GAZETTE NOTICE No. 939

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 80 OF 1979

Parties:

Dockworkers' Union
and
Kenya Cargo Handling Services

Issue in dispute:

Housing allowance.

1. The Dockworkers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kenya Cargo Handling Services shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 26th and 27th February, 1980 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated the 14th December, 1979 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on the 21st December together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The parties appeared before this Court in Cause No. 7 of 1978 when the Court stated as follows in respect of the issue of housing:

"The parties' collective agreements show an interesting change between the years 1969 and 1974 in that in the 1969 agreement it is clearly stated that the dockworkers' salaries and wages are deemed to include an element of housing whereas in the 1974 agreement the words "concerned and salaries and wages are deemed to include an element of housing" are deleted.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court rules that 15 per cent of the current wages and salaries are to be deemed to be the housing element. The Court, however, does not intend to deconsolidate this 15 per cent housing element from the present wages and salaries."

"The Court has come to the conclusion that the dockworkers should be paid a house allowance of K.Sh. 30 p.m. with effect from 1st July, 1978 in addition to their wages and salaries which contain a housing element of 15 per cent."

The parties entered into a collective agreement which was effective from 1st May, 1977 and expired on the 30th April, 1979. The Court's award on housing was incorporated in this agreement.

At the expiry of the said agreement on the 30th April, 1979 the Claimants submitted a memorandum on a single item of housing or house allowance in lieu. The Claimants demanded 40 per cent of basic salary/wages as house allowance for certain categories of employees like dockworkers, serangs, baharias, motorboats drivers, etc. and 30 per cent for employees like special duty askaris, tradesmen general, tailors, tug captains, tug engineers, supervisors, clerks, etc.

The parties discussed the Claimants' demand at meetings of their Joint Industrial Council held on the 29th May, 3rd August and 15th October, 1979 during which discussions the Respondents offered 20 per cent instead of the Claimants' demand of 40 per cent and 15 per cent instead of the 30 per cent demand to be worked out for each of these employees as follows:

	Sh.
15% of 741/-	111.15	Deemed to be housing element (A)
	30.00	House allowance. (B)
	141.15	(A+B).
20% of 141/-	28.23	Management offer.
Wages	741.00
House allowance	30.00
Management offer	28.23

Present wage	799.23	Giving the following picture:
		Proposed house allowance	Proposed gross pay
741/17		58/23	799/40

For an employee on B3 scale earning Sh. 3,315/- p.m. the position will be as follows:

15% of 3,315/-	.. 497.25	Deemed to be housing element. (A)
	30.00	House allowance. (B)
	527.25	(A + B).
15% of 527/25	.. 79.00	Management offer.
Salary	.. 3,315.00
House allowance	.. 30.00
Management offer	79.00

3,424.00 Giving the following picture:

Present salary	.. 3,315/-
Proposed house allowance	109/-
Proposed gross pay	3,424/-

The Claimants had modified their demand in order to reach a compromise as follows:

"15 per cent of the consolidated wage deemed to be housing element should be taken from the consolidated wage/salary, and on the balance they proposed 30 per cent house allowance plus K.Sh. 30 present house allowance. The position would be as follows:

	K.Sh.
15 per cent of K.Sh. 741 deemed to be housing element	111.00
Balance K.Sh. 741 minus K.Sh. 111	630.00
New proposal 30 per cent of K.Sh. 630	189.00
Plus K.Sh. 30 present house allowance	30.00
<hr/>
New house allowance	219.00
Gross wage (K.Sh. 219 + K.Sh. 741/17)	960.17

The salary of K.Sh. 741/17 will remain consolidated, there will be no change to the salary scale.

The above formula will apply to all other categories except the percentage of house allowances will be 20 per cent."

After further discussions the Respondents made the following offer of 5 per cent manual grade staff and 3 per cent other categories of staff to be worked out as follows:

	K.Sh.
15 per cent of K.Sh. 741 deemed to be housing element	111.00
Basic pay of K.Sh. 741—K.Sh. 111	630.00
Company's offer of 5 per cent of K.Sh. 630	31.00
Present salary	741.17
Present house allowance	30.00
New house allowance	31.00
<hr/>
New gross salary	802.67

An employee on B3 scale earning K.Sh. 3,315 p.m. the position will be as follows:

15 per cent of K.Sh. 3,315 deemed to be housing element	497.00
Basic pay of K.Sh. 3,315—K.Sh. 497	2,818.00
Company's offer of 3 per cent of K.Sh. 2,818	84.00
Present salary	3,315.00
Present house allowance	30.00
New house allowance	84.00
<hr/>
New gross salary	3,429.00"

The parties recorded a deadlock on their above stated positions and the matter is now before the Court.

The Claimants have submitted that they had decided not to ask for any wage increase during the next collective agreement effective from 1st May, 1979 and in its place they had decided to press their demand for a housing allowance. They had done so because housing was one single factor which cut deeply into the workers' pay packets in Kenya these days. The Claimants argued that the Respondents' submission that they could not afford to go beyond the offer which they had made during negotiations on the ground that they would run into a deficit of millions of shillings should not be taken seriously. They accused the Respondents of deliberately making such alarmist submissions in order to win the sympathy of the Court.

