THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 21 OF 1973

Parties —

Kenya Motor Engineering and Allied Workers' Union
and

Nairobi Tyre Retreaders' Group

Issues in dispute —

- 1 Suspension
- 2 Sick leave
- 3 Job grading and wages
- 4 Effective date and duration

1 The Kenya Motor Engineering and Allied Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Nairobi Tyre Retreaders' Group shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 19th day of June, 1973, and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 In April, 1972, a dispute was referred to the Court between the Claimants and Bhamra Tyre Retreaders Ltd This dispute, however, was withdrawn because the Nairobi Tyre Retreaders' Group was being formed at the time

After the Respondents were formed the Claimants forwarded to them on 24th June, 1972, their initial proposals on a Collective Agreement These proposals were withdrawn by the Claimants and new ones submitted on 27th June, 1972

The parties met on 5th and 11th July, 1972, when agreement was reached on a number of items Further meetings were held on 24th August and 12th September, 1972, after which a deadlock was declared on seven issues, namely, annual leave, sick leave, termination of service, suspension, gratuity and retirement, wages and grading, effective date and duration of agreement

The Respondents reported a dispute to the Ministry of Labour on 18th September, 1972, on the seven issues because the Claimants wanted to bring the dispute direct to the Industrial Court The dispute was accepted and a conciliator was appointed on 22nd September, 1972 In response to the conciliator's request the Claimants submitted their demands and arguments in writing but the Respondents chose to rely on verbal arguments

During the conciliation meetings the parties visited Vacu-Lug and National Tyre Retreaders to have an appreciation of relative value of jobs Little progress, however, was made with the Claimants accusing the Respondents of using delaying tactics and the Respondents accusing the Claimants of reducing the conciliation proceedings to a circus of insults and innuendos

The parties, however, continued their contact and reached agreement on gratuity/retirement benefits and annual leave—the issue of termination of service clause had been settled previously

On 27th February, 1973, the parties signed Form "A" and on the date of mention they settled the issues of suspension and sick leave

The Claimants bitterly criticized the Ministry of Labour officials for delaying the submission of the dispute to the Court by two months for no apparent justifiable reason as the Labour Commissioner forwarded the Form "A" with his certificate dated 14th May, 1973, to the Industrial Court on 15th May, 1973

The Court appreciates the Claimants' feelings in the matter but at the same time it should be realized that the Labour Commissioner has to satisfy himself properly that all available machinery (including statutory machinery) for the voluntary settlement of disputes has been exhausted This is in addition to the numerous other important duties which the Labour Commissioner has to discharge In any case the Court always takes such factors into account when awarding the effective date and ensures that the workers do not suffer any injustice

On the remaining two issues in dispute namely job grading and wages and effective date and duration, the Claimants submitted that the job grading and the rates in respect thereof offered by the Respondents were not acceptable to them because the Respondents' members were engaged in business for which there was a great demand and further that since they competed with such firms as Car & General and Firestone, there was no reason why they should not pay the same rates as these two firms. They alleged that the Respondents enjoyed cheap labour, paid less and made fantastic profit due to business boom.

The Claimants proposed a job grading of eight grades with separate categories for artisans, drivers, clerks and security staff. The minimum rate they have suggested is Sh 300 (with Sh 45 housing allowance to be consolidated in the wage) going up to a wage of Sh 750 for Grade VIII. They stressed that the increase in cost of living justified their demands.

The Claimants have also suggested the effective date to be 1st July, 1972, as they accuse the Respondents of having used delaying tactics.

Finally they demanded a duration of 12 months only.

The Respondents stated that their members were small family businesses and could not be compared with international firms like Firestone and Car & General. They pointed out that each one of their members has had a separate collective agreement with the Claimants and from February this year all the wage rates had gone up because the Wages Council Regulation Order for the Motor Industry was extended to include them in it also with the result that most of the workers had received further increases from that date.

The Respondents submitted that there was no flourishing market in tyre retreading industry and they were suffering from unhealthy competition from numerous other firms who were not their members. They stressed that a minimum consolidated rate of Sh 255 p.m. (inclusive of Sh 45 housing allowance) was quite reasonable taking into account the fact that big firms in the motor industry will pay a minimum consolidated rate for Nairobi of Sh 315 p.m. with effect from 1st July, 1973.

The Respondents asked the Court to confirm their job grading showing five groups which included all job categories starting with a consolidated rate of Sh 255 going up to Sh 587 for Group V.

The Respondents denied that they had employed delaying tactics and clarified that one meeting which they failed to attend was because an officer of the Federation of Kenya Employers (FKE) dealing with the matter had met with an accident in the Nyanza Province. They asked the Court to award the effective date to be the date of the award and that the duration of the agreement should be two years.

The Court notes that the parties have agreed that whatever is awarded as the consolidated wage should include an element of housing allowance to an extent of Sh 45.

After a careful consideration of all the submissions the Court makes the following award —

1 Suspension

Settled by the parties out of Court

2 Sick leave

Settled by the parties out of Court

3 Job grading and wages

GAZETTE NOTICE NO 2129

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T M No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
