THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 17 OF 1974

Parties:—

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union

and

Eldoret Municipal Council

Issue in dispute.—Underpayment of wages of Mr. Mwangi Kagwara.

1. The Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Eldoret Municipal Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 14th day of May, 1974, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. In addition, the parties called the following persons to give evidence on oath:—

(1) Claimants.—Mr. Mwangi Kagwara.

(2) Respondents.—Mr. Mehar Singh Jagdev.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 8th February, 1974, was received by the Court on 14th March, 1974, together with the certificate from the Labour Commissioner under section 9 (9) (e) of the Trade Disputes Act.

In this dispute the Claimants are claiming a sum of Sh. 3,661/80 from the Respondents being the difference between what Mr. Mwangi Kagwara was actually paid and what he should have received under the agreed terms and conditions of service. The details of the claim are as follows:—

	Sh.
"1970—July-December at 109/40 x 6	656/40
1971—January-November at 113/40 x 11	1,247/40
1971—December (200-97)	103/00
1972—(210-97) = 113 x 12	1,356/00
1973—January to 13th March: 246 + 53	299/00
	3,661/80."

The Claimants' contention is that Mr. Kagwara has been underpaid from the time he started working for the Respondents in July, 1970. They stated that the Respondents being one of the Municipal Councils were not allowed to enter into any verbal contracts of any nature with anybody and it was therefore irregular for them to allow Mr. Kagwara's name to appear in the Council payroll without a written contract.

The Claimants maintained that Mr. Kagwara was employed by the Respondents on full time basis and in any case the collective agreement which they had with the Respondents precluded them from employing any worker on part time basis although they could employ workers on temporary and casual basis.

The Respondents resisted this claim vigorously on the ground that Mr. Kagwara throughout his employment with the Respondents was a part time employee doing only two hours' work for five days a week and that he had been properly paid for that work.

The Respondents produced documentary evidence to prove that the job of a sweeper at Uasin Gishu Primary School had always been a part time job and that when Mr. Kagwara took over the work he was fully aware and he accepted to work as a part time sweeper working ten hours a week, working from 2 to 4 p.m. Monday to Friday.

It is necessary to go back into the records maintained by the Respondents in order to come to a just and fair decision in this case. In the minutes of the meeting of the Education Committee held on 3rd May, 1965, the following is recorded under Minute E. 23/65:—

"Subordinate Staff

The Town Clerk reported that it would be necessary for the Council to take over nine subordinate staff and one part time sweeper for the Uasin Gishu Primary School on Council's Terms of Service. Mr. Patel stated that he had already explained to the staff concerned the present conditions and that if the Council agreed to take them on they would be taken on as new employees. After discussion it was resolved to recommend to the Finance and General Purposes Committee that nine subordinate staff and one part time sweeper be taken over on Council's Terms of Service for Subordinate Staff."

The correspondence that was exchanged between the parties in 1971 and 1972 clearly shows that Mr. Kagwara was after securing permanent employment with the Respondents and that when the Claimants raised in January, 1972, the question of underpayment the Respondents emphatically stated that he was employed only on a part time basis.

Further documentary evidence has satisfied the Court that the post of the sweeper at the Uasin Gishu Primary School had always been one of part time until sometime last year when due to shortage of staff the present sweeper has been taken on full time and given additional duties like pruning the hedge, grass cutting, etc.

The Court notes that the Claimants are claiming underpayment on his behalf from July, 1970 to 13th March, 1973, the date when it is alleged Mr. Kagwara got so fed up with the treatment he was getting that he decided to resign but the Court has no doubt that he deserted his employment.

The Court must overrule the Claimants' submission that the Respondents are not allowed to engage any part time employees other than those who are temporary or casual. The Court finds that the words "temporary" and "casual" are wide enough to cover any part time employees as well. To make any finding to the contrary would amount to very severely restricting an employer's right to hire. This the Court is not prepared to do.

The Court is fully satisfied that notwithstanding the absence of a letter of appointment Mr. Kagwara with his own agreement was employed by the Respondents as a part time sweeper and that he has been adequately rewarded for the services that he rendered until the date of his desertion.

After a careful consideration of all the submissions and the evidence given by the witnesses the Court rejects the Claimants' demand.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1948

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 19 OF 1974

Parties:—

Brollo Kenya Ltd.
and
Kenya Engineering Workers' Union

Issue in dispute:—

Redundancy.

1. Brollo Kenya Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Kenya Engineering Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 30th day of May, 1974, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Claimants called Mr. Francis Maina to give evidence in Court.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 16th March, 1974, was received by the Court on 8th April together with the statutory certificate from the Labour Commissioner in accordance with section 9 (9) (e) of the Trade Disputes Act.

This dispute stems from the Claimants' desire to declare redundant 16 workers for whom they find they have no jobs. The Respondents generally had been sympathetic to the Claimants' problems as will be evident hereinafter but found that as far as the 16 employees involved in this dispute are concerned they cannot accept their redundancy.

The Claimants are an engineering undertaking and are involved in the manufacture of sheets, plates, angles, profiles and pipes. Their current factory capacity is 8,000 tons per month but most of the time from the middle of July, 1972, to April this year they had averaged a production of 800 to 1,000 tons per month which is well below their break-even point. Taking into account the changing price pattern of this industry they reckoned that 2,000 to 3,000 tons would be their break-even point. The Claimants produced the necessary documentary evidence in support of their contentions.