The Claimants maintained that the dockworkers had maintained industrial peace over the last so many years and had worked most efficiently with the result that Mombasa port handled the greatest amount of tonnage from all the other ports on the eastern coast of Africa. They argued that these people who were engaged in an Essential Service should receive reasonable house allowances to encourage them to keep up this performance.

The Respondents strongly pleaded their inability to meet the Claimants' demand on the ground that it would result in a deficit of K.Sh. 43,867,600 based on the actual labour strength. They added that the financial projection for 1980 was bleak as well with the result that they could only afford to grant 5 per cent increase where the Claimants had demanded 30 per cent and 3 per cent where the Claimants had demanded 20 per cent based on the deconsolidated rates. With this offer there was a possibility that the Respondents would be able to break even or may even record a meagre surplus of K.Sh. 900,000.

The Respondents informed the Court that the Government will not subsidize them by way of a loan or by way of a grant as they were expected to be self-sustaining financially and if they cannot raise more revenue then they must cut their costs which may also entail redundancies. The Respondents and also been in touch with the Ministry of Transport and Communications and had been informed that any application from the Respondents for any Government subsidies to meet their recurrent expenditure would not be approved.

The Respondents stated that they were not a profit-making organization and could not raise any funds in addition to what they received for their services from the Kenya Ports Authority which they submitted was not adequate even to cover the Respondents' own offer unless there was an upturn in the performance of the economy.

The Court would like to point out that the 8,834 dockworkers who are covered by this dispute are engaged in an Essential Service as among the list of Essential Services are included:

"Port and docks services including stevedoring and lighterage, loading and unloading of cargo from or on to any ship and despatch of any cargo to destination."

The contribution dockworkers make to the economy of the country is very vital. It is in this context that the Court is rather surprised at the Respondents' almost casual approach to this dispute. The Court asked the Respondents to state the steps that they had taken or planned to take in anticipation of the inevitable demand that would be made on behalf of the dockworkers at the expiry of the 1977/1979 collective agreement but they could not offer any satisfactory answer. It appears that they are taking industrial peace down at the docks for granted. This view is further reinforced by their offer which is well below the entitlement of the dockworkers under the Guidelines which in itself allows the workers to overall wage increases of not more than an average of one half of the rise in the cost of living. In this context the Respondents' whole attitude to this dispute, to say the least, is puzzling.

The Court notes that the Claimants have sacrificed all other demands in the revision of their collective agreement for the sake of getting an increased house allowance. In view of the fact that in Cause No. 7/78 the Court opened the way for them to get a separate house allowance the Claimants are entitled to their approach which they have adopted in the present dispute.

The Court would now like to deal with the dockworkers' entitlement under the Guidelines. The majority of them belong to the middle income group, i.e. K.Sh. 700—K.Sh. 2,499 p.m. and a few in the upper income group. From May, 1977 to April, 1979 the middle income group cost of living indices rose by 15.5 per cent half of which would amount to 7.75 per cent. To this figure the productivity increase for 1977 estimated at 3.8 per cent has to be added which brings the dockworkers' entitlement to 11.5 per cent under the Guidelines.

The Court rules that the Respondents' first approach in working out their offer on housing allowance was totally wrong. This fortunately they quickly revised and came out with another formula which was also acceptable to the Claimants. This is that the percentage to be awarded to the dockworkers should be worked out on a figure which would be arrived at after deducting 15 per cent housing element from the consolidated salary. As pointed out earlier in the award the difference between the parties on what percentage to grant to the workers by way of additional house allowance is very wide with the Claimants demanding 30 per cent and 20 per cent and the Respondents offering 5 per cent and 3 per cent on the basic salary excluding the housing element. Both are agreed that this would be in addition to K.Sh. 30 house allowance already awarded by the Court.

The Court has carefully considered the Respondents' submissions particularly those touching on the financial implications of the Claimants' demand. The Respondents have however, failed to convince the Court as to why dockworkers should not get their full entitlement under the Guidelines like all other workers in the country.

The Court has also taken into consideration the various letters which the Respondents produced from the relevant Government Ministries on the question of finding money to meet the dockworkers' demands. The Court must state that it is up to the Respondents and their principals, the Kenya Ports Authority, to find money for meeting the cost of any award that the Court might make in favour of the dockworkers who, as pointed out above, are engaged in an Essential Service which is so very vital to the economy of the country. The Court was told that the current tariff rates effective from 1st July, 1978 are as follows:

Service	Tariff rate	KPA Portion Sh.	%	KCHS Portion Sh.	%
Handling:
Imports General	30	3	10	27	90
Bulk ..	10	1	10	9	90
Exports General	16	—	—	16.50	100
Stevedoring:
Normal ..	40	10	25	30	75
Overtime ..	60.40	12	20	48	80
Lighterage ..	30	15	50	15	50
MPSs ..	—	—	10	—	90
Overtime ..	—	—	10	—	90

According to what the Claimants stated they were in the dark about the above arrangement.

