10. The grantee shall pay to the Commissioner of Lands on demand such sum as the Commissioner may estimate to be the proportionate cost of constructing all roads and drains and sewers serving or adjoining the land and shall on completion of such construction and the ascertainment of the actual proportionate cost either pay (within seven days of demand) or be refunded the amount by which the actual proportionate cost exceeds or falls short of the amount paid as aforesaid.

11. The grantee shall from time to time pay to the Commissioner of Lands on demand such proportion of the cost of maintaining all roads and drains serving or adjoining the land as the Commissioner may assess.

12. Should the Commissioner of Lands at any time require the said roads to be constructed to a higher standard, the grantee shall pay to the Commissioner on demand such proportion of the cost of such construction as the Commissioner may assess.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 39 OF 1974

Parties:—

Transport and Allied Workers Union and
Air Kenya Limited

Issue in dispute:—

Unreasonable dismissal of Mrs. Chege on 6th March, 1973.

1. The Transport and Allied Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Air Kenya Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 5th September, 1974, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 8th March, 1974, signed by representatives of both the parties was received by the Court on 18th July, 1974, along with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mrs. A. Chege started working for the Respondents on 27th November, 1967, as a Receptionist/Ground Hostess at a monthly salary of Sh. 700. In due course her salary was increased to Sh. 1,590 which was what she was earning when she was summarily dismissed on 6th March, 1973.

The reason stated in her letter of dismissal is as follows:—

"We understand that you are involved in certain Work Permit negotiations and enjoy close relationships to and with certain friends and members of the Immigration Department.

These relationships and negotiations are not in keeping with your duties and responsibilities with this company and in fact can be construed to be strictly against the best interests of the company and its staff in the light of your recent behaviour. Further there may be certain unlawful associations and intentions involved to the detriment of this company and staff.

A certain Sister Grace Wanjiru of the Government Hospital, Kiambu has been named and is known to be one of your associates. Therefore, as your actions in this, and your past record, has not always been in the best interests of the company and could bring the name of the company into disrepute and damage the career and reputation of company staff, you are hereby summarily dismissed from the staff of Air Kenya Limited."

It is not disputed that Mrs. Chege consulted a firm of advocates and served a notice on the Respondents Managing Director for compensation for defamation of character. This action, however, was not pursued by her; instead she saw the Claimants who took up the matter on her behalf. The Claimants in due course reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour and an investigator was appointed.

On 24th, April, 1973, Mrs. Chege collected a cheque for a sum of Sh. 2,225/70 being pay in lieu of notice, pay for six days of March and pay in respect of prorata leave and leave allowance.

The parties have a collective agreement in force in which clauses concerning "warning" and "termination of employment" are contained.

The Claimants bitterly complained that the Respondents attitude was either to ignore the Claimants representatives or take only a cursory interest in them. The Court gets a clear impression of this and also that the Respondents were not very co-operative with the Investigator appointed by the Ministry of Labour. The Court can only comment that it is very much in the interest of the parties that where a union is recognized its existence should be taken seriously.

The Chief Industrial Relations Officer had this to say in this conclusion and recommendation:—

"It was unfortunate that the Management did not consider it necessary to attend meetings convened by the investigator to submit oral evidence but only relied on their written submission through their lawyer.

The Management did not also consider it necessary to produce the tape-recording of the conversation between Mrs. Chege and the European employee which seems to be the main evidence in support of the Management's action.

The allegations against Mrs. Chege therefore do not seem to have been proved.

Recommendation

After careful examination of all the evidence made available to the investigator, I give Mrs. Chege the benefit of doubt and therefore consider the action taken against Mrs. Chege to be unjustified and it is accordingly recommended that she be reinstated without loss of earning."

The Respondents rejected this recommendation and the parties are now before the Court.

The Claimants maintain that Mrs. Chege was never formally dismissed. In any case no justifiable reason was given as to why her services were being dispensed with after almost six years of loyal service. The Claimants insinuated that an expatriate in Respondents employment was interested in her and since she refused to give in she has been victimized.

The Claimants strongly submitted that the Respondents should accept and honour the recommendation of the Chief Industrial Relations Officer and demanded that Mrs. Chege should be paid her full salary from March, 1973, to the date of the Court award as compensation for her wrongful dismissal.

The Respondents stated that Mrs. Chege had been warned a couple of times in the past although the warnings had lapsed.

The Respondents placed before the Court all the relevant documents and asked for their action in dismissing Mrs. Chege to be upheld as she had indulged in activities which were prejudicial to the firm.

The Court has before it a rather peculiar case where an employee is alleging improper motives on an officer of the Respondent firm who in turn are accusing Mrs. Chege of trying to obtain a bribe from the said officer who was having work permit problems.

The fact that neither party called any witness does not help matters at all and the written and verbal submissions made by them are anything but comprehensive.

There is no doubt that the copies of the warning, sent to Mrs. Chege were not sent to the Claimants as required in the collective agreement.

The Court feels that the Respondents should have drawn the attention of the police to the serious allegation that they have made against Mrs. Chege. at the time when Mrs. Chege is alleged to have tried to obtain a bribe to facilitate the issue of a work permit instead of referring the matter to the Immigration Department after terminating her services.

On the evidence before it the Court is not prepared to find that there was any good or justifiable reason for terminating Mrs. Chege's services and the Court finds that her services were wrongfully terminated.

The Court concurs with the findings of the investigator but is not prepared to order Mrs. Chege's reinstatement nor award a heavy compensation.

After careful consideration of all the submissions and the circumstances of the dispute, the Court awards that Mrs. Chege be paid an additional amount of Sh. 3,180 being her two months salary by way of compensation for her wrongful dismissal, she having already been paid one month's salary in lieu of notice.

Given in Nairobi this 9th day of October, 1974.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3313

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
