THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 7 OF 1993

Parties:

Tailors and Textiles Workers Union
and Teita Estate (1972) Limited

Issues in dispute:

Annual paid leave.
Leave travelling allowance.
Night shift allowance.
Company transport.
House allowance.
General wage increase.
Basic minimum wages.

The Tailors and Textiles Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Teita Estate (1972) Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

The parties were heard in Nairobi on 15th and 17th June, 1993, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 29th October, 1992, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 25th February, 1993 together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents are a limited liability company and are based in the Industrial Area, Nairobi. They deal with the production and sale of sisal products such as ropes, packaging twines, coffee bags and coffee drying cloths.

The issues in dispute before the court are to be incorporated in the parties collective agreement which they have agreed would be effective from 1st October, 1991, and will expire on 30th September, 1993.

The court has therefore to take into consideration the movement in the cost of living indices in the two year period prior to the aforesaid effective date of 1st October, 1991.

It is unfortunate that such a long period has elapsed before this economic dispute could be settled but it should be noted that this court received the dispute on 23rd February, 1993. So the delay has really been caused during the pre-industrial court procedures.

After careful consideration of all the submissions made by the parties and the analysis prepared by the Planning and Research Division of the Ministry of Labour the court makes the following award

Annual leave:

There will be no change on this item.

Leave travelling allowance:

The current leave travelling allowance should be increased to Shs. 400.

Night shift allowance:

The court awards a night shift allowance for workers who work between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. at the rate of seventy-five cents per hour. This part of the award is to be effective from 1st July, 1993.

Company transport:

The present arrangements should continue.

House allowance:

AWARD

The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 13th October, 1992, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 23rd June, 1993, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents deal mainly in hardware and building materials and are based in Nairobi's Industrial Area. They employ about 22 unionisable employees who are affected by this dispute.

This dispute arose when the parties were negotiating for the renewal of their last collective agreement which expired on 31st December, 1991.

Basic minimum wages:

The existing basic minimum wages should go up by 10 per cent with effect from 1st May, 1994.

The court finds the amendment suggested by the respondents to be reasonable and the court accordingly so awards.

"Employees who leave employment for any reason other than gross misconduct will be entitled to 21 days pay for every completed year of service by way of gratuity based on the employee's salary at the time of leaving the service provided that he or she will have served for at least 15 years."

The court increases the present entitlement of 15 days' pay for every completed year of service to 21 days' pay for each completed year in the event of redundancy—All other provisions remain the same.

Death of an employee:

The court awards that in the event of death of an employee while in employment the respondents should contribute a sum of Sh. 6,000 towards funeral and transport expenses.
