GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1789

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 7 of 1979

Parties—

Kenya Management Staff Association
and

Olympic Airways (E.A.)

Issue in dispute—

Suspension/termination of Mrs. D. S. Diniz.

1. The Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Olympic Airways (E.A.) shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 4th and 5th April, 1979, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:—

Claimants.—Mrs. D. S. Diniz.

Respondents.—P. Simopoulos.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 14th August, 1978, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 12th February, 1979, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mrs. D. S. Diniz was employed by the Respondents on 1st August, 1974, as a Ground Hostess/Secretary. She was suspended from duty on 15th February, 1978, on the ground that during the course of her duties on OA 102 of 26th November, 1977, she demanded excess baggage payment of US dollars 150 from passenger L. Schiller and received from him K.Sh. 1,203/60, the equivalent of this amount for which she neither issued an official receipt nor submitted the amount to the company. She was told that the matter would be further investigated and a final decision would be conveyed to her in due course.

Mrs. Diniz denied the allegations made against her and inquired which Government department was investigating the alleged complaints against her. She further stated that the accusation was initiated through malice and with deliberate aim of humiliating her and dispensing her services without proper cause.

On 21st April, 1978, her services were terminated in the following terms:—

"Further to our discussion in my office, I regret to inform you that your services with Olympic Airways are terminated with effect from 20th April, 1978.

Although your offence makes you liable to summary dismissal we have decided to give you a normal termination with your benefits. Please arrange to call at our Accounts Office to collect your dues. At the same time, you are required to hand in the company's properties (uniforms, etc.)."

The Claimants acting on her behalf reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour and it was investigated by the Ministry. The Permanent Secretary released the findings and recommendation on this dispute to the parties on 1st August, 1978, which were as follows:—

"Findings—

From the evidence given by the passenger and from the records of Barclays Bank International Ltd., Airport Agency, of 25th November, 1977, between 10 p.m. and 12 midnight there is no doubt that Mrs. Diniz received this money. She failed to issue the receipt or to notify the company. She being an employee of the company for several years ought to have known that such an act was against the laid down regulations. I do not therefore find her suspension and subsequent termination wrongful.

Recommendation—

I recommend that she be paid all her terminal benefits she is entitled to as offered by the employer."

The Claimants rejected the Ministry's findings and recommendation and the dispute is now before the Court.

The Claimants during the hearing expressed great surprise as to how the Ministry of Labour had arrived at its findings and recommendation because in their opinion no valid evidence was obtained on which to base such findings and recommendation. They submitted that the Respondents' Regional Manager for East Africa had a grudge against Mrs. Diniz for the reason best known to him.

The Claimants stated that in matters where money was involved it was necessary that the facts should be checked properly before a decision is taken and they added that the Respondents had admitted to them that they had taken the action of terminating Mrs. Diniz's services before seeking any legal advice.

The Claimants explained to the Court that they had insisted all along for the Respondents to produce valid evidence to include—

- (a) bank slip;
- (b) complainant's letter; and
- (c) any voucher containing evidence.

The Respondents further failed to produce any evidence to them and they wondered from where the Ministry of Labour got the evidence of cheques which was not produced at the time of the investigation.

The Claimants recalled that the real problem between Mrs. Diniz and the Respondents began in May, 1977, when she had come back from sick leave and she was asked to resign and was sent on two weeks' leave. She was, however, reinstated on 20th June, 1977, after the Claimants and the Ministry of Labour had intervened. They emphasized that this showed that the Respondents were looking for a reason to get rid of her. The Claimants asked the Court to award Mrs. Diniz 12 months' salary for wrongful termination that she had suffered in addition to her other terminal benefits. Her salary at the time of her termination being Sh. 2,141 with a house allowance of Sh. 190.

The Respondents vigorously submitted that when their New York office had transmitted to them via Athens the complaint received from Mr. Schiller they had carried out investigations and as a result they were satisfied that Mrs. Diniz was guilty of gross misconduct but had decided to give her a normal termination and had accordingly paid her a sum of Sh. 6,761/95 details of which were given in their written submission.

In addition to the parties' written submissions in which all the details relating to this dispute appear the Court heard the evidence on oath both of Mrs. Diniz and P. Simopoulos.

The Court can find no reason to doubt that an incident took place involving Mrs. Diniz and an American passenger Mr. Schiller as a result of which the Respondents lost Sh. 1,203/60 which was due to them by way of excess baggage which Mr. Schiller carried. The Court is not prepared to believe that Mr. Schiller was an innocent victim of extortion of this amount by Mrs. Diniz. There is more to this incident as far as Mr. Schiller's conduct is concerned. The fact, however, remains that Mrs. Diniz was involved in this incident.

The Court cannot accept the Claimants' submission that the Respondents have cooked up a story of this nature in order to get rid of Mrs. Diniz. To find so would be very far fetched.

From the documentary evidence that was produced the Court is satisfied that Mr. Schiller, between 4 p.m. and midnight of 25th November, 1977, in order to obtain K.Sh. 1,203/60 had cashed $150 in cheques at the airport bank. The Court has noticed that Mr. Schiller has referred to the person involved in the incident as a Greek lady but later on referred to her as a female of Asian extraction. Having looked at Mrs. Diniz the Court can understand that this was a genuine mix up and that she is the person who is being referred to by Mr. Schiller as the only other lady on duty at that time was an African lady.

Despite the doubts which the Court has about Mr. Schiller's conduct in this affair the fact remains that Mrs. Diniz, an employee of the Respondents, was involved in this very unfortunate affair. The Court can find no reason whereby to find that Mrs. Diniz was an innocent party to this affair or that she was not at all involved in this matter. The Court would like to add that an employee should not enter into shady deals of this nature with his or her employer's customers.

The Court notes that the Respondents have paid Mrs. Diniz fully up to the end of May, 1978, although she was on suspension from 15th February, 1978, and since this amount includes all her terminal benefits which were due to her the Court can help her no more. The Court would like to add that Mrs. Diniz secured another employment with effect from 14th June, 1978.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that the Claimants' demand in this dispute should fail and the Court accordingly rejects it.

Given in Nairobi this 26th day of June, 1979.

Judge.
