Investigations established that certain offences involving submitting false information to the Public Service Commission were committed contrary to the Public Officer Ethics Act. However, Kenya Anti-Corruption Commission lacks powers to investigate offences under the said Act. It was thus recommended that the file should be submitted to Criminal Investigation Department for further evaluation.

The file was forwarded to the Attorney-General on 5th September, 2007 with recommendation that the same be closed. It was also recommended that the matter be referred to the Criminal Investigation Department for their further action and that Kenya Revenue Authority should look into the possibility of tax evasion by the said officer. Advice of the Attorney-General is awaited.

Inquiry into allegations of corruption in the award of tender for supply of 50,000 packs of Amoxycillin 250 mgs valued at KSh. 43,991,500 to Excelsior Mihaso Ltd by the Ministry of Health. The investigation revealed that there was a conspiracy between Chief Procurement Officer at the Ministry of Health, the Senior Principal Procurement Officer at the same Ministry, and the Director of the Excelsior Mihaso Limited to manipulate the tender to favour the Company. The Ministerial Tender Committee also proceeded to award the tender, despite the fact that the Company did not present the lowest evaluated tender.

The file was forwarded to the Attorney-General on 6th September, 2007 with recommendation that the Members of the Ministerial Tender Committee be charged with the offence of awarding tender to a candidate other than the lowest evaluated bidder. It was also recommended that Excelsior Mihaso Limited and its director, together with the two senior procurement officers at the Ministry of Health be charged with conspiracy to commit an offence. Advice of the Attorney-General is awaited.

KACC/INQ. 28/2006

Inquiry into allegations of financial irregularities at the Kenya National Commission on Human Rights highlighted in a report of the Controller and Auditor-General for the financial year ending 30th June 2004. The alleged irregularities included alleged unsupported expenditure amounting to KSh. 2,999,737.75, irregular appointment of M/S Ernst and Young to undertake an audit of the Commission's books of account, unsupported expenditure of KSh. 264,111 spent during the Human Rights Day and KSh. 114,253 incurred by experts and stakeholders during the review of the KNCHR Strategic Plan, payment of relocation expenses amounting to KSh. 1,336,263.25 to the Chairman and two other Commissioners and purchase of Honda CRV vehicles for KSh. 28,762,500 for the Commissioners and Secretary and failing to award the tender to the lowest bidder.

The Commission instituted investigations on all the allegations and the same disclosed no evidence of criminal wrong doing on the part of the Chairman or Commissioners of the KNCHR. However, the sums of KSh. 519,873.25 and KSh. 277,960 paid to the Chairman as reimbursement of the expenses incurred while shuttling between New York and Nairobi and relocation allowances respectively was found to be irregular and should be recovered from him.

The Commission also recommended that allowances paid to two Commissioners for relocation amounting to KSh. 200,505 each be recovered from them as it was irregularly paid.

The file was forwarded to the Attorney-General on 25th September, 2007 with recommendation that administrative action be undertaken as highlighted hereinabove. Advice of the Attorney-General is awaited.

KACC/FI/INQ.70/2006

Inquiry into allegations that the M.P for Makadara Constituency abused his office as the Chairman of the Makadara Constituency Development Committee by interfering with the tendering and implementation of the CDF projects for construction of a secondary school and Jua Kali market stalls within the Constituency.

The investigation revealed that the M.P had withheld a cheque of KSh. 2 million payable to the Contractor who had been awarded the contract to construct the market stalls. The evidence revealed that the M.P also attempted to coerce the said contractors to pay a sum of KSh. 2.3 million to a certain company of his choice, for the supply of the building materials for the said construction. Since the contractors refused to accede to his demand, he withheld the cheque for the payment for the materials to build the stalls. He also wrote to the Contractors bankers and requested them to refund the payment made into the contractors account to the account held by Makadara Constituency CDF, by alleging that the payment had been made erroneously. The evidence gathered however showed that this was a false representation to the bank by the M.P because the payment had been regularly made after the contractors were awarded the tender. The laid down procurement procedures were complied with in the award of the tender to the said Contractor. After evaluation of all the evidence gathered, it was ascertained that the M.P. abused the authority of his office by giving the misleading information to the bank and also withholding a cheque that had been regularly issued to the Contractor. He also engineered the cancellation of the contract to construct the market stalls awarded to the said contractors. These acts by the M.P were arbitrary.

The file was forwarded to the Attorney-General on 25th September, 2007 with recommendation that the said MP for Makadara be charged with two counts of abuse of office contrary to Section 101 (1) of the Penal Code. Advice of the Attorney-General is awaited.

Inquiry into an allegation that a Police Constable based at Ndakaini Police Post in Gatanga, Thika had corruptly solicited for a benefit as an inducement so as not to charge the complainant with an alleged offence of abduction. Investigations established the solicitation and receipt of a benefit. The Constable was arrested and charged with four counts of corruption in Makadara Anti-Corruption Court.

The file was forwarded to the Attorney-General on 26th September, 2007 with recommendation that the case pending before Court be prosecuted to its logical conclusion.

Inquiry into an allegation that two Askaris (City Constables) working for the City Council of Nairobi had solicited for a benefit as an inducement to forbear charging the complainant with an alleged offence of tampering with a City Council sewer pipe in Imenti House along Tom Mboya Street. The investigation established solicitation and receipt of a benefit. The suspects were arrested and charged in Nairobi Anti-Corruption Court.

The file was forwarded to the Attorney-General on 26th September, 2007 with recommendation that the case pending before Court be prosecuted to its logical conclusion.

KACC CR.011/57/07—NAKURU ACC 23/07

Inquiry into an allegation a Police Constable based at Rongai Police Station had corruptly solicited for a benefit as an inducement to forbear charging the complainant with an alleged offence of playing pool without a licence. The investigation established the solicitation. There was also evidence that the said Officer stole the micro cassette which the complainant was using to record their conversation. He was arrested and charged with corruption, and it has been further recommended that an additional charge of stealing be preferred against him.

The file was forwarded to the Attorney-General on 6th September, 2007 with recommendation that the case pending before Court be prosecuted to its logical conclusion.