The Claimants called a witness who is their Deputy General Manager and he explained that at present they had 187 workers in employment but this number was larger than what they really required and for whom they had the necessary work. He produced the necessary factory chart showing the location of the various machines and which illustrated that they could not provide work for more than 171 employees and any additional employees on the machines would be superfluous. He further informed the Court that they had tried to absorb as many as they could but they cannot fit in any one of these 16 employees. In the past they had shifted people and given them training, etc., whenever that was necessary but now they could not have them any more.

The Claimants commenced the construction of their factory in December, 1971, and work was carried out in three stages—the first being completed in April, 1972, when 35 employees who were employed on a casual basis were transferred from construction to manufacturing work. Stage two continued until August, 1972, when a further 120 unskilled employees were transferred from contractor labour to the Claimants' undertaking on manufacturing work. 140 employees were employed on stage three which was completed in August, 1973, and all of them were transferred to manufacturing even though they were unskilled.

It was explained on behalf of the Claimants that their Chairman, himself an industrialist with many other factories elsewhere in the world, decided that all construction labour should be retained until all construction had been completed in the hope that work would be found for them and skills slowly imparted to them when production got into full swing. This was purely out of human consideration and Mr. Brollo's intentions in this regard were made clearly known to the Respondents from the outset.

This Court is satisfied that this attitude on the part of the Claimants resulted in their employing far too many employees and to make matters worse they had to face severe competition with firms who imported they very same items which the Claimants were supposed to manufacture here in Kenya. Consequently the demand for the Claimants' products did not materialize as was envisaged.

These factors coupled with lack of export markets in the neighbouring countries for the finished products compelled the Claimants to declare 119 workers redundant and they embarked on discussions with the Respondents. As a result of the Respondents' appeal alternative jobs were found for 50 thus reducing the redundancy to a minimum of 68. The Court notes that the Respondents had been involved in this exercise from 3rd October, 1973.

As further agreement could not be reached between the parties the Claimants involved the Minister for Labour in this matter and a conciliator was appointed and a meeting with the Respondents was arranged for 14th February, 1974. This meeting however did not take place until 22nd February, 1974. The Respondents however confirmed that should any employee wish to leave the Claimants' employment then he should be paid his entitlements in accordance with the terms and conditions of serve agreement, and it is not disputed that compensation has been paid as follows:—

- (a) One month's salary for February, 1974.
- (b) One month's salary for notice period to be effective for the month of March, 1974.
- (c) All leave having already been taken to be disregarded.
- (d) Two weeks' severance pay for every completed year of service.

Since all the employees had been sent on leave, 52 of them accepted their entitlement and left the employment and that leaves the 16 involved in this dispute of whom 9 are on permanent leave and 7 are attending the premises although there is no work for them.

The Court has carefully considered the Respondents' submission that the Claimants should be asked to absorb these 16 employees in their factory but in view of the submissions and the undisputed evidence both documentary and the oral testimony on oath of the Claimants' Deputy General Manager, the Court is of the view that however regrettable it may be in this case, the application by the Claimants to declare the 16 employees redundant should succeed.

In Cause No. 14 of 1973, between the Printing and Kindred Trades Workers' Union and Birds Office Stationery & Equipment the Court, while rejecting an employer's demand to declare certain employees redundant, set out certain points on which it had to be satisfied before any redundancy application could succeed. In this case the Court is wholly satisfied that all the principles as laid down in the Industrial Relations Charter and those set out by the Court in the aforesaid cause number have been complied with and there is therefore no ground for the Court to refuse this application.

The Court feels that it is important that the Claimants should be allowed to develop without carrying employees for whom no work is available and the Claimants have further given a guarantee that if the situation improves they will give the first offer of employment to those laid off.

During the hearing a rather important point emerged which is of general importance and application to the country's development plans at large. The Claimants have highlighted the fact that whereas they have the factory potential of 8,000 tons production per month, they found that their average output of sales varies between 800 to 1,000 tons per month. This was because all the items of steel products within the Claimants' range of production are imported in large quantities by Kenya merchants under open General Licence. The Claimants quoted the relevant statistics for 1972 and 1973 extracted from the E.A. Customs & Excise Department Annual Trade Report in substantiation of their complaint.

The Court cannot rule out that probably there are some other aspects of this problem of importation of steel products which were not gone into in fuller details during the hearing of this dispute but the Court is left with a distinct impression that there seems to be something wrong somewhere in that when an industrial undertaking has been set up in the country with the full blessings of the Government, conditions are allowed to exist which not only undermine the creation of new job opportunities in that industry but in fact lead to a good many workers already in employment to be declared redundant. If this sort of situation is allowed to develop then the Government's development plans would be seriously impaired. The Court feels duty-bound to draw the attention of the Kenya Government and the relevant Ministry to probe deeply into the allegation that was highlighted during the hearing of this dispute. The Court is sure that the Government will be in full agreement with the Court's views that industrial undertakings should be allowed to develop not only to keep in employment the existing number of workers but to create many more new jobs which are so very vital in the economic plans of our country.

In the dispute before the Court, the Court gives approval to the Claimants' demand to declare 16 employees redundant as stated in the submissions and awards that they should all be paid one month's salary in lieu of notice plus all their dues including wages up to the end of June, 1974.

No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred.
