GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1150

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT OF KENYA

CAUSE NO. 122 OF 2003

Parties:

Kenya Post Office Savings Bank—Applicants

Versus

Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied Workers—Respondents

Issues in Dispute:

"Wrongful termination of Agnes L. Ogolla, PF. 0605" (hereinafter called the grievant).

No appearance for the Applicants (hereinafter called the Bank).

No appearance for the Respondents (hereinafter called the Union).

INTERPRETATION OF THE AWARD

IN my decision hereof, which I announced on 1st September, 2004, I awarded and ordered as follows:

"1 (a) That the grievant be reinstated forthwith and unconditionally to her job, with continuity of service and seniority including promotion, if any, with effect from the date of her alleged termination on 20th August, 2002.

(b) That she be paid her full salary, including house, leave, medical allowances, etc. with effect from the said date, i.e. 20th August, 2002, until full implementation of the award.

or in the alternative;

2 (a) That the grievant be given normal termination of service and she be paid her full terminal benefits under 1 (b) hereinabove;

(b) That, in addition, the grievant be paid compensation equivalent to twelve (12) months' salary for wrongful termination or loss of employment, based on her last salary when she was wrongfully terminated from employment".

On 2nd November, 2004, M. Onyango (Mrs.), Senior Executive Officer, F.K.E., for the Bank filed an application for interpretation of the aforementioned award under section 16 (5) of the Trade Disputes Act, Cap. 234, laws of Kenya.

Anybody reading the award would clearly understand that the necessary consequence of the Court's finding in this case was that the period during which the grievant was out of employment should be treated as that spent on duty until full implementation of the award. Therefore, on careful perusal of the grounds of interpretation of the award, which Onyango (Mrs.) wants me to interpret, I find that the award is very clear and specific as the word "or" in the award is disjunctive and not conjunctive. In the circumstances, the award does not suffer from any doubt, difficulty, defect, infirmity, ambiguity or inconsistency to warrant or justify an interpretation by the Court.

Accordingly, the application for interpretation of the award is summarily rejected as frivolous, vexatious and an abuse of the court process.

The Bank is, therefore, ordered to implement the award by paying the grievant her terminal benefits or dues without any further delay.

Dated and given in Nairobi this 23rd day of November, 2004.

C. P. CHEMMUTTUT,
Judge.
