused have either escaped punishment or have had to be dealt with for common assault, the maximum punishment for which is imprisonment for one year.

Sub-clause (1) of clause 62A will make it a felony punishable with up to seven years' imprisonment to compel another person by force, threat or intimidation to take an oath, or engagement in the nature of an oath, binding the person who takes it to act, or not to act, in any way. Sub-clause (2) of clause 62A will further make it a felony punishable with up to three years' imprisonment to be present at, and to consent to the administration, by force, or under threat or intimidation, of any such oath or engagement.

Clause 3 will make consequential amendment to section 63 and will amend the section by reducing from fourteen to five days the period within which a person compelled to take an oath against his will must report to the police. The clause will also insert a new section 63A to provide that a person who is present at the administering of an oath mentioned in sections 61, 62 and 62A shall be deemed to have consented to its administering and so guilty of an offence against one of the sections unless within five days he reports all he knows about the matter to the police or, if he is a soldier on active service to his commanding officer.

The opportunity has been taken to insert a new section 175A in the Penal Code to make 'chain letters' illegal. It is reported that sums of money are at present being subscribed to chain letters by large numbers of ignorant persons apparently in the erroneous belief that fantastic profits are certain.

No additional expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.

ALDIT REPORT ON THE 1948 ACCOUNTING STATEMENT OF THE ASIAN OFFICERS' FAMILY PENSIONS FUND

As certified thereon the Statement of Income and Expenditure and Balance Sheet have been examined under my direction

2 Arrears of Government Contributions and arrears of Personal Contributions for the years 1946 and 1947 due to Salary Revision refer only to those officers who were paid salary arrears in 1948. Contributions of officers who were paid salary arrears in respect of 1946 and 1947 in 1949, will be reflected in the 1949 account. The figures for Outstanding Contributions and Pensions Fund are understated to this extent.

3 Expenses of Management have been charged with pension contribution of officers working at 22 per cent of salary from the 1st January, 1946, whereas the increased rate of pension contribution (from 15 to 22 per cent) came into effect on the 1st February, 1948.

4 Officers serving on agreements of not less than twenty months duration are required by Secretariat Circular No 33 of 1949 to contribute to the Fund. An officer in this category died during 1948 and the widow registered as a beneficiary. No amendment to the Ordinance has yet been made.

5 Approval of the Governor has now been seen for officers who were not contributors to the Asiatic Widows' and Orphans Pension Fund and were admitted to the Asian Officers Family Pension Fund, in accordance with Secretariat Circular No 30 of 1945, paragraph 4, to become members of the Fund. Paragraph 2 of my 1947 Report refers.

6 Certain minor adjustments required to the figure of Government Contributions are under query with the Accountant General.
