Post No.—BOC-064.

Category and level.—Professional category (P-1/P-2).

Organizational location.—Payroll Section, Expenditure Control Division, Bureau of the Comptroller.

Duties and responsibilities.—Under the authority of the chief of division, the incumbent of this post is responsible to the chief of the payroll section for the payment of salaries, allowances and other emoluments of headquarters and field staff. His duties will be to ensure:

- (a) The punctual and correct preparation and payment of the monthly payroll. This implies—
 - (i) the examination of all documents and instructions received for incorporation in the payroll to ensure their conformity with the staff rules and accepted procedures;
 - (ii) supervising and ascertaining the timely preparation of documents for transmission to the bureau of data processing services;
 - (iii) checking the payroll and the associated payment instructions on their return from that office.
- (b) The correctness of other salary payments made outside the monthly headquarters payroll.
- (c) The correct and punctual payment of the remuneration of supernumerary staff.
- (d) The collection and payment of pension fund and social security contributions and insurance premiums.
- (e) The correct charging of all payments to the general accounts.

In addition, he will be required:

- (1) To review working methods within the section and propose improvements where necessary.
- (2) To review international controls and carry out periodical examinations to the accuracy of the payroll operations.
- (3) To maintain close liaison with the bureau of personnel, the office of data processing and other administrative bureaux on all matters related to payment of salaries, allowances and other emoluments of staff.
- (4) To draft letters and memoranda on subjects arising from the payroll operations.
- (5) To perform any other duties in connection with the payroll that may be requested by the chief of the section.

Qualifications and experience required:

- (a) University degree or equivalent attainment in an appropriate field with a recognized diploma in accounting.
- (b) Experience at an administrative level of payroll operations in an international organization desirable.
- (c) Good knowledge of and familiarity with computer utilization.
- (d) Excellent knowledge of English or French with good knowledge of the other language. Ability to write clearly and accurately.
- (e) Initiative, imagination and ability to direct the staff of the section.

Salary and allowances.—Initial appointment will be either at P-1 grade, with a net salary equivalent to US$15,166 per annum, payable mainly in French francs ($14,304 if without dependants) plus the prescribed annual allowances, e.g. post adjustment, at present $5,403 for staff members with dependants, $5,076 for staff members without dependants or at P-2 grade with a net salary equivalent to US$19,195 per annum, payable mainly in French francs ($18,027 if without dependants), plus the prescribed allowances, e.g. post adjustment, at present $6,776 for staff members with dependants, $6,362 for staff members without dependants, family allowances of $700 for each dependent child (if there is no dependent spouse, this indemnity is not payable in respect of the first dependent child). These emoluments are normally exempt from all direct taxation. Income tax on such remuneration, if levied, is reimbursed in accordance with staff regulations and rules.

Closing date.—29th November, 1984.

2. Title.—ASSISTANT FINANCE OFFICER.

Post No.—BOC-081.

Category and level.—Professional category (P-1/P-2).

Organizational location.—Contracts and claims section, Expenditure Control Division, Bureau of the Comptroller.

Duties and responsibilities.—Under the supervision of the chief of division and of the chief of the contracts and claims section, the incumbent is responsible for—

(1) approving, within the limits of his authority, proposals for the obligation of funds and the terms of the service or purchase contracts relating thereto, in accordance with the financial regulations of the organization and with the special rules governing each of the programmes and corresponding funds;

(2) auditing a posteriori obligations of funds made under the responsibility of the programme sectors and administrative offices, and the terms of the relevant agreements and contracts, in accordance with the financial regulations of the organization and the special rules governing each of the programmes and corresponding funds;

(3) auditing and monitoring—

- (a) the participation programme and special accounts;
- (b) the statements and reimbursements of V.A.T. and recording and balancing the accounts relating thereto;
- (c) insurance statements;
- (d) supervising, in collaboration with the treasury division, cheques or transfers not collected by the beneficiaries;

(5) presenting the chief of section with detailed and critical analyses concerning any financial irregularity noted in the sectors and bureaux, so as to enable the chief of division to report thereon to the comptroller;

(6) examining the justification of requests for payment and certifying them, bearing in mind the organization's treasury requirements;

(7) auditing the statements of account provided by the data processing services and centralizing the necessary rectifications, so as to ensure the accuracy of the instructions provided to those services;

(8) carrying out any studies and accounting or budgetary auditing which may be requested by his or her immediate superior within the framework of the section's activities.

