GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1385

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 91 OF 1976

Parties:—

Transport and Allied Workers' Union and
Kenya Rent A Car Ltd.

Issue in dispute.—Clerical grading.

1. The Transport and Allied Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kenya Rent A Car Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 2nd March and 20th April, 1977, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 1st October, 1976, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 22nd December, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Claimants are claiming a sum of Sh. 34,614/85 which they allege are arrears due to their five members Messrs. Julius Okeno, Geoffrey Wanga, John Obinda, Mutisya Keli and K. Kimani, four of whom, according to the Claimants, instead of being put in grade 8 were put in grades 5 and 6 and one instead of 7 was put in 5. The aforesaid amount represents the underpayment of salaries to these persons with effect from September, 1973 to March, 1977.

The breakdown of the claim is as follows:—

	Sh.	cts.
"Julius Okeno	6,132	05
Geoffrey Wanga	11,789	75
John Obinda	1,474	50
Mutisya Keli	10,797	55
K. Kimani	350	00."

The Claimants further claim a sum of Sh. 2,035/50 each on behalf of Mr. Keli and Mr. Okeno as they claim that these persons have been acting in capacities higher than their own.

The itemized details of the claim appear in the Claimants' submission.

The Claimants stated that way back in 1973, on 24th August, M. P. Castellano had specified the duties of all the accounting staff in the Respondents' undertaking and they relied on those duties in maintaining that the nature of the work performed by the aforesaid members entitle them to grade 8 with effect from 1st September, 1973. As against this the Respondents had placed them in the following grades:—

	Grade
"Julius Okeno	5
Geoffrey Wanga	5
John Obinda	6
M. Keli	5
K. Kimani	6."

The Claimants, however, conceded that they did not take up the claim on behalf of their members until August, 1975, when they came to know that their members had suffered as a result of wrong grading by the Respondents.

The Respondents strongly submitted that the Claimants' claim was totally misconceived as it was just not possible in a small department of seven people comprising the chief accountant and his assistant and five clerks to grade all the five clerks in grade 8. They stated that these five persons did not do similar duties or duties with the same responsibility and that each one did a different job requiring different skills and different requirement.

The Respondents stated that the job description which appears as Appendix A to the current collective agreement between the parties which is effective from 1st September, 1976, for a period of 24 months was agreed in 1973 and has not been altered since then. They were satisfied that they had properly graded the five employees after the 1973 agreement had been implemented taking into account the duties performed by them and the job descriptions for the various grades as agreed between the parties.

The Respondents added that in order to further remove any doubt on their grading they had asked a private firm of management consultants to evaluate individual gradings of these five clerks and the report from these consultants supported and confirmed the Respondents' grading and in their opinion the grading of the five clerks in the Respondents' accounts department was in agreement with the grades established and accepted by the Claimants.

The Court has noted the Claimants' point that they were not a party in any way to the investigation carried out by the management consultants engaged by the Respondents in this matter.

The Court would like to record that the parties entered into a collective agreement effective from 1st September, 1973, for a period of 18 months and in that agreement they agreed to the following clerical grades under group (vii):—

	Sh.
"Clerk I (Prob.)	400
Clerk I (Conf.)	475
Clerk II	520
Clerk III	600
Clerk IV	630
Clerk V	710
Clerk VI	880
Clerk VII	995
Clerk VIII	1,110."

Attached to that agreement is the job description for the various clerical grades which remains undisturbed to date.

The Court has very carefully compared the duties as specified by Mr. Castellano on 24th August, 1973, for the five persons involved in this dispute with the aforesaid descriptions for clerical grades 5 to 8. The Court has also taken into consideration the duties which these persons are alleged to be performing according to the Respondents and the views expressed by the management consultants engaged by the Respondents to go into this matter.

The Court notes that the salary scales of these five persons progressed as follows:—

"Year	Grade VI K. Kimani Payroll Clerk	Grade VI J. Okeno Receivable Clerk	Grade IV G. Wangi General Account- ing Clerk	Grade V K. Mutisya Machine Operator	Grade VI J. Obinda DBR Clerk

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court has arrived at the following findings.

By direct comparison between the duties set out in the Castellano job descriptions and those set out in the collective agreement none of the Claimants' clerks in this dispute carried out the range of grade VIII duties.

The Court finds, however, that by reference to the documents produced certain adjustments are justified to the grades during the years September, 1973 to March, 1977, and these are dealt with individually as follows:—

K. Kimani—Payroll Clerk

To be placed in grade VII. He has been paid at the rate of Sh. 1,075 since 3rd September, 1973, which is higher than the ruling grade VII rate of Sh. 995 and has continued to be paid a higher rate than the grade VII scale plus 15 per cent (September, 1975) and 10 per cent (September, 1976). He is therefore not entitled to an increased payment.

J. Okeno—Receivables Clerk

To be placed in grade VII. As he has been paid at the rate of Sh. 900 from September, 1973 to June, 1974, as against the grade VII rate Sh. 995 he is entitled to Sh. 95 × 10 months = Sh. 950. From July, 1974, he has been paid higher than the ruling grade VII and has continued at a more favourable rate than grade VII plus 15 per cent and 10 per cent. He is therefore entitled to Sh. 950.

G. Wangi—General Clerk/Later Payables Clerk

To be placed in grade V from September, 1973. As he has been paid at the rate of Sh. 650 from September, 1973 to June, 1974, as against the grade V rate of Sh. 710 he is entitled to Sh. 60 × 10 months = Sh. 600. He was then paid Sh. 700 from July, 1974 to April, 1975, and is further entitled to Sh. 10 × 10 months = Sh. 100. From May, 1975, he should have been promoted to grade VI as payables clerk. His salary at that time was Sh. 800 from May, 1975 to August, 1975. He is therefore entitled to Sh. 80 × 4 months = Sh. 320. From September, 1975, he was paid Sh. 920 which taking into consideration the 15 per cent increase is Sh. 1,012. He is due another Sh. 92 × 12 months = Sh. 1,104. In September, 1976, his salary was increased to Sh. 1,012 which taking into account the 10 per cent increase amounts to Sh. 1,113; he is entitled to a further Sh. 101 × 7. He is therefore entitled in all to Sh. 1,727.

K. Mutisya—Machine Operator

To be placed in grade VI from September, 1973. As he has been paid at the rate of Sh. 800 from September, 1973 to June, 1974, as against the grade VI rate of Sh. 880 he is entitled to Sh. 80 × 10 months = Sh. 800. From July, 1974, he has been paid higher than the ruling grade VI rate and has continued at a more favourable rate than grade VI plus 15 per cent and 10 per cent. He is therefore entitled to Sh. 800.

J. Obinda—Auditor/Later Supervisor

For the two months September and October, 1973, he was paid at Sh. 900 as against the ruling grade VII rate of Sh. 995, for those two months he is entitled to Sh. 95 × 2 months = Sh. 190. From then on until he became a supervisor in November, 1975, he was above the grade VII rate.

The Court awards accordingly to each one of them as follows:—

	Sh.
K. Kimani	Nil
J. Okeno	950
G. Wangi	1,727
K. Mutisya	800
J. Obinda	190

Acting allowances are not an issue in dispute and the Court makes no award.

Given in Nairobi this 20th day of May, 1977.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1387

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