From the information that was supplied to the Court the dockworkers' strength in the three categories mentioned below is as follows:

0-K.Sh. 1,000 p.m. ..	6,081 workers
1,001-K.Sh. 1,500 p.m. ..	1,862 workers
K.Sh. 1,501 and above ..	851 workers

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards that in addition to the consolidated salary which the dockworkers are getting including a 15 per cent housing element and K.Sh. 30 separate house allowance which they also get they should get a further house allowance as follows:

- 0—1,000/- Sh. 90/- plus 30/- existing allowance 120/-
- 1,001—1,500 Sh. 130/- plus 30/- existing allowance 160/-
- 1,501 and above Sh. 170/- plus 30/- existing allowance 200/-

The Court further awards that these house allowances should be effective from the 1st May, 1979 and as the parties have agreed, should remain in force for a period of two years from that date.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 940

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 83 OF 1979

Parties:

Kenya Timber and Furniture Workers' Union
and Kilindini Furnishers

Issue in Dispute:

Dismissal of Mr. Daudi Kimonge.

1. The Kenya Timber and Furniture Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kilindini Furnishers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 6th March, 1980, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 14th September, 1979, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 27th December together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

This dispute concerns a carpenter who worked for the Respondents from 1st March, 1975, to 10th October, 1977, during which period he was absent from work for six months while he was undergoing treatment from 23rd March to 26th September, 1977. During the hearing the Claimants stated that he started working from 1st March, 1974, but in the absence of any evidence from Mr. Kimonge himself the Court must go by what the Claimants had told the Investigator appointed by the Ministry of Labour and that is that he was employed on 1st March, 1975.

There is another very serious difference between the parties with the Claimants alleging that Mr. Kimonge was employed on monthly terms at a salary of Sh. 390 per month with the Respondents stating that he worked for them as a casual employee earning Sh. 13 per working day. Both the parties failed to produce any evidence in support of their contentions as the Respondents did not produce any muster-roll to back up their claim and the Claimants did not call Mr. Kimonge to give evidence on oath.

Apparently there is no disagreement on the fact that Mr. Kimonge was sick for six months and that he resumed duty on 1st October, 1977, but then once again there is a serious difference after that in that the Claimants state that the Respondents terminated his service with effect from 11th October, 1977, with the Respondents alleging that Mr. Kimonge absconded from duty after 10th October with some of their property namely a saw, a pair of scissors, three long trousers and two shirts.

The Court had before it the findings and recommendation of the Ministry of Labour in the following terms:

"Mr. Kimonge was admitted in hospital between 23rd March and 26th September, 1977. An official receipt from the hospital confirmed this. There is no evidence whatsoever to the effect that the management lent Mr. Kimonge some money nor gave him the mentioned articles.

Evidence produced by the union showed that the employer was on various occasions invited to meetings by an officer at Mombasa Labour Office but categorically ignored them. No reason was given for refusing to settle this matter. There is no doubt that the question of sick leave was raised the timing of which coincides with the alleged desertion. However, Mr. Kimonge was not paid any sick leave which makes it difficult for him to have deserted. The most probable happening is that he was dismissed arising out of the claim which the management consider not proper. There is considerable doubt in this case the benefit of which must go to Mr. Kimonge.

Recommendation.—I recommend that he be paid his terminal benefits and three months' wages in addition as compensation for loss of the job."

The Court notes that the Ministry's findings in the main are based on the Respondents' refusal to attend meetings and a conclusion based on probability. It is obvious that the Investigator had considerable doubt in this dispute and decided to give the benefit to Mr. Kimonge. It was a simple matter for the Ministry officials to enforce the payment of sick leave to Mr. Kimonge amounting to 1½ months' pay as laid down in the relevant legislation. If they had done that the matter would have ended there. If an employer refuses to grant statutory benefits to workers there are ways open to the Labour Officers to enforce implementation of the law with a view to giving the workers benefits due to them.

Both the Claimants and the Respondents did not help the Court at all in this dispute other than to make an appearance in Court! Under these circumstances the Court is not in a position to help them and the Court finds that all the Claimants' and the Respondents' respective allegations stand unproved.

In view of this pathetic performance by the parties the Court has no alternative but to reject all the Claimants' demands except the sick leave entitlement of Mr. Kimonge amounting to one and a half months and the Court accordingly awards that the Respondents should pay Mr. Kimonge salary for one and a half months in respect of this sick leave. The Court is not interested in any private transaction which Mr. Kimonge may have entered with the Respondents' manager's wife resale of certain items to him. This is a matter which does not concern the Court at all.

Given in Nairobi on the 1st March, 1980.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 949

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

The ten applications appearing hereunder are proceeding in the name of KENAPEN INDUSTRIES LIMITED, a limited liability company registered under the Laws of Kenya, manufacturers, of P.O. Box 42166, Nairobi. 8th January, 1980.
