THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 97 OF 1983

Parties:

Kenya Union of Domestic, Hotels, Educational Institutions
Hospitals and Allied Workers and

Weithaga Secondary School

Issue in dispute:

Termination of services of Peter Kimani Kaime.

THE Kenya Union of Domestic, Hotels, Educational Institutions, Hospitals and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Weithaga Secondary School shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 12th March, 1984, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The claimants also called Peter Kaime to give evidence.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour forwarded this dispute to the court on 19th October, 1983, in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act.

The grievant, P. Kimani Kaime, was employed by the respondents on 1st January, 1972, as a night watchman. The respondents were under harambee management at the time and when the government took over the school he was issued with a letter renewing his appointment.

On 22nd February, 1979, he was informed that the board of governors had a meeting on 20th November, 1978, and had decided that his services should be terminated with effect from 28th February, 1979, and he would be paid three (3) months' salary in lieu of notice. The reason for the termination was that the school was dissatisfied with his work as a school watchman.

The claimants having stepped in on his behalf reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour and the termination was investigated. The ministry's finding was that his termination was unlawful and recommended that he should be reinstated without loss of service with the period between his termination and reinstatement to be treated as leave with quarter pay. The respondents rejected these recommendations.

From the evidence that was produced before the court it is obvious that the claimants' meeting with the board of governors which was held on 5th April, 1979, could not really discuss the issue as it appears that the parties deadlocked on whether or not Mr. Kimani should be allowed to attend the meeting. The only worthwhile point to note about this meeting is that it started with prayers and concluded with a short prayer! The chairman of the meeting was the Rev. E. Githinji. The matter was later discussed on 29th May, at the provincial education officer's (P.E.O.'s) office under the chairmanship of L. Kago. The relevant minute regarding Mr. Kimani read as follows:

"The watchman was appointed in 1972. He reports on duty at 8 p.m. The contractor's men had keys for the store and could get into the store between 6 and 8 p.m. before the watchman reported on duty. The police took one of the contractor's people and not the watchman for interrogation. No previous warnings were served on the watchman hence the procedure followed to discipline him was irregular. Decision: That the watchman is reinstated without loss of benefits."

The respondents were not happy at this decision and appealed against it on the ground that the headmaster who attended the meeting had no mandate to present the board. The P.E.O. then tried to organize another meeting but there is no record of it having taken place. On 19th September, 1980, the Permanent Secretary for Education informed the respondents' headmaster through the P.E.O. that the ministry goes along with the decision of the P.E.O. recommending the reinstatement of Mr. Kimani without loss of benefits and the headmaster was asked to implement the decision. Then surprisingly on 1st December the same officer writing on behalf of the permanent secretary informed the claimants that Mr. Kimani's termination was proper in accordance with the collective agreement and that P.E.O.s, Nyeri's intervention had confused the issue and since the board of governors were the employers and they did not want Mr. Kimani the ministry could not help. The court was told that this particular officer was victimized and has since been transferred to another ministry.

The respondents have resisted the claim in this dispute on the ground that Mr. Kimani used to remain absent repeatedly and failed to explain the reasons for that and used to argue that as a watchman he had a hiding place which nobody ought to know! Moreover he had no concern regarding the loss of cement belonging to the school when the matter was brought to his notice and when questioned he was very rude. Finally he showed utter disrespect for authority and those above him as he would insist doing his work his own way instead of following the guidelines laid down by the headmaster.

The court notes that as stated above the respondents refused to sign the Notification of Dispute Form "A" with the result that the Minister for Labour sent the dispute to the Industrial Court using his powers under section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act. There is no evidence of previous warnings having been issued to the grievant about his poor service in the past. Regarding the incident of loss of cement apparently the contractor who was building the school had put his materials in the school's store but Mr. Kimani did not have the key to the store, the contractor had the key. The police picked up Mr. Kimani when cement was lost from the store but later they released him as there was no evidence against him and eventually one of the contractor's employees was arrested. The court has no reason to disbelieve this part of the evidence given by Mr. Kimani. The court is also satisfied that the board of governors and the headmaster at no time gave a hearing to the grievant on the allegations against him. The respondents violated the principles of natural justice for having failed to do so.

The court is also rather intrigued at the ministry's stand in this matter as at one stage they wanted the respondents to reinstate him and a couple of months later the same officer had to swallow his own words and say that the ministry could not support him. The court cannot rule out the possibility of political interference in this matter.

The court has carefully considered the submissions and the evidence given in this dispute and finds that Mr. Kimani has suffered a wrongful termination but the court is not prepared to award his reinstatement as there is no vacancy in the school and has decided to award him three (3) months' salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal that he has suffered in addition to the three (3) months' salary in lieu of notice which the respondents had offered him.

Given in Nairobi the 15th May, 1984.

No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings, notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.
