CAUSE NO. 106 OF 2006

TAILORS AND TEXTILE WORKERS UNION—(Claimant)

AND

EPZ APPARELS MANUFACTURERS AND EXPORTERS GROUP
OF F.K.E—(Respondent)

Issue in dispute:

Refusal of the Management to review the CBA:

House Allowance.
Annual Leave.
Sick Leave.
Redundancy.
Gratuity.
Death.
Termination.
Night Allowance.

Basic Minimum Wage.
General Wage Increase.
Leave Travelling Allowance.
Night Transport.
Night Shift Allowance.
Maternity Leave.

The Tailors and Textile Workers Union represented by Mr. Wycliffe Omondi, shall hereinafter be referred to as "the Claimant", and Messrs. EPZ Apparels Manufacturers and Exporters Group of FKE, represented by Mr. L. W. Kariuki shall hereinafter be referred to as "the Respondents".

The parties were heard in Court at Nairobi on the 26th July, 11th and 28th September and 1st November, 2007. They relied on their written memoranda, two witnesses testified and their representatives made oral submissions in support of their respective cases.

AWARD

This Dispute was referred to the Court by the parties jointly signing Form A – Notification of Dispute – Dated 11th October, 2006, in accordance with the provisions of section 14 (7) of the Trade Unions Act, Cap. 234, hereinafter referred to as "the Act". This Form A together with the requisite statutory certificate, being Form G issued by the Labour Commissioner under the provisions of section 14 (9) (e) of the Act, were received by the Court on the 16th October. The matter was listed for mention in Court on the 7th November, when directions on filing of memoranda, compilation of a report on analysis of issues by the Economic Planning Division (EPD) and the hearing date were given.

The Claimant filed its Memorandum of Claim on the 22nd November, while the Respondents filed a preliminary objection on 19th February, 2007.

The Economic Planning Division (EPD) filed its report on the 29th June. The Preliminary objection was argued on the 11th September. The representative of the Respondents urged the Court to strike out the Memorandum of Claim on the basis that the respondent Group of Companies had not refused to review or negotiate the Collective Bargaining Agreement as averred since initially there were 28 items in dispute and that negotiation between the parties had reduced the disputed items to 14. It was further argued that the Claimant was asking the Court to negotiate a Collective Agreement for it while this was not the function of the Court. The Court ruled that the dispute should be determined on merit and the Respondent was directed to file a substantive Memorandum of Reply, which was filed on 4th October.

The Claimant had filed a Memorandum and called a witness, a Mr. James Otula Migwangi who used to work for Messrs. Rising Sun Limited, one of the EPZ Group of Companies. The representative also made fairly detailed oral submissions in support of his side. It is the position of the Claimant that there are seven (7) companies in the Respondent group. It is averred that the management of the Respondent group failed, neglected and/or refused to review the terms and conditions of the employees contained in the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) which was to expire on 30th September, 2005. A new Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) should have commenced on 1st October, 2005 but this was not to be due to the intransigence of the management. The Claimant had made proposals and handed them over but there was no agreement of the fourteen (14) items. Those proposals have been made into demands, which the Claimant Union now asks the Court to award as demanded, both in the Memorandum of Claim and in the oral submissions. It was the evidence of the witness called by the Claimant that he worked for Messrs. Rising Sun Company between 2003 and September, 2006; and also for Messrs. M.R.C Nairobi (EPZ) Limited between October and December, 2006. He stated that both Companies were in operation even by the time he was testifying.

The Claimant had made demands upon the Respondent Group on the Fourteen (14) items which will be examined in detail hereinafter but in sum, they seek enhancement and improvement upon the existing terms in the previous agreement.

The Representative of Respondent relied on the Memorandum of Reply. The oral submission was reiterated of the averments made in the Memorandum. It was his case that there are five (5) and not seven (7) companies in the Respondent Group. According to him, two of the companies namely Messrs. Rising Sun Kenya, (EPZ) Ltd and Messrs.
