APOLOGY

IN December, 1949 we imported certain Japanese manufactured fabrics described as Nagjico Fabrics and sold these in Kampala and other places in Uganda during the early part of 1950.

We now realize that the design printed on these fabrics was so similar to Design No 413033 registered in the United Kingdom by Tootal Broadhurst Lee Company, Limited, on the 20th November, 1947, as to constitute an infringement thereof and we therefore offer our sincere apologies to Tootal Boardhurst Lee Company, Limited, for any damage or inconvenience they may have suffered thereby.

We have paid them damages and their legal costs in taking action against us and we have undertaken to publish this apology at our own expense.

We have also given Tootal Broadhurst Lee Company, Limited, an undertaking that we shall not import or sell any further quantities of these fabrics or any others that may infringe any of their registered designs.
