GAZETTE NOTICE No 1813

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 7 OF 1972

Parties —

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and
Kenya Planters' Co operative Union Ltd

Issues in dispute —

- 1 Loans
- 2 Sick leave
- 3 Long service awards
- 4 Housing and housing allowance
- 5 Redundancy
- 6 Effective date and duration

1 The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Kenya Planters' Co-operative Union Ltd, shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on 23rd and 24th May, 1972, and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 The last collective agreement between the parties was effective from 1st July, 1969, and the duration period is covered in clause 1 (d) as follows —

"These terms and conditions of service shall remain in force indefinitely and shall remain unaltered for the duration of one calendar year from the date of enforcement

Thereafter the parties undertake to negotiate together any reasonable alterations to these terms and conditions of service which may be desired from time to time

Such desired alterations shall be notified by one party to the other in writing not less than two calendar months before the date on which negotiations are desired to begin "

As a result of the Tripartite Agreement of 1970 the Claimants did not take any steps to revise this agreement until 22nd June, 1971, when they informed the Respondents through a letter that they desired the agreement to be amended in line with their proposals "which are enclosed" It is admitted, however, that the Claimants forgot to send their proposals with this letter and sent them on 28th June, 1971

The Respondents informed the Claimants that their proposals were excessive and recommended a more realistic approach. They also said that they would be ready to commence negotiations on 29th August, 1971. In fact the negotiations commenced on 1st September, 1971 and continued on 10th September after the Claimants failed to turn up for meetings on 3rd and 9th September. Another three meetings took place on 14th, 24th and 28th September, 1971.

It is not disputed that the Respondents time and again pointed out to the Claimants that they wanted the new collective agreement to be of two years duration effective from the date it is actually signed. They were emphatic that there should be no backdating and made this clear to the Claimants in their letter of 9th September, 1971.

The Claimants reported a trade dispute to the Ministry of Labour on 26th September, 1971, covering six items and a conciliator was appointed in November. There was no settlement and the six items were referred to the Industrial Court by the parties vide the Notification of Dispute Form "A" signed on 27th January, 1972. This form, along with the Certificate of the Labour Commissioner dated 1st March, 1972, as required under section 9 (9) (e) of the Trade Disputes Act, was received by the Court on 4th March, 1972.

During the hearing the Court was informed that the parties had already agreed to a wage increase of Sh 20 per month on the following rates for the various grades. The housing allowance, as it is an issue in dispute, is also shown hereunder —

| Grade | Wage Sh p m | Housing Allowance Sh p m |
|-------|----------------|--------------------------------|
| 1 | 315 | 45 |
| 2 | 344 | 45 |
| 3 | 384 | 45 |
| 4 | 454 | 60 |
| 5 | 531 | 60 |
| 6 | 590 | 60 |
| 7 | 650 | 60 |
| 8 | 833 | 60 |
| 9 | 941 | 60 |
| 10 | 1,065 | 60 |

The Respondents produced some minutes of a meeting which had taken place at Sagana on 14th August, 1970, to support their argument that the issues dealing with "Loans" and "Bonus" were dropped by the Claimants after the Respondents had explained the position to the Claimants' representatives. These minutes were hotly disputed by the Claimants who maintained that this meeting dealt solely with the problems of Sagana employees and had no bearing whatsoever on other employees. After a careful consideration, the Court has decided not to attach any weight to these minutes and accordingly the Court has made its findings on these two issues on the arguments and submissions put forward by the parties during the hearing.

1 Loans—Surprisingly there is a provision in the collective agreement, which is being revised, on this item. The existing arrangement recorded under "Welfare" is as follows —

"(a) (ii) Where the Welfare problem takes the form of an application for a loan and the Company feels that compelling reasons have been established for granting such loan the amount advanced shall be recovered in instalments not exceeding one-third of the employee's gross wage.

Loans in excess of one month's wages will not be granted except in very exceptional circumstances.

In exceptional cases the approval of the Board of Directors shall be sought."

The Claimants now demand that an employee should be entitled to get by way of loan from the Respondents the equivalent of the amount lying to the credit of that particular employee in the gratuity scheme which has been frozen since the commencement of the National Social Security Fund. They said there was no reason why their members should not get loans as suggested by them because the Respondents would have adequate security.

The Respondents on the other hand strongly submitted that even at present they were receiving far too many applications for loans and they suspected that the money was being wastefully used. In any case, they pointed out, the gratuity scheme was subject to its own rules one of which stated that if an employee was dismissed for gross misconduct he would lose his gratuity and therefore there would be no security in that case.

