In the presentation of oral submissions, presenters who will be allocated a maximum of five (5) minutes should confine themselves to the following guidelines—

"All Electoral Areas shall contain as nearly equal numbers of inhabitants as appears to be reasonably practicable, but may depart from this principle to the extent that other factors are taken into account such as:

- (a) The density of population, and in particular the need to ensure adequate representation of urban and sparsely-populated areas;
- (b) Population trends;
- (c) The means of communications;
- (d) Geographical features;
- (e) Community of interest; and
- (f) The boundaries of existing administrative areas.

For purpose of population, the number of inhabitants of any part of Kenya shall be ascertained by reference to the latest census of the population held in pursuance of any law."

- (g) For the consideration of polling stations, the density of the population of the surrounding area and distances between polling stations will be crucial. Polling stations should also be where they are accessible by vehicles to avoid inconveniences during polling when such are established in inaccessible areas.

Dated the 9th April, 2001.

Chairman,
Electoral Commission of Kenya.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 2506

ELECTORAL COMMISSION OF KENYA
INSPECTION OF REVISED VOTERS' REGISTERS

IT IS notified for general information that the Electoral Commission will publish the revised voters' registers at the divisional headquarters of all administrative divisions from 17th April, 2001 to 22nd May, 2001. The Commission appeals to the public to inspect these revised voters' registers as from 17th April, 2001 to 22nd May, 2001 during official working days i.e. Mondays to Fridays as from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

In law, this is the only time a person can identify unqualified imposters in their constituencies or the underage who may have succeeded to cheat the registration staff and so on and be able to seek a legal remedy. The public should remember that this time round people were able to apply to register in a constituency or transfer without setting their feet on that constituency. Hence the residents of any given constituency did not have the opportunity to physically see some of these applicants. Looking at the revised registers, they will be able to weed out pretenders. Thus the right and the opportunity to inspect the revised register is so crucial this time that it should be taken with the seriousness it deserves. Those wishing to inspect whether he/she was registered or transferred can send a representative if he/she is not able to do so personally.

The Electoral Commission also appeals to registered political parties to afford the time, money and personnel to carry out inspection of these registers for their own sake and that of their members.

Dated the 9th April, 2001.

S. M. KIVUITU,
Chairman,
Electoral Commission of Kenya.
