Salary scale.—The basic salary scale of the post paid to officers on local terms is the "A.P.1—3", i.e. £702 by £14 to £716 by £16 to £732 by £30 to £762 by £36 to £870: £918 by £48 to £966 by £24 to £990 by £48 to £1,086 by £30 to £1,116 by £54 to £1,278 by £36 to £1,314: £1,374 by £36 to £1,410 by £60 to £1,650 per annum.

Qualifications.—A degree in agriculture, with post-graduate experience in animal husbandry and pastoral management.

Duties.—Supervision of agricultural extension activities in mixed farming areas of low and unreliable rainfall, where livestock rather than crop husbandry would appear to be the more promising method of economic exploitation of natural resources. Investigational work aimed at improving methods of grassland management, the preparation of livestock products and the use of draught animals as a means of increasing agricultural output. Instruction of local staff and farmers in ways and means of obtaining increased economic returns from livestock.

Field Officer Grade II—Ministry of Agriculture (Four Vacancies)

Salary scale.—The basic salary scale of the post paid to officers on local terms is the "T.O.3—4", i.e. £684 by £12 to £732 by £30 to £762: £792 by £36 to £936 per annum.

Qualifications.—Candidates must possess one of the following qualifications—

- (a) a National Diploma of Agriculture;
- (b) a National Diploma in Dairying; or
- (c) a diploma of an agricultural college awarded after a two-year course.

Experience in pasture management and animal husbandry, preferably at commercial production of milk and dairy products, is essential.

Women candidates are not eligible.

Duties.—Agricultural extension work, concentrating on improved livestock husbandry and better preparation and utilization of livestock products, in mixed farming areas of low and unreliable rainfall, where livestock rather than crop husbandry would seem to be the more promising form of economic exploitation of natural resources.

Field Officer Grade II—Ministry of Agriculture (Six Vacancies)

Salary scale.—The basic salary scale of the post paid to officers on local terms is the "T.O.3—4", i.e. £684 by £12 to £732 by £30 to £762: £792 by £36 to £936 per annum.

Qualifications.—Candidates must possess one of the following qualifications—

- (a) a National Diploma of Agriculture;
- (b) a diploma in agriculture or horticulture awarded after a two-year course.

Experience in commercial market gardening is essential.

Experience in the use of irrigation equipment is desirable.

Women candidates are not eligible.

Duties.—General extension work for improved agricultural methods, concentrating on increased production of vegetables and fruit in suitable areas and using irrigation where practicable. Supervision of nurseries for multiplication of improved planting material in connexion with development schemes for increased production of intensively managed crops such as coffee, tea, cocoa and pyrethrum and advisory work on the husbandry of such crops.

Field Officer Grade II—Ministry of Agriculture (Four Vacancies)

Salary scale.—The basic salary scale of the post paid to officers on local terms is the "T.O.3—4", i.e. £684 by £12 to £732 by £30 to £762: £792 by £36 to £926 per annum.

Qualifications.—Candidates must possess one of the following qualifications—

- (a) a National Diploma of Agriculture; or
- (b) an equivalent diploma of an agricultural college awarded after a two-year course.

Practical experience in fisheries, including use of nets, traps, lines and rigging of gear for freshwater and marine fisheries and experience in the operation of small mechanized fishing craft is essential. A knowledge of small-scale fish processing is desirable.

Women candidates are not eligible.

Duties.—Investigation of fishery resources in unexploited or under-exploited natural waters. Development of suitable fishing techniques for exploitation of newly opened fisheries. Teaching of fishing technology to inexperienced indigenous people. Investigation of processing methods suitable for marketing fish products from remote areas. As most of the people whom it is desired to assist are farming at present and will continue to do so, at least part-time, general extension work for improved agricultural methods in the area adjacent to the fisheries will also be part of the officers' duties.

Field Officer Grade II—Ministry of Agriculture (One Vacancy)

Salary scale.—The basic salary scale of the post paid to officers on local terms is the "T.O.3—4", i.e. £684 by £12 to £732 by £30 to £762: £792 by £36 to £936 per annum.

Qualifications.—Candidates must possess one of the following qualifications—

- (a) a National Diploma of Agriculture; or
- (b) a diploma in agriculture or horticulture of a college awarded after a two-year course.

Experience in land and farm planning is essential.

In exceptional cases, where candidates possess good personality and extensive experience, the requirement of a diploma may be waived.

Women candidates are not eligible.

Duties.—To undertake the field work of farm plans, reconnaissance surveys and assessment of optimum land usage both for dry land and irrigation farming. Instruction and guidance of local staff in all aspects of farm-planning work.

Senior Hospital Secretary—Ministry of Health and Labour (One Vacancy)

Salary scale.—The basic salary scale of the post paid to officers on local terms is the "Ex.5—6", i.e. £960 by £39 to £1,077: £1,104 by £42 to £1,314 per annum.

Qualifications.—Candidates must hold the Fellowship or Associateship of the Institute of Hospital Administration or equivalent qualification and have previous experience in hospital administration.

Duties.—The non-medical administration of the hospitals to which appointed, including executive responsibilities in respect of staff, finance, equipment, supplies, transport, office organization, records and statistics and the training of junior staff in all non-medical aspects of hospital administration.

VACANCIES IN THE TANGANYIKA CIVIL SERVICE—(Contd.)

Inspector (Works)—Ministry of Home Affairs (Two Vacancies)

Salary scale.—The basic salary scale of the post paid to officers on local terms is the "T.O.4—5", i.e. £792 by £36 to £936: £960 by £39 to £1,077 per annum.

Qualifications.—Applicants should have served an apprenticeship in one of the main building trades with experience of construction of building and ancillary works of the standard normally reached by a general foreman of works. Some knowledge of road works, drainage or water supplies is desirable. Preference will be given to candidates possessing a United Kingdom National Certificate or equivalent qualification.

Duties.—Superintending the construction and maintenance of prison buildings and the construction of works by prison labour. The officer appointed would be posted to any part of the Territory where there is constructional work.

Preference Between Candidates

Preference will be given in the first instance to officers of the Tanganyika Civil Service serving on Class "L" leave terms and other African candidates; then to other officers not on temporary appointment, and then to persons normally resident in the Territory who are not included in the other categories.

General Terms of Service

Except in the case of posts which are only offered on contract terms, successful candidates who are Africans and are not more than 45 years of age may be offered appointment on probation to the permanent and pensionable service. Other candidates not already on pensionable terms will normally be offered appointment on contract.

An officer appointed on contract on overseas terms is given overseas leave and passage privileges and on satisfactory completion of his contract receives a gratuity equal to 25 per cent of the total salary paid to him under the contract.

An officer appointed on contract on local terms is given annual leave and local travel privileges and on satisfactory completion of his contract receives a gratuity equal to 25 per cent of the total salary paid to him under the contract.

Free medical attention and limited housing privileges are given.

Method of Application

Applications should be sent to the Principal Secretary, Public Service Commission, P.O. Box 9143, Dar es Salaam, to arrive not later than 8th January, 1962.

An application from a serving officer must be sent through the appropriate Permanent Secretary, accompanied by a completed Personal Record Form (P/2).

All other applications should be on the form PSC.1, copies of which can be obtained from the Public Service Commissions of Tanganyika, Uganda and the East Africa High Commission, Nairobi.

THE TRADE MARKS ORDINANCE, 1955

(No. 51 of 1955)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks herein advertised can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, Crown Law Office, Nairobi.