The Court has carefully considered this demand but has come to the conclusion that loans should not be linked with the money lying to the credit of employees in the now frozen gratuity scheme. The Court must point out that it would be wrong to enable a worker to draw on his retirement benefits otherwise the worker would find that he has no money to fall back on when he is in most need of it, that is when he retires.

In view of the fact that loans in excess of one month's wages can be granted in exceptional circumstances the Court must reject this demand.

2 Sick Leave—The Claimants withdrew their demand on this item.

3 Long Service Awards—About nine years ago, the Respondents used to pay their employees 13 months salary for every year of service. This practice was, however, discontinued towards the end of 1963 when the bonus element was consolidated in the wages at that time. The bonus element ranged from Sh 16/25 to Sh 92 per month.

The Claimants now demand that at the end of every year the Respondents should award a certain amount of pay to their employees depending on the years of service of each employee. They added that the workers needed an incentive for better performance.

The Respondents maintained that this was an unreasonable demand and submitted that long service employees are well looked after in the general conditions of employment.

The Court notes that the present wage structure is based on an elaborate job classification the details of which were made available to the Court and as a result the employees are paid a "rate for the job" and there are no annual increments. This fact is clearly recorded in the current agreement. For the foregoing reasons the Court must reject this demand.

4 Housing and Housing Allowance—The current situation is that out of some 270 employees there are 200 manual workers, out of these, 132 are housed by the Respondents. Those who are not housed are paid the house allowance as set out herein before in the award.

The Claimants demand new housing allowance as follows —

| Grades | Sh p m |
|--------|--------|
| 1 to 3 | 100 |
| 4 to 6 | 125 |
| 7 to 9 | 150 |
| 10 | 215 |

The Claimants further submit that the value of the houses provided by the Respondents was not more than Sh 30 per month. They alleged that the accommodation was very poor and the workers had to share communal bathrooms and toilets and cooked their meals in the only room which they were allocated. In these circumstances they asked the Court to rule that such employees should be paid in cash the amount of their housing allowance entitlement less Sh 30 per month.

The Respondents maintained that the present housing allowance was above average and it is never the intention that the allowance should equal the rent. The Respondents asked the Court to consolidate the present housing allowance into the wages so that the workers would get additional benefits.

The Court finds that the Claimants' demand on this issue in respect of those workers who are housed to be unrealistic and is therefore not prepared to make any award for those workers who are housed by the Respondents. If the workers are not satisfied with the houses provided they can then find other accommodation and claim the housing allowance for their grade. The Court must also reject the Respondents' demand that the housing allowance should be consolidated into the wages.

In respect of those workers who are not housed by the Respondents the Court awards the following housing allowance for the various grades —

| Grade | Housing Allowance Sh p m |
|-------|--------------------------------|
| 1 | 60 |
| 2 | 60 |
| 3 | 60 |
| 4 | 75 |
| 5 | 75 |
| 6 | 75 |
| 7 | 75 |
| 8 | 75 |
| 9 | 75 |
| 10 | 75 |

5 Redundancy—The Claimants demand that if workers are declared redundant then they should be paid severance pay at the rate of one month's pay for each completed year of service.

The Court notes that it is already provided that in the event of redundancy the full amount standing to the workers' credit in the gratuity scheme would be paid to the workers. This scheme provides for setting aside each year of one-twentieth of the annual wage representing nearly 17 days' pay plus accrued interest.

In these circumstances the Court awards that in the event of redundancy, in addition to the existing provisions, workers shall be entitled to severance pay at the rate of 15 days' pay for every completed year of service with effect from the date the gratuity scheme was frozen.

6 Effective Date and Duration—The provisions of the existing agreement on this point as set out hereinbefore are quite clear in that the negotiations should commence two months after the Claimants have submitted their demands. There is no ambiguity in the relevant clause. Therefore the Claimants having forwarded their demands to the Respondents on 28th June, 1971, the negotiations commenced on 1st September, 1971.

If agreement had been reached at the negotiating stage it would have become effective from 1st October, 1971. The delay caused at the Ministry of Labour is no reason to deny the workers a backdating of their benefits some of which had already been agreed as far back as September, 1971, and the others are the subject of this award.

After a careful consideration of all the submissions, the Court awards that the effective date should be 1st October, 1971, and the duration period should be 18 months from that date.

GAZETTE NOTICE No 1817

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
