GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1034

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 25 OF 1977

Parties:—

Kenya Engineering Workers' Union
and

Engineering and Allied Industries Employers' Association
RULING

Interpretation Application

The Court announced its award in the above dispute on 22nd July, 1977, and on the issue of wages: Wage increase, the Court made the following award:—

"(a) All employees earning up to Sh. 691/55 and below are awarded a wage increase of Sh. 52/65 p.m. with effect from 1st September, 1976.

All these employees shall get a further wage increase of Sh. 52/65 p.m. with effect from 1st September, 1977.

(b) All those employees earning more than Sh. 691/55 are awarded a wage increase of Sh. 72/15 with effect from 1st September, 1976, and another increase of Sh. 72/15 with effect from 1st September, 1977.

The Court further directs that the existing wage rates for the various groups shall also go up by the aforesaid amount on the dates specified."

The Claimants have made an application for interpretation of the Court award on 14th February, 1979, and have pointed out that some members of the Respondents' Association have refused to implement the aforesaid Court award in respect of a few employees who were earning Sh. 692/25 p.m. They pointed out that what the Respondents had done was to treat these employees as if they were earning Sh. 691/55 and therefore proceeded to give them an increase of Sh. 52/65 instead of their proper entitlement of a wage increase of Sh. 72/15 under the Court award.

The Claimants asked the Court to clarify this point which the Respondents had described as a technical difference of opinion.

The Respondents gave the historical background leading to the above dispute and the wage rates which were in force prior to the Court award in this dispute.

The Respondents particularly referred to Group 3 of the non-clerical grades and showed how Sh. 34/40 p.m. was added to the employees' wages of this particular group:—

Group	Revised wage	÷195	Actual hourly rate	Actual monthly paid
3	691.55	3.546	3.55	692.25

The Respondents added that this was the result of the Court award in Cause No. 64/75 but unfortunately due to a clerical error on the part of the Respondents' secretariat, they had circularized the monthly wage of Group 3 to be Sh. 691/55 instead of Sh. 692/25.

The Respondents asked the Court to uphold the course of action taken by some members of their Association who had not only corrected the error of their secretariat showing Grade 3 as Sh. 691/55 but had in some cases rounded the figures to Sh. 692/25 being a figure divisible by 195, the monthly average working hours which gave an hourly rate of Sh. 3/55 for ease of calculation of overtime.

The Respondents asked the Court to uphold their interpretation that all employees in Grade 3 were entitled to Sh. 52/65 increase otherwise it would result in Grade 3 being sub-divided because those on the accurate rate of Sh. 692/25 would get an increase of Sh. 72/15 whilst those on the inaccurate wage of Sh. 691/55 would get an increase of Sh. 52/65.

The Court notes that out of some 6,000 workers affected by this Court award about 20 of them are aggrieved by the Respondents' interpretation or at least their grievance has come to light in that their monthly wage being Sh. 692/25 they had been given a wage increase of Sh. 52/65 instead of Sh. 72/15. Six of these workers are employed by African Marine and General Engineering Co. Ltd.

The Court appreciates the Respondents' motive that they have rounded up the wages of all workers by cts. 70 p.m. in order to make the figure divisible by 195 hours and also for ease of working out the overtime rates but the fact remains that the monthly wage of the workers or some of the workers in Group 3 had been Sh. 692/25 no doubt at the initiative of the Respondents themselves at the time the Court made its award.

The Respondents should have made this point clear to the Court during the hearing of the main dispute so that when the Court formulated its award it should have had this point before it. The Respondents not only failed to do this but also in their written submissions showed the wage rate for Group 3 to be Sh. 691/55 instead of Sh. 692/25.

The Court has in the past pointed out that the parties should take utmost care in their submissions to the Court and while working out the collective agreements so that later on they are not caught in a situation like this where they are pleading with the Court, in this case after the Court award had expired, that they had made a mistake in their written submissions. The Court award was effective from 1st September, 1976, and was to remain in force for a period of two years from that date.

In these circumstances the Court must reject the Respondents' interpretation of the Court award and since the Court award clearly state that those employees who were earning more than Sh. 691/55 should get a wage increase of Sh. 72/15 the Court directs that the Respondents should proceed to implement the Court award in respect of such employees and give them this increase instead of Sh. 52/65 p.m.

As far as the Respondents' point that this would sub-divide Group 3 into two wage rates is concerned, the Court finds that this need not be so because employees in every group can have different wages because of various factors like merit increase, etc.

The Court accordingly upholds the Claimants' interpretation on this point.

Dated this 6th day of April, 1979.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 67 OF 1975

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Journalists
and

East African Standard (Newspapers) Ltd.

