THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 126 OF 1982

Parties:

Kenya Game Hunting and Safari Workers' Union
and
E.A. Wildlife Safaris Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Redundancy of 26 employees.

THE Kenya Game Hunting and Safari Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and E.A. Wildlife Safaris Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 14th June, 1983, and 2nd April and 31st July, 1984, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 27th September, 1982, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 10th December, 1982, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents operated a tented camp in the Masai Mara Game Reserve known as Mara River Tented Camp and the persons involved in this dispute were employed by them on daily rates as seasonal employees. It appears that although the number of such employees is given as 26 the dispute really is in respect of 22.

In the parties' collective agreement there is a provision on the matter of redundancy and under clause 12 (d) it is stated that seasonal employees shall be entitled to severance pay calculated as being one and a half days' wages for each completed month of service.

With effect from April, 1980, a firm called Shamara Camps Ltd. took over the operation of Mara River Camp. A letter was issued to all employees signed by a director A. G. G. Doig stating that the respondents had ceased to operate from 31st March, 1980, and Shamara Camps Ltd. had acquired their assets and they would like the employees to continue employment with them, i.e. the new company, and a new letter of appointment was enclosed.

As a result of the various investigations carried out it is established that six employees who were re-employed by Shamara Camps Ltd. are still in their employment. They are:

John Mutungwe.
Joseph Makau.

John Mutisya.
Nzuva Kavinda.
Trajai ole Naoi.
Ai Bata Ore Shipan.

Out of these six, J. Makau and J. Mutisya were paid what the court was told half of their entitlements amounting to KSh. 600 and KSh. 1,000, respectively. The following seven were also re-employed by Shamara Camps Ltd. but have resigned or were dismissed and have been replaced by new employees:

Mindi Kitela.
Joseph Makau.
Musyoka Maitha.
Stephen Musembi.
Muiyangela.
Muiya Ngemu.
Joseph Wambau.

The following ten were not re-employed by Shamara Camps Ltd.

Boniface Mukunzu.
Katie Kianzo.
Nzau Kitela.
Mutina William.
Ali Salimu.
Kingoo Kaleli.
Kasali Lau.
Hassan Mukola.
Westor Munguti.
Joseph Jimmy.

The claimants demand that the respondents should pay their employees redundancy benefits in accordance with the parties' collective agreement. They referred the court to clause 12 (d) which clearly covered benefits to which seasonal employees were entitled. This dispute was investigated by the Ministry of Labour whose finding confirmed that these employees were not casuals but were seasonal employees and were therefore entitled to be paid their severance pay benefit in addition to other terminal benefits. The respondents submitted that these employees were employed by the respondents as seasonal employees and that Shamara Camps Ltd. had taken them on as permanent employees. They had also offered them to continue on seasonal basis as in the past. They maintained there was no question of them either being dismissed or terminated or being declared redundant.

The court has carefully considered the parties' submissions and the two reports by the D.M.P.D. and since respondents have indicated their agreement to pay redundancy benefits to those employees who were not re-employed by Shamara Camps Ltd. the court really is concerned with the question of whether or not the remaining 13 who were employed by Shamara Camps Ltd. seven of whom have since been dismissed or have resigned should be entitled to redundancy benefits. The court can find no evidence in respect of these 13 employees that Shamara Camps Ltd. took over their previous services rendered to the respondents. The evidence clearly shows that they were offered fresh employment, with effect from 1st April, 1980, and although the court appreciates the respondents' submission that those who are still in employment are better off now than they were as seasonal employees the fact still remains that the respondents have to give these employees their redundancy benefits for the services rendered to them as seasonal employees. The court can find no evidence that Shamara Camps Ltd. took over the liabilities of the respondents in respect of these claims.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the court awards that all the 22 employees should be paid their redundancy benefits in accordance with the parties' collective agreement clause 12 and the court directs that the parties should work out the dues of each one of these employees with the assistance of D. W. Gakuyu of the D.M.P.D.

Given in Nairobi the 21st September, 1984.

Judge.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 3738

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—
