(2) If any person to whom this Ordinance applies is convicted by a competent civil court of any offence he shall not be liable to be punished for the same under this Ordinance otherwise than by—

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Sub-section (2) of section 91 of the King's African Rifles Ordinance 1932, is now worded so as to be capable of the construction that the punishments of reduction in rank, dismissal from the regiment, loss of previous service and loss of good conduct badges and pay are applicable only in the case of non-commissioned officers and that the only punishment which a private soldier can suffer is loss of pay under section 54. This was clearly not the intention and this Bill will amend the section to make its meaning unambiguous

No additional expenditure of public moneys will be incurred if the provisions of this Bill become law