Issues in dispute:—

1. Grading and job categories.
2. Seniority.

RULING

The Court announced its award in the above dispute on 22nd June 1976 in which the Court after making certain important findings stated as follows in the last two paragraphs:

"The Court having made the above findings, directs the parties to get together under the chairmanship of the Chief Industrial Relations Officer, Ministry of Labour, and to go through the claim of each one of the persons involved and to adjust them in accordance with the Court's findings as made above as far as their grading and salaries are concerned. The Respondents are thereafter directed to pay the appropriate arrears to the employees affected without any further delay.

The Court further directs that the parties will be at liberty to move the Court in case of resolving any doubt in respect of any of these people involved in this dispute after they have applied their minds with the assistance of the Chief Industrial Relations Officer in making adjustments as aforesaid."

The matter is now before the Court because the Claimants have put forward submissions in which they are not accepting the calculations in respect of the claim of each one of the persons involved. They particularly object to the Chief Industrial Relations Officer's (hereinafter referred to as C.I.R.O.) refusal to compute the arrears due to these journalists beyond the period 31st March, 1974.

The Claimants have put forward written and verbal submissions in respect of their position and have put forward the following amounts which they claim are due to their members as a result of the Industrial Court award in this dispute:

Anniversaries not paid: 1973 and 1974 i.e. in series No. 1—Sh. 125 x 132 months .. 16,500

21,000"

The Respondents submitted that on 23rd July, 1976 they signed implementation agreement with the Claimants in which they had worked out the arrears and the new wage of the journalists concerned as follows:

	Arrears	New wage
"Hendrikus J. van der Laan	2,175	2,750
Michael O. Mak'Onyango	3,000	3,425
John W. Odongo	2,250	2,475
Nahashon K. Waweru	3,750	3,250
Hezekiah M. Wepukhulu	4,000	3,000
Francis W. Machangia	3,000	2,475
Robert N. Okoth	3,750	2,200
John B. Ndurya	4,250	2,325
Jemimah Jesse	4,250	2,375
Job N. Mutungi	4,500	2,500
Charles K. Maina	4,500	3,125
Ongech Jawichre	—	3,500
Naphtaly O. Awiti	5,000	2,425
Harry S. Sambo	—	4,125"
Total	44,425

They further explained that the above agreement was the result of a meeting between the Kenya Union of Journalists Standard/Baraza chapel and their management and that subsequently on 28th July, 1976 the journalists involved had signed individual documents in respect of the implementation of this award.

The Respondents rejected the Claimants' figures as quoted hereinabove.

After a series of mentions of this dispute after the Court award was announced mainly at the behest of the Claimants the C.I.R.O. presented the parties with a 21 page report containing the adjustment made by him in accordance with the Court's findings as far as the grading and salaries are concerned and further showing the arrears due to them up to 31st March, 1974. The C.I.R.O. made a further report on 20th January, 1979 in respect of one journalist who was omitted from his original report.

The Court would like to state that the Claimants' figure which they claim to be the result of the implementation of the Court award are derived by implementing the Industrial Court awards in Cause Nos. 29/74 and 18/77 which affected the salaries of the journalists involved in this dispute.

The Court notes that the Claimants are in agreement at the manner in which the C.I.R.O. has applied the Court's findings but they disagree with the cut-off date as they feel that arrears should have been worked out right up to the end of last year.

The Claimants are also not happy at the C.I.R.O.'s ruling in respect of Jemimah Jesse, John Ndurya and Robert Okoth.

The Court would like to direct the parties' attention to the Notification of Dispute Form "A" where they have clearly stated that the Claimants represent the following classes of workers:

"Journalists (with titles covered in the agreement 1972 April to 1974, March 31) employed by the Standard/Baraza Newspapers."

The above is followed by the issues in dispute which are:

1. Grading and job categories
2. Seniority."

The Industrial Court award in Cause No. 29 of 1974 was announced on 4th September, 1974 and was effective from 1st April, 1974 until 31st March, 1976.

The Industrial Court award in Cause No. 18/77 was announced on 30th August, 1977 and was in force effective from 1st April, 1976 to 31st March, 1978.

In these circumstances the C.I.R.O. has adopted correct and proper approach in that he has established the position of each of these persons involved arising out of the 1972 collective agreement which was effective from April of that year to 31st March 1974 as far as the grading and the salary structure, after taking into account the anniversary increases. This he has done in accordance with the Court's findings.

The Court would like to make it clear that the Claimants are in the wrong in trying to force the Court to require the Respondents to pay arrears which they the Claimants have calculated having taken into account the Industrial Court awards in Cause Nos. 29/74 and 18/77. The implementation or non-implementation of these two awards is not the subject matter of the dispute in this cause. Otherwise the Court would be placed not only in an impossible position but would also be exceeding the jurisdiction conferred upon it in Cause No. 67 of 1975.

