GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1285

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT CAUSE No. 10 OF 1988

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and
Kenya National Trading Corporation

Issues in dispute:

Refusal to implement the rate of piece work and confirmation of casual workers.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Kenya

National Trading Corporation shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 1st August and 21st December, 1988, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The dispute was referred to the court by the Minister for Labour in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act. The court received the Minister's reference dated 10th February, 1988, on 12th February, 1988, together with the statutory certificate from the Labour Commissioner.

The court has no hesitation in finding that the claimants' demand in this dispute is totally misconceived. It is quite obvious that the existing collective agreement expressly covers Mombasa only and excludes all other areas. The claimants want the respondents to implement that agreement in respect of their casual gang labourers throughout the country. In this pursuit the claimants have no cause of action and the proper procedure to follow is for them to table their proposals to extend the Mombasa rates to the rest of the country during the next round of negotiations between them and DATA when they revise their collective agreement. The court was given to understand that the claimants have already done so.

In the meantime the court has no alternative but to reject the claimants' demands in this dispute.

Given on 23rd February, 1989.

Judge.

Issues in dispute:

Overtime.
Redundancy.
Probation Period.
Retirement Benefits.
Sick Leave.
Leave Travelling Allowance.

THE Kenya Engineering Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Dawning Africano Enterprises Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 19th December, 1988, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. After careful consideration of the parties' submissions and taking into account the present financial difficulties of the respondents, the court awards as follows:

(1) Minimum Wages.

The claimants' demand is rejected.

(2) General Wage Increase.

The court has decided to award a 4½ per cent increase for the first year and a further 4½ per cent increase for second year respectively,

(3) Housing Allowance.

The court awards that the workers should get an increase of Sh. 30 on their current house allowance entitlement.

The court has very carefully considered all aspects of this dispute and has decided that all other items before the court should stay at the level of the previous collective agreement and the new demands are rejected for the time being.

Parties:

Bakery, Confectionery, Manufacturing and Allied Workers Union
and
Elliot's Bakeries Limited

Issues in disputes:

Wages.
Leave Travelling Allowance.
Funeral Expenses for Employees of the Company.
Tools Allowance.
House Allowance.
Safari/Meal Allowance.
Grading/Job Descriptions (Appendixes).
Disturbance Allowance.

THE Bakery, Confectionery, Manufacturing and Allied Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Elliot's Bakeries Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 24th January and 2nd February, 1989, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 17th June, 1988, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 26th August, 1988, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

Wages

The court requested the Division of Research and Planning (D.R.P.) to carry out investigations because, most of the issues were affected by the wage guidelines. A detailed analysis was carried out by the D.R.P. and this analysis revealed that the average maximum compensation ceiling for the price increase under the then applicable Wages Guidelines of 1982, that is three quarters (¾) of the rise in the consumer price index from July 1984 to June 1986, would be 16 per cent. However, if the claimants' demand of full compensation is considered the figure would be an average of 20.1 per cent.

After careful consideration of all the submissions made the court awards salary increases of 5 per cent for the first year and 9 per cent for the second year of the collective agreement.

This award is made keeping in mind that the court is also to make an award on the housing allowance on a deconsolidated basis.

Leave Travelling Allowance

The court has given due consideration to all the submissions made in respect to this issue and awards that the present leave travelling allowance of Sh. 300 should be increased to Sh. 350 to be paid to the workers once a year when proceeding on annual leave.

Funeral Expenses for the Employees of the Company

The claimants' demand on this item is rejected.

Tools Allowance

The court notes that the respondents have been providing long-term loans to the workers to buy tool-kits and thereafter at their own discretion give tools allowance which at present is Sh. 120. The court has no desire to change the loan arrangement but it has to decide on the issue of tools allowance.

The court accordingly awards that the present rate of Sh. 120 should be increased to Sh. 160 per employee per month. This award is effective from 1st July, 1987.

House Allowance

The court notes that the Wage Guideline IV b (ii) reads: "Where deconsolidation of consolidated wage is deemed necessary the housing element shall be deemed to be no more than 15 per cent of the prevailing minimum wage for a particular group covered."

The court has also noted that the parties both at their own and conciliation levels had voluntarily agreed in principle to have a separate house allowance in addition to the current salaries.

Having given due consideration to all the submissions made on this issue and keeping in mind its award on wages, the court awards a separate housing allowance of Sh. 150 effective from 1st July, 1986.

Safari/Meal Allowance

After careful consideration of the demands and offers made on this item the court has decided to award the following:

|-----------|------------|
| Breakfast | Sh. 17.50 |
| Lunch | Sh. 35.00 |
| Dinner | Sh. 35.00 |
| Overnight | Sh. 205.00 |

Grading/Job Descriptions

The court rules that no party to a collective agreement can unilaterally amend any of its provisions. So there should be no amendment to Appendix "A" of the collective agreement.

As far as the application of the Revised Industrial Relations Charter dated 14th April, 1984, to the collective agreement is concerned the parties will have to determine on the basis of the job contents of each post in question whether or not it can fall within the trade union representation. It should however be borne in mind that the respondents have the prerogative to create additional posts but whether or not they are unionizable is a different matter.

The court would like to advise the parties that any dispute on this issue that may arise should be reported to the Minister for Labour as a separate dispute to warrant a detailed and comprehensive investigations so that a proper assessment can be made on each contested post.

Disturbance Allowance

In view of the submissions made by the parties, there appear to be some factors to warrant an additional increase of disturbance allowance. The court therefore awards that the present Sh. 1,000 disturbance allowance should be increased to Sh. 1,500.

Given on 20th February, 1989.

Judge.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1343

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE No. 51 OF 1988

Parties:

Railway Workers Union (K)
and
Kenya Railways Corporation

Issue in dispute:

Refusal to pay Mr. Ngolo subsistence allowance in full while working at Limuru Station outside his home station, Nairobi.

THE Railway Workers Union (K) shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Kenya Railways Corporation shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 17th January, 1989, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 18th November, 1987, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 29th June, 1988, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

After careful considerations of all the submissions the court finds that Mr. Ngolo's claim for subsistence allowance of Sh. 36,420 for the period December 1977 up to 1st July, 1979 is not sustainable and it is rejected. The court however finds that Mr. Ngolo is entitled to subsistence allowance for three months only—October, November and December 1977—and awards that he be paid the same.

Given on 3rd March, 1989.

SAEED R. COCKAR,
Judge.

A. K. KERICH,
S. M. MAITHYA,
Members.
