GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 11844

THE ENERGY ACT

(No. 12 of 2006)

IN THE MATTER OF A DISPUTE UNDER THE ENERGY ACT, 2006

BETWEEN

PEGANT LIMITED (CONSUMER)

AND

THE KENYA POWER & LIGHTING COMPANY LIMITED (LICENSEE)

DECISION

This is a long outstanding dispute which arose around September, 2001 when a representative of Kenya Power and Lighting Company (KPLC) carried out an installation and meter verification exercise on Pegant Limited (Complainant) premises and observed that meter No. 9691526, electricity account No. 0531716-01 was under-recording the consumption.

KPLC initially made a claim for undercharged revenue accounts from October, 1998, to October, 2001, in the sum of KSh. 52,563,084.92. This amount was reduced by KPLC to a sum of KSh. 24,094,179.68 vide a letter dated 23rd September, 2003, addressed to the complainant's advocates.

Following disconnection of its power supply, the complainant filed in the Chief Magistrate's Court in Nairobi; CMCC No. 822 of 2002 which resulted into the consent between the parties in terms of a letter from KPLC's advocates to the complainant's advocates dated 19th July, 2002.

After long and protracted negotiations, the parties failed to reach consensus and by a letter dated 19th December, 2003, the Complainant through their advocates, referred this dispute to the Energy Regulatory Commission (ERC) for determination.

By a letter dated 23rd December, 2003, ERC forwarded a copy of the complaint to KPLC and requested a report on the dispute. KPLC responded vide a letter dated 30th March, 2004, and further indicated the amount owing from the complainant was KSh. 52,563,084.92 and not KSh. 52,473,548.12, a reduction by KSh. 89,536.80.

On 13th June, 2008, after a quiet period of about 4 years, the complainant's advocates offered KPLC a proposal to settle the matter in terms of section 59 (1) of the Energy Act, 2006. In short, the complainant was ready to resolve this matter by paying a sum of KSh. 4,635,385.62 being calculations for a period of six months from May, to October, 2001, as per schedule marked "Pegant 5A" of KPLC's attachment contained in their letter of 30th March, 2004.

As KPLC did not immediately respond to the said letter from the complainant's advocates, ERC wrote to KPLC on 25th September, 2008, directing KPLC, among others, to respond to the advocate's proposal to resolve this matter by paying a sum of KSh. 4,635,385.62 being calculations for a period of six months from May, to October, 2001.

By a letter to ERC dated 7th October, 2008, KPLC conceded that the 35 months of under-recording should have been detected earlier and further stated that section 59 (1) of the Energy Act, 2006 could not apply to this dispute "retrospectively" and as such stuck to their computation spanning over the said period of 35 months.

After another lull period of about 20 months, the complainant's advocates, by a letter dated 28th June, 2010, wrote yet again to ERC requesting that this dispute be heard expeditiously as it had remained unresolved for about 9 years.

Consequently, in an effort to bring to a logical conclusion this dispute, ERC invited both parties for mediation meeting on 11th August, 2010.

During the meeting it was noted as follows:

1. That the meter number 96915626 was not tampered with.
2. In KPLC opinion, the under-recording was caused by a reversal of CT terminals which were possibly accessed by knowledgeable persons as the CT chamber was not sealed.
3. No form of evidence either in the form of photography, interviews or otherwise appears to be available from KPLC to attribute the said reversal of CT terminals to the Complainant.
4. It took KPLC from October 1998 to September 17, 2001, a period of over 35 months to detect and take action on the under-recording of meter No. 9691526.
5. The applicable law to this dispute is the Energy Act, 2006, in particular, the provisions of Section 59(1), which provides as follows:

59. (1) Where a meter used to register the quantity of electrical energy supplied by a licensee to any consumer is found to be defective through no fault of the licensee or the consumer, the licensee may, in consultation with the consumer, determine the reasonable quantity of electrical energy supplied and recalculate the charges due to or from the consumer as appropriate for up to a maximum period of six months from the date the meter is established to be defective;

Provided that if the consumer had reported any suspected defect in the meter and the licensee did not immediately examine the meter, the licensee shall not be entitled to recover from the consumer any charges for more than three months from the date the meter was established to be defective.

Taking into account all the facts and the law applicable to this dispute and pursuant to Rule 12 of the Electric Power (Complaints and Disputes Resolution) Rules, 2006, ERC Directs as follows:

1. KPLC shall recalculate the charges due from the complainant for up to a maximum period of six months from the date the meter was established to be defective. In terms of Schedule marked "Pegant 5A" attached to KPLC letter to ERC dated 30th March 2004, the recalculated bill should be KSh. 4,635,385.62 covering the period May to October, 2001.

2. As the Complainant had offered to pay the recalculated bill in terms of its letter to KPLC dated 13th June, 2008, ERC further directs KPLC to debit the complainant's electricity account with the recalculated bill in paragraph (1) above, being KSh. 4,635,385.62.
3. The deposit of KSh. 6,054,816 paid by the complainant to KPLC pending the resolution of this dispute shall be set off against the amount arrived at in paragraph (1) above being KSh. 4,635,385.62 and the credit balance of KSh. 1,419,430.38 shall be made to the complainant's electricity account.

Dated the 17th August, 2010

*Director-General,
Energy Regulatory Commission.*