The Court has carefully studied the two reports of the C.I.R.O. would like to endorse them. The C.I.R.O. has acted under the Court directive and has come to his conclusions after going through the documentary evidence that was produced to him in respect of each of these journalists and the submissions made by the parties in respect of them.

The Court also accepts his findings as far as Jemimah Jesse, John Ndurya and Robert Okoth are concerned because he has come to these findings after studying the relevant documentary evidence.

Having made the above findings the Court would like to comment on the agreement which the Respondents made with the journalists concerned which agreement was arrived at their chapel level.

The Court must express its astonishment that the General Secretary of the Claimants was not involved at all in arriving at this agreement which surprisingly was signed by the Claimants' Chairman and the Assistant General Secretary. From the evidence that was produced during the hearing before the Court in resolving this matter the Court is satisfied that the General Secretary at the material time was in Nairobi.

The Respondents alone cannot be criticized for this as the persons who signed the agreement with them i.e. the Chairman and the Assistant General Secretary, who for reasons best known to themselves also decided to by-pass their General Secretary. These two top officials of the Claimants should also share the blame for this sort of manoeuvre to try to settle this matter at the chapel level when it had been vigorously pursued not only at the national level but also at the Industrial Court by the General Secretary.

The Court has carefully gone through this document and the other documents relating to it and finds that at best it can only be considered as a part payment towards the arrears due to these journalists. This agreement cannot be accepted to mean that these journalists accepted the arrears calculated at the chapel level to be their dues under this Industrial Court award in full and final settlement of their claims. Nowhere in any of these documents is it stated that these people had received these arrears in full and final settlement of their claims arising out of Cause No. 67/75.

The Court would like to add that the Respondents' contention that the Industrial Court awards are for a fixed period and the parties' position as established under them does not continue because it is overtaken by subsequent Industrial Court awards is not quite correct. The Industrial Court awards as far as salaries and fringe benefits are concerned generally raise their level and the subsequent Industrial Court awards are implemented by adding them on to the level of salaries and fringe benefits already achieved. So the benefits won by the workers as far as salaries and fringe benefits are concerned continue and are not cut-off on the expiry date of the Court award or the collective agreement as the case may be.

The result of this ruling of the Court is that the position of the journalists as far as their salaries and grading is concerned has been established up to 31st March, 1974 in accordance with the C.I.R.O.'s report copies of which are with both the parties. The arrears due to them are also specified therein which have been calculated up to 31st March, 1974.

The Court has made it clear that its awards in Cause Nos. 29/74 and 18/77 have to be implemented in respect of each of these journalists on the position, as far as salaries and grading are concerned, established as at 31st March, 1974. The implementation of these two awards is a matter for the parties and the Court can see no reason why they should not be implemented properly by the parties themselves. It may well be that these journalists will be entitled to further arrears as a result of the implementation of these two subsequent awards because the Court has clearly indicated that the Respondents, contention in respect of non-accruing of the anniversary increases due to the journalists is clearly wrong. This matter of arrears under Cause Nos. 29/74 and 18/77, however, is not the subject matter of the dispute in Cause No. 67/75 and the Court therefore makes no order in respect thereto. The parties will examine their respective positions as far as the implementation of the Court awards in Cause Nos. 29/74 and 18/77 are concerned and then either resolve the matter at their own level or enlist the help of the Ministry of Labour and failing that they can come to the Industrial Court on this specific issue as a fresh dispute. The Court, however, sees no reason why the parties cannot effect the implementation of these two subsequent awards on the method and formula used by the C.I.R.O. which the Court has found to be in conformity with its award.

Finally the Court would like to conclude this award by stating that further to its findings which were announced on 22nd June, 1976 the Court accepts the report of the C.I.R.O. and makes an award in respect of each of these journalists concerned in the following terms as found by the C.I.R.O.

Henk J. van der Laan

Mr. van der Laan was entitled for an increase of Sh. 125 p.m. on 12th June, 1972 and an anniversary increase of Sh. 125 p.m. on 12th June, 1973. He is entitled for payment of the arrears at the rate of Sh. 125 from 12th June, 1972 to 11th June, 1973 and Sh. 250 from 12th June, 1973 to 11th June, 1974. Therefore underpayment to him are:

	Sh.
Sh. 125 for 12 months	1,500
Sh. 250 for 12 months from June 1973 to June 1974	3,000
	4,500

Michael O. Mak'Onyango

He was not granted his anniversaries due on 15th September, 1972 and on 15th September, 1973 at the rate of Sh. 125 p.m. He was therefore entitled to arrears as follows:

	Sh.
From 15th September, 1972 to 14th September, 1973 @ Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
From 15th September, 1973 to 14th September, 1974 @ Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

John W. Odongo

Mr. Odongo having only been granted Sh. 50 on his anniversary of 1st October, 1972 is due a balance of Sh. 75 for the period 1st October, 1972 to 30th September, 1973 and at the rate of Sh. 200 p.m. for the period 1st October, 1974.

