THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 1 OF 1967

Parties:—

Kenya Chemical Workers' Union
and
Kenya Paint Manufacturers' Group

Issues in dispute:—

- (1) Wages.
- (2) Employees in Acting Capacity.
- (3) Annual Paid Leave.
- (4) Gazetted Public Holidays.
- (5) Gratuity Payment.
- (6) Leave Allowance.
- (7) Termination of Employment.
- (8) Maternity Benefits.
- (9) Casual Labour.
- (10) Effective Date and Duration.

AWARD

After a careful consideration of all the submissions made by both Parties, the Court awards as follows:—

(1) Wages.—The Court awards an increase of Sh. 30 per month on the existing rates for the six grades. The Claimants' application for this increase to be applied on the individual wages of the employees is rejected.

(2) Employees in Acting Capacity.—The Court confirms the present practice whereby if a person is required to act for a period of more than one week, he is granted the higher remuneration by way of acting allowance.

(3) Annual Paid Leave.—The Court finds that in 1964 the Parties had agreed to 21 consecutive days' annual paid leave in respect of those employees with less than six years' service and 28 consecutive days for those employees who had completed more than six years' service. In view of this the Court awards both these benefits as agreed in 1964.

(4) Gazetted Public Holidays.—On this issue as a gazetted public holiday is a worker's statutory right the Court cannot make an award modifying it in any way.

(5) Gratuity Payment.—The Court awards that where in any of the constituent member firms of the Respondents a provident fund scheme did not exist, employees should be entitled to gratuity. The Court, therefore, awards the following gratuity scheme in respect of those employees who were not covered by a provident fund scheme prior to the National Social Security Fund:—

- (a) An employee on completion of four years' continuous service with the Respondents shall be entitled to ten days' pay for every completed year of service by way of gratuity to be based on the employee's wages at the time of the termination of his service.
- (b) An employee who is dismissed for misconduct shall not be entitled to gratuity.
- (c) The effective date for the purpose of working out the benefits under this scheme shall be 1st January 1960, i.e. an employee shall not be entitled to any gratuity for services prior to 1st January 1960.
- (d) This scheme shall cease with the implementation of the National Social Security Fund. Employees shall, however, continue to benefit under this award for services rendered up to the date of the implementation of the National Social Security Fund; for example, if an employee who started working in 1963 retires after eight years of service, then he shall be provided for the years of service up to the commencement of the National Social Security Fund on the basis of this award.

(6) Leave Allowance.—The Court awards a leave allowance of Sh. 80 for Grades 1 and 2 and Sh. 50 for Grades 3 to 6.

(7) Termination of Employment.—The Court awards as follows on this issue:—

- (a) An employee shall be on probationary period not exceeding three months from the date of engagement and during this period, such employee shall be subject to one week's notice or one week's pay in lieu.
- (b) On completion of the probationary period, an employee shall be regarded as on the establishment of the Respondents and shall be subject to one month's notice or one month's pay in lieu of such notice. This condition will apply to an employee whose services are terminated other than for gross misconduct or other lawful cause, provided that such employee may be given warnings in writing, up to three in number, being registered on his employment card, which the employee has signed.
- (c) An employee who receives three such warnings shall be liable to summary dismissal, provided that all such warnings shall be erased from the history card of an employee after a period of 12 months from the date of the last warning.
- (d) An employee may be summarily dismissed for gross misconduct as defined in the Employment Act.

(8) Maternity Benefits.—Nil award.

(9) Casual Labour.—The Court awards that any person employed as a casual labourer shall be paid on the basis of this award, that is, he shall get the appropriate rate for the job on which he is employed and his daily rate shall be worked out by dividing the appropriate rate by 26. The Court rejects the Claimants' demands that fringe benefits should be extended to casual labourers.

(10) Effective Date and Duration.—The Court rules that this award shall be with effect from 1st October 1966, and shall remain in force for a period of 18 months from that date.

Given in Nairobi this 30th day of March 1967.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSES No. 66 TO 72 OF 1966

Parties:—

Kenya Engineering Workers' Union
and

John Grossert and Company Limited—Cause No. 66/66.
African Marine and General Engineering Company Ltd.—
Cause No. 67/66.
East African Wire Industries Limited—Cause No. 68/66.
Motherstar Engineering Company Limited—Cause No.
69/66.
Narshidas and Company—Cause No. 70/66.
Kenya Casements Limited—Cause No. 71/66.
Southern Engineering Company Limited—Cause No. 72/66.

Issue in dispute:—

Overalls.

AWARD

In the Engineering Industry generally in Kenya overalls are issued by the majority of employers. The Claimants submitted that, some of the Respondents' competitors in Mombasa also issued overalls. The Court accepts these facts and on the information gained by the Court members when they visited the Respondents' workshops in Mombasa, the Court finds that the clothes of the workers are exposed to abnormal and heavy wear and tear, moisture, dust, oil and grease. Moreover, one of the Respondents employing about 600 workers has offered the facility to his employees of buying their overalls from them which they buy in bulk. Another Respondent has actually got the overalls in his store which he intended to issue to his workers, but did not do so on account of the present case.

The Court has carefully gone through the offer made by the Respondents during the hearing of this dispute but finds that, in some cases it is not adequate.

The Court has given anxious thought to the Respondents' contention that if an award was made on generalization, then it would create an unreasonable precedent. It was particularly in view of this submission that the Court decided to visit and see the workers actually at work. The Respondents need have no fear on this score as every issue before the Court is considered on its merits.

In view of the foregoing and after having carefully considered all the submissions of the Parties, the Court awards that all the workers (excluding clerks) who are specified in the list submitted by the Respondents who are affected by this dispute other than labourers and gardeners and yard cleaners, should be issued with two pairs of overalls to be replaced as and when necessary but not earlier than 12 months. The labourers should be issued with aprons. The gardeners and yard cleaners do not benefit by this award.

The Court further lays down that, if an employee is found not wearing his overalls or apron, as the case may be, without good reason on more than three occasions in any one month, he shall forfeit his right to the overalls or the apron.

Finally those workers employed on cleaning ships, tanks and bilges will be allowed to continue with the current practice but without prejudice to their right under this award.

Given in Nairobi this 29th day of March 1967.