Qualifications and experience required:

- (a) Extensive knowledge in administration and accounting, attested by a university degree (or equivalent qualification) and professional experience in the field of the financing and auditing of accounts.
- (b) Experience of current finance administration regulations and procedures within the United Nations system, preferably acquired within Unesco.
- (c) Ability to draft correspondence and reports with accuracy and concision.
- (d) Thorough knowledge of one of the working languages of the organization and a good knowledge of the other language.

Salary and allowances.—Initial appointment will be either at P-1 grade, with a net salary equivalent to US$15,166 per annum, payable mainly in French francs ($14,304 if without dependants) plus the prescribed annual allowances, e.g. post adjustment, at present $5,403 for staff members with dependants, $5,076 for staff members without dependants or at P-2 grade with a net salary equivalent to US$19,195 per annum, payable mainly in French francs ($18,027 if without dependants), plus the prescribed allowances, e.g. post adjustment, at present $6,776 for staff members with dependants, $6,362 for staff members without dependants, family allowances of $700 for each dependent child (if there is no dependent spouse, this indemnity is not payable in respect of the first dependent child). VACANCIES OFFERED BY UNESCO—(Contd.)

3. Title.—PROGRAMME PLANNING SPECIALIST.

Post No.—BEP-212.

Category and level.—Professional category (P-4).

Organizational location.—Bureau of Studies and Programming.

Under the authority of the assistant director-general for studies and programming, the incumbent will be responsible for the following tasks in the Bureau of Studies and Programming:

(1) Assisting in the analysis of proposals, suggestions and observations from the organization's governing bodies, member states and international non-governmental organizations regarding Unesco's future programmes, with particular reference to aspects concerning the social and human sciences, and preparing the corresponding summary reports.

(2) Following the progress of programme activities, particularly in the areas mentioned above, assisting in maintaining liaison with the units of the secretariat primarily or subsidiarily responsible for those activities, studying and analyzing the documents relating to the medium-term plan, the programme and budget and the PADs. Preparing the corresponding summary reports.

(3) Assisting in the identification and assembly of documents, reports and publications which may be of use in connection with the execution of major programme I.

(4) Participating in the execution of major programme I or, more generally, in Unesco's reflective and future-oriented activities, inter alia by identifying institutions and individuals with competence in this area, organizing consultations and meetings, carrying out missions as an observer or a participant in scientific and cultural meetings or to consult with the institutions identified and helping to apply methods of future-oriented reflection in the organization's fields of competence.

(5) Keeping abreast of the development of knowledge and fields of study in the above-mentioned areas—including the social and human sciences and future research.

(6) Contributing to the development of planning and programming methods adapted to the organization's specific needs.

(7) Participating as required in the work of the committee on intersectoral co-operation.

(8) Preparing the reports of internal, external or intersectoral working meetings, if so required.

(9) Undertaking any other tasks which may be assigned to him by the assistant director-general for studies and programming.

Qualifications and experience required:

- University degrees in the field of the social or human sciences.
- Good knowledge and experience of the functioning of Unesco or of other international organizations.
- Professional experience in teaching, particularly in the social or human sciences.
- Experience in drafting and communication would be a particular advantage.
- Perfect command of French or English; good knowledge of the other language.

Salaries and allowances.—Initial appointment will be at P-4 grade, with a net salary equivalent to US$27,612 ($25,672 if without dependants) per annum, payable mainly in French francs plus the prescribed annual allowances, e.g. post adjustment, at present $9,715 for staff members with dependants, $9,026 for staff members without dependants, family allowances of $700 for each dependent child (if there is no dependent spouse, this indemnity is not payable in respect of the first dependent child). These emoluments are normally exempt from all direct taxation. Income tax on such remuneration, if levied, is reimbursed in accordance with staff regulations and rules.

Closing date.—3rd December, 1984.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D.14.(1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready.

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