	Sh.
From 1st October, 1972 to 30th September, 1973 at Sh. 75 p.m.	900
From 1st October, 1973 to 30th September, 1974 at Sh. 200 p.m.	2,400
	3,300

Hezekiah M. Wepukhulu

Mr. Wepukhulu is entitled for his anniversaries due on 1st December, 1972 and 1st December, 1973. He is therefore entitled for payment as follows:

	Sh.
From 1st December, 1972 to 30th November, 1973 at Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
From 1st December, 1973 to 30th November, 1974 at Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

Frank Wanjohi Machanga

Since the Claimants made no claim in respect of him the Respondents had no submission to make but only agreed with Claimants' submission.

Naphtaly Otieno Awiti

In their statements the parties agreed that where an employee's salary as a result of being granted Sh. 125 increase on 1st April, 1972 brought his salary in between the points the person was moved to the next higher point. In Mr. Awiti's case when he was granted Sh. 125 his salary came to Sh. 1,935 p.m. According to the parties' 1972 agreement progression was from Sh. 1,850 then to Sh. 1,975 p.m. Mr. Awiti should have therefore moved to Sh. 1,975 p.m. with effect from 1st April, 1972. His salary should therefore be adjusted accordingly.

He should also be paid arrears for his anniversaries for 1972 and 1973 which were not granted to him. On the above basis the parties should be able to work out the calculations part of his case.

Charles Kariuki Maina

In the absence of supporting documents the C.I.R.O. considered Mr. Maina to be a Reporter as the records produced by the Respondents clearly state that he was appointed as such. He is therefore entitled for payment of anniversaries as follows:

	Sh.
1st September, 1972 for 12 months at Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
1st September, 1973 for 12 months at Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

Charles Jawichre

The Respondents have not denied that he did not get his anniversary increments but they have confirmed that they paid arrears to correct this anomaly. He is therefore due arrears being increments for anniversaries as follows:

	Sh.
From 1st November, 1972 for 12 months at Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
From 1st November, 1973 for 12 months at Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

Harry S. Sambo

Mr. Sambo was due for his anniversaries for 1972 and 1973 and he was due arrears as follows:

	Sh.
8th January, 1973 for 12 months at Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
8th January, 1974 for 12 months at Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

Miss Jemimah W. Jesse

Miss Jesse's salary was correctly adjusted. She is however, due for payment of arrears in respect of her anniversaries which in the C.I.R.O.'s view have been correctly worked out by the Respondents in the agreement at the chapel level.

John Baptista Ndurya

The 1972 collective agreement cannot be deemed to cover a period for which it was not in existence unless it so specifies that the period prior to the coming into force of that agreement was also covered. There is no such clause which had been brought to the C.I.R.O.'s attention. In the circumstances the agreement is only applicable from the date it came into force. In view of the above he is entitled to his anniversaries as follows:

	Sh.
1st February, 1973 for 12 months at Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
1st February, 1974 for 12 months at Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

Robert Okoth

As mentioned elsewhere in this award the 1972 collective agreement came into force with effect from 1st April, 1972 and its application came into force on that date not only on wages but on the matters mentioned therein. Therefore the 1972 agreement in this case cannot be applied.

The C.I.R.O. finds that Mr. Okoth's salary was correctly adjusted. All that he has to be paid are his anniversaries during the period of the 1972 collective agreement. He is therefore due arrears as follows:

	Sh.
24th October, 1972 for 12 months at Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
24th October, 1973 for 12 months at Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

John Ndambuki Mutungi

Mr. Mutungi is entitled for payment of arrears resulting from the non-granting of his anniversaries for 1972 and 1973 as follows:

	Sh.
1st May, 1972 for 12 months at Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
1st May, 1973 for 12 months at Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

Nahashon Kihara Waweru

Although it was claimed that Mr. Waweru was a Sub-Editor no written documents were produced by the Claimants to support this. This records kept by the Respondents show that Mr. Waweru was appointed as a reporter at a salary of Sh. 1,800 p.m. on 4th July, 1968. The letter of appointment issued to Mr. Waweru on 25th July, 1968 and signed by him accepting the offer of appointment supports the Respondents' statement that he was appointed as a reporter. The Claimants' submission that he was a Sub-Editor has not been proved. He is therefore due arrears as follows:

	Sh.
1st July, 1972 to 30th June, 1973 at Sh. 125 p.m.	1,500
1st July, 1973 to 30th June, 1974 at Sh. 250 p.m.	3,000
	4,500

Dated this 9th day of April, 1979.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1041

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed
