THE CONSTITUTION OF KENYA

IN THE MATTER OF A TRIBUNAL APPOINTED UNDER ARTICLE 168 (5) (b) OF THE CONSTITUTION TO INVESTIGATE
/ INQUIRE INTO THE CONDUCT OF THE DEPUTY CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE REPUBLIC OF KENYA AND VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT, LADY JUSTICE
NANCY MAKOKHA BARAZA

RULES OF PROCEDURE

This Tribunal has been convened pursuant to its appointment vide Gazette Notice No. 664 of 26th January, 2012 as amended by Gazette Notice No. 2057 of 24th February, 2012 to investigate / inquire into the conduct of the Deputy Chief Justice of the Republic of Kenya and Vice-President of the Supreme Court, Lady Justice Nancy Makokha Baraza, the allegations contained in the Petition by the Judicial Service Commission of Kenya dated 19th January, 2012 and presented to His Excellency the President of the Republic of Kenya regarding the conduct of the said Lady Justice which allegations include conduct and actions of gross misbehaviour and misconduct unwarranted of a Judge contrary to Article 168 (1) (e) as read with Article 73 (1) (a) (b) and 75 (1) and (2) of the Constitution and further breaches of Rule 3 (5) and 12 (1) of the Judicial Service Code of Conduct and Ethics (Legal Notice 50 of 2003).

The Tribunal makes the following Rules for the conduct and management of the proceedings of the investigation / inquiry pursuant to its mandate under the Constitution of Kenya and the aforementioned Gazette Notices under Section 31(5) of the Judicial Service Act:

1. The principles of the Constitution and that of substantive justice shall apply to these Rules.

2. The Tribunal shall sit on such days, at such times and venues as it may determine.

3. The quorum necessary for the conduct of the hearing of the Tribunal shall be the Chair and four (4) other members of the Tribunal.

4. The business of the Tribunal shall be carried on by the Chair, any three (3) members of the Tribunal and the Secretary.

5. In the absence of the Chairperson the business of the Tribunal shall be carried on by the Vice-Chairperson, any three (3) members of the Tribunal and the Secretary.

6. If by reason of death, illness, resignation from the Tribunal or for any other reason, a member is unable to continue sitting in the proceedings the Tribunal may continue to conclude the hearing despite the absence of the member.

7. Where a member, for reasons beyond the control of the Tribunal, is unable to sign the decision of the Tribunal, the reason shall be recorded, and the decision signed by the other members.

8. The decisions and recommendations of the Tribunal shall be carried by a simple majority.

9. The hearing shall be held in private save that the subject of the investigation / inquiry may choose to have the hearing in public.

10. The Tribunal may exclude any person or class of persons from all or any part of the investigation / inquiry if satisfied that it is desirable so to do for:

(a) The preservation of order; or

(b) The due conduct of the investigation / inquiry, or

(c) The protection of any witness in the investigation / inquiry or any person referred to in the course of the investigation / inquiry or the property or reputation of such witness or person and

(d) May if satisfied that it is desirable for any of the purposes aforesaid so to do, order that no person shall publish the name, address, or photograph of such witness or person or any evidence or information whereby he would or may be identified.

11. The Subject of the investigation / inquiry shall have the right to be present during all the proceedings that relate to her and shall be entitled to legal representation by counsel.

12. The Counsel assisting the Tribunal will present evidence relating to the conduct of the subject and any matter relevant to the investigation / inquiry.

13. (i) The Tribunal shall serve the subject of the investigation / inquiry a hearing notice at least fourteen (14) days before the date of the hearing.

(ii) Service on the subject shall be effected through personal service or through the Chief Registrar of the Judiciary.

(iii) A hearing notice under this Rule shall be in Form 1 in the Schedule.

14. The Counsel assisting the Tribunal shall draw up a list of allegations against the subject of the investigation / inquiry together with a summary of the evidence in support of the allegations and shall serve the documents containing the allegations and the summary of the evidence on the subject of investigation at least fourteen (14) days before the date of hearing.

15. The Tribunal may, at its sole discretion summon any person or persons to testify before it on oath or to produce such document the Tribunal may require, and the person so summoned shall be obliged to attend and to testify or produce the required documents and the provisions applying to witnesses summoned by ordinary Courts of Law shall apply to such person.

16. A request made under Paragraph 15 shall be in writing and shall be addressed to the Secretary of the Tribunal.

17. (i) Summons issued by the Tribunal shall be endorsed by and bear the signature of the Secretary.

(ii) A witness summons under this Rule shall be in Form 2 of the Schedule.

18. The subject of the investigation / inquiry shall have the right to cross-examine any or all the witnesses in the investigation / inquiry.

19. The subject of the investigation / inquiry shall be entitled to call evidence to rebut allegations made against her.

20. The subject, duly served may elect not to attend in person or by Counsel or at all in which event the Tribunal shall be entitled to consider the evidence available and make a report and appropriate recommendations.

21. The Tribunal and Counsel assisting the Tribunal shall be entitled to cross-examine the subject and any of the witnesses called by the subject of investigation / inquiry.

22. The Tribunal shall have the power to recall any witness or witnesses.

23. Evidence before the Tribunal may be presented in the form of Memorandum, affidavit or other documentation and the Tribunal shall be entitled to receive such documents and to use the contents thereof in forming its opinion.

24. The Tribunal shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence but shall be guided by the rules of natural justice and relevancy.

25. The subject of the investigation shall be furnished with copies of any documentary evidence and may seek leave to address the Tribunal thereon.

26. At the close of the hearing of all evidence before the Tribunal, Counsel assisting the Tribunal and the subject of investigation / inquiry or her Counsel shall be entitled to make submissions.

27. The Chairperson may issue Practice Directions for the just, efficient and economical determination of proceedings, and in relation to these Rules.

28. Nothing in these Rules shall limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the Tribunal conferred to it by Article 168 of the Constitution either on its own motion or on the application of a party to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of its process.

29. The Tribunal may, from time to time by notice in the Gazette amend these Rules.

Appendix V

THE ENERGY ACT, 2006

(No. 12 of 2006)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 102 of the Energy Act, 2006 the Minister for Energy makes the following Regulations:

THE ENERGY (LICENSING OF PETROLEUM ROAD TRANSPORTATION BUSINESSES) REGULATIONS, 2011

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Energy (Licensing of Petroleum Road Transportation Businesses) Regulations, 2011.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Energy Act, 2006;

“Commission” means the Energy Regulatory Commission;

“Kenya Standard” means a specification or code of practice declared by the Council under section 9 of the Standards Act;

“Licence” means any document or instrument in writing granted under the Act by the Commission to any person authorizing the transportation by road of petroleum;

“Licensee” means any person holding a Petroleum Road Transportation Business Licence;

“Minister” means the minister for the time being responsible for energy;

“Petroleum Road Transportation Business” means the transportation of petroleum by road;

“Specifications” has the meaning assigned to it in section 2 of the Standards Act;

“Tribunal” means the Energy Tribunal established under section 108 of the Act.

3. These regulations shall not apply to Kenya Defence Forces, petroleum contained in a vehicle for own consumption, and petroleum transported in containers whose combined volume does not exceed 1000 litres

4. (1) A person shall not conduct a petroleum road transportation business except in accordance with the Act and the terms and conditions of a valid licence issued by the Commission or its agents.

(2) Where the Commission or its agents determines that a person is engaged in a petroleum road transportation business requiring a licence under these regulations and is not in possession of such licence it shall direct that person to cease such a business until such time as the person obtains the required licence.

5. (1) A person who wishes to undertake a petroleum road transportation business shall make an application to the Commission or its agents for a licence or renewal of licence in the form set out in Part 1 of Schedule B.

(2) The application for a petroleum road transportation licence shall be accompanied by the documentation and information specified in Part 2 of Schedule B.

6. (1) In evaluating an application for a petroleum road transportation business licence, the Commission or its agents shall take account of the criteria in Part 3 of Schedule B and be satisfied that the applicant has complied with the Act and information and documents submitted with the application form are true and correct.

(2) The Commission or its agents may request additional information from an applicant that may be necessary to enable the Commission to make a decision regarding the issuing of a licence.

(3) The Commission or its agents shall decide on an application within thirty (30) days after receipt of an application for a licence which meets the requirements of the Act and these Regulations.

7. The licence issued shall be in the form set out in Part 4 of Schedule B and shall state the conditions of the licence.

8. (1) A Petroleum Road Transportation business licence issued under the Act and these regulations shall be valid for a maximum period of one (1) year from the date of its issue and may be renewed in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(2) An application for renewal of a petroleum business licence shall be made to the Commission or its agents at least thirty (30) days before the expiry date.

9. (1) The Commission shall furnish all persons interested in filing applications for a Petroleum Road Transportation business licence with any necessary information in the Commission's or its agent's possession:

(2) Any discussions with, notifications or requests for information from the Commission or its agents shall not confer any right to any person to the grant of a licence.

10. As general conditions of its licence, a petroleum road transportation business licensee shall:

(a) Transport only petroleum that meets the Kenya Standard;

(b) Ensure that the business complies with the requirements of the Energy Act, Physical Planning Act, Standards Act, Local Government Act, Environmental Management and Co-ordination Act, Occupational Safety and Health Act, Weights and Measures Act, Traffic Act, Customs and Excise Act and any other written law;

(c) Transport petroleum only for petroleum business licensees in possession of a valid licence issued by the Commission under the Act or petroleum imported through an import route designated or prescribed under the East African Customs Management Act, 2004;

(d) Load petroleum only from petroleum storage facilities in possession of a valid licence issued by the Commission under the Act;

(e) Discharge petroleum only to a licensed facility, to an end user for own consumption or, in the case of petroleum intended for export, at a destination outside Kenya;

(f) Ensure that all vehicles used in the transportation of petroleum have valid petroleum road tanker permits issued by the Commission under the Act;

(g) Ensure that the vehicles used in the transportation of petroleum are driven only by persons in possession of valid certificates issued under the Act;

(h) Ensure that he has put in place an emergency preparedness and response plan that meets the criteria set by the Commission;

(i) Implement regular pre-loading vehicle inspection in accordance with a checklist approved by the Commission;

(j) Ensure that he has in place arrangements for the safe parking of vehicles used in the transportation of petroleum that comply with the emergency preparedness and response plan;

(k) Take reasonable and proper steps to ensure that the provisions of these Regulations and the conditions of the licence and vehicle permits are known to, and by all persons employed in or about the licensed premises or the petroleum road tankers; and

(l) Take reasonable steps to ensure that unauthorized persons do not have access to the petroleum road tankers.

11. (1) A petroleum road transportation business licence, or a certified copy thereof, shall be displayed in a prominent position on the premises in respect to which it is issued.

(2) Any licence issued in terms of these Regulations:

(a) remains the property of the Commission;

(b) may be modified, suspended, revoked or amended at any time subject to compliance with the Act;

(d) may not be tampered with or defaced in any manner; and

(e) is not transferable without the written consent of the Commission or its agents.

12. (1) A petroleum business licence ceases to be valid if the licence is suspended or revoked by the Commission or its agents under the provisions of the Act.

(2) Unless otherwise specified in the licence, the Commission or its agents may give the licensee fourteen (14) days to show cause why the licence should not be revoked setting out the matters specified in the Act.

(3) The Commission or its agents shall determine the matter within thirty (30) days from the expiry of the notice period.

(4) Any suspension or revocation of licence shall not indemnify the licensee against any penalties for which the licensee may have become liable under the Act or these Regulations.

13. (1) Any person aggrieved by a condition or term imposed in the licence by the Commission or its agents under these Regulations may in accordance with Section 83 of the Act, apply in writing to the Commission or its agents to amend such condition or term.

(2) If the aggrieved person is not the licensee the Commission or its agents shall inform the licensee within seven days of receipt of the application and the Commission will determine the matter within thirty (30) days.

(3) A licence amended under the Act and these regulations shall retain the existing expiry date.

14. (1) The Commission or its agents may inspect any vehicle, premises, or facility reasonably suspected of being engaged in the business of transportation of petroleum products for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of the Act and these Regulations relating to such transportation of petroleum products are being observed, and, in the case of a contravention of such provisions, may give such directions, to be enforced on the owner, occupier, driver or person in charge of such vehicle, premises, or facility as it considers necessary.

(2) Where the Commission or its agents directs a petroleum transportation business licensee, by a notice in writing, to execute any repairs to the licensed vehicle which, in the opinion of the Commission, may be necessary, the licensee shall execute the repairs within such period as may be fixed by the notice.

15. A petroleum road transportation business licensee shall report in writing to the Commission or its agents as soon as possible but not later than 48 hours any accident involving the transportation of petroleum which causes loss of life, personal injury, explosion, oil spill, fire or any other incident or accident causing significant harm or damage to the environment or property.

16. (1) A person shall not use or cause to be used a petroleum road tanker for transportation of petroleum by road within Kenya except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a valid petroleum road tanker permit issued by the Commission or its agents.

(2) Where the Commission or its agents determines that a person is using a petroleum road tanker requiring a permit under these regulations and is not in possession of such permit it shall direct that person to cease such use until such time as the person obtains the required permit.

17. (1) A person who wishes to obtain a petroleum road tanker permit shall make an application to the Commission or its agents for a permit or renewal of a permit in the form set out in Part 1 of Schedule C.

(2) The application for a petroleum road tanker permit shall be accompanied by the documentation and information specified in Part 2 of Schedule C.

18. The permit issued shall be in the form set out in Part 3 of Schedule C and shall state the conditions of the licence.

19. (1) A petroleum road tanker permit issued under the Act and these regulations shall be valid for a maximum period of one (1) year from the date of its issue and may be renewed in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(2) An application for renewal of a petroleum road tanker permit shall be made to the Commission at least thirty (30) days before the expiry date.

20. (1) The Commission or its agents shall furnish all persons interested in filing applications for a petroleum road tanker permit with any necessary information in the Commission's or its agent's possession:

(2) Any discussions with, notifications or requests for information from the Commission or its agents shall not confer any right to any person to the grant of a permit.

21. (1) A petroleum road tanker permit, or a certified copy thereof, shall be displayed in a prominent position on the vehicle in respect to which it is issued.

(2) Any permit issued in terms of these Regulations:

(a) remains the property of the Commission;

(b) may be modified, suspended, revoked or amended at any time subject to compliance with the Act;

(c) may not be tampered with or defaced in any manner; and

(d) is not transferable without the written consent of the Commission or its agents.

22. (1) A petroleum road tanker permit ceases to be valid if the permit is suspended or revoked by the Commission or its agents under the provisions of the Act.

(2) Unless otherwise specified in the licence, the Commission or its agents may give the permit holder fourteen (14) days to show cause why the permit should not be revoked setting out the matters specified in the Act.

(3) The Commission or its agents shall determine the matter within thirty (30) days from the expiry of the notice period.

(4) Any suspension or revocation of permit shall not indemnify the permit holder against any penalties for which the licensee may have become liable under the Act or these Regulations.

23. (1) Any person aggrieved by a condition or term imposed in the permit by the Commission or its agents under these Regulations may in accordance with Section 83 of the Act, apply in writing to the Commission or its agents to amend such condition or term.

(2) If the aggrieved person is not the permit holder the Commission or its agents shall inform the permit holder within seven (7) days of receipt of the application and the Commission or its agents will determine the matter within thirty (30) days.

(3) A permit amended under the Act and these regulations shall retain the existing expiry date.

24. A petroleum road tanker shall at all times comply with the requirements of the Energy Act, Standards Act, Local Government Act, Environmental Management and Co-ordination Act, Occupational Safety and Health Act, Weights and Measures Act, Traffic Act, Customs and Excise Act and any other written law;

25. (1) A person shall not drive a petroleum tanker for the purpose of transportation of petroleum within Kenya unless the person is in possession of a valid certificate issued under the Act.

(2) Where the Commission or its agents determines that a person is driving a petroleum road tanker without a valid certificate issued under the Act it shall direct that person to cease to drive until the person obtains the required certificate.

26. (1) A person who wishes to drive a petroleum road tanker shall make an application to the Commission or its agents for a certificate or renewal in the form set out in Part 1 of Schedule D.

(2) The application for a certificate shall be accompanied by the documentation and information specified in Part 2 of Schedule D.

27. The certificate issued shall be in the form set out in Part 3 of Schedule D and shall state the conditions of the certificate.

28. (1) A petroleum road tanker driver certificate issued under the Act and these regulations shall be valid for a maximum period of one (1) year from the date of its issue and may be renewed in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(2) An application for renewal of a petroleum road tanker driver certificate shall be made at least thirty (30) days before the expiry date.

29. (1) The Commission or its agents shall furnish all persons interested in filing applications for a petroleum road tanker driver certificate with any necessary information in the Commission's or its agent's possession:

(2) Any discussions with, notifications or requests for information from the Commission or its agents shall not confer any right to any person to the grant of a certificate.

30. (1) A driver of a petroleum road tanker shall at all times when driving or in control of a petroleum road tanker have on his person his certificate, or a certified copy thereof.

(2) Any certificate issued in terms of these Regulations:

- (a) remains the property of the Commission;
- (b) may be modified, suspended, revoked or amended at any time subject to compliance with the Act;
- (c) may not be tampered with or defaced in any manner; and
- (d) is not transferable without the written consent of the Commission or its agents.

31. (1). A petroleum road tanker driver certificate ceases to be valid if the certificate is suspended or revoked by the Commission or its agents under the provisions of the Act.

(2) Unless otherwise specified in the certificate, the Commission or its agents may give the certificate holder fourteen (14) days to show cause why the certificate should not be revoked setting out the matters specified in the Act.

(3) The Commission or its agents shall determine the matter within thirty (30) days from the expiry of the notice period.

(4) Any suspension or revocation of certificate shall not indemnify the certificate holder against any penalties for which the certificate holder may have become liable under the Act or these Regulations.

32. (1) Any person aggrieved by a condition or term imposed in the certificate by the Commission or its agents under these Regulations may, in accordance with Section 83 of the Act, apply in writing to the Commission or its agents to amend such condition or term.

(2) If the aggrieved person is not the certificate holder the Commission or its agents shall inform the certificate holder within seven days of receipt of the application and the Commission will determine the matter within thirty (30) days.

(3) A certificate amended under the Act and these regulations shall retain the existing expiry date.

33. A petroleum road tanker driver shall:

- (a) Not drive or allow to be driven a petroleum tanker in his custody unless such tanker has a valid petroleum road tanker permit issued by the Commission or its agents;
- (b) Not tamper with the quality of the petroleum in his custody;
- (c) Not divert the petroleum destined for export into the local market;
- (d) Ensure that he operates the petroleum road tanker in accordance with the requirements of the Energy Act, Standards Act, Local Government Act, Environmental Management and Co-ordination Act, Occupational Safety and Health Act, Weights and Measures Act, Traffic Act, Customs and Excise Act and any other written law;
- (e) Transport petroleum only for petroleum business licensees in possession of valid licences issued by the Commission under the Act or petroleum imported through an import route designated or prescribed under the East African Customs Management Act, 2004;
- (f) Load petroleum only from petroleum storage facilities in possession of a valid licence issued by the Commission under the Act;
- (g) Discharge petroleum only to a licensed facility, to an end user for own consumption or, in the case of petroleum intended for export, at a destination outside Kenya;
- (h) Comply with the emergency preparedness and response plan that has been put in place by the petroleum transport business licensee;
- (i) Implement regular pre-loading vehicle inspection in accordance with a checklist approved by the Commission or its agents; and
- (j) Comply with arrangements for the safe parking of petroleum road tankers in accordance with the emergency preparedness and response plan.

34. (1) A person aggrieved by the decision of the Commission in refusing to renew, amend, replace, grant a licence, permit or certificate or impose conditions on a licence, permit or certificate or in revoking a licence, permit or certificate may appeal to the Tribunal within thirty (30) days of receipt by him of the written notification of such action.

(2) A person aggrieved by the decision of a licensing agent in refusing to renew, amend, replace, grant a licence, permit or certificate or impose conditions on a licence, permit or certificate or in revoking a licence, permit, or certificate may appeal to the Commission or its agents within thirty days of receipt by him of the written notification of such action.

35. (1) A person who contravenes any provision of these regulations commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to such penalties as are stipulated in the Act.

(2) In any case where the person who contravenes the provisions of these regulations is licensed or certified under the Act the Commission or its agents may suspend or revoke his licence, permit or certificate whichever the case may be.

“Crude oil” means natural mineral oil, including condensate, but excluding petroleum products.

“Kenya Standard” means a specification or code of practice declared by the Council under section 9 of the Standards Act.

“Licence” means any document or instrument in writing granted under this Act by the Commission to any person authorizing the importation, exportation, refining, transportation, storage, distribution and sale of petroleum.

“Licensee” means any person holding a licence granted by the Commission.

“Marine petroleum jetty” means port berthing facilities for the reception and back loading of petroleum.

“Open tendering system” means a system of competitive bidding which applies to the importation into Kenya of crude oil and petroleum products as prescribed by the Minister from time to time.

“Specifications” has the meaning assigned to it in section 2 of the Standards Act.

5. (1) A marine petroleum jetty owner or operator shall provide facilities for the reception and back loading of petroleum that have the capacity and scope to meet in a cost effective manner the needs and requirements of petroleum business licensees.

(2) The owner or operator of a marine petroleum jetty shall operate and maintain the jetty in accordance with the requirements of the Energy Act, Physical Planning Act, Standards Act, Local Government Act, Environmental Management and Co-ordination Act, Occupational Safety and Health Act, Kenya Maritime Authority Act, Merchant Shipping Act, Weights and Measures Act, Custom and Excise Act and any other written law;

(3) A marine petroleum jetty operator licensee shall maintain its facilities in fully operational condition.

6. A marine petroleum jetty operator shall give access to petroleum business licensees and petroleum refining licensees on the basis of agreed schedules between the operator of the jetty and the petroleum business licensees and petroleum refining licensees provided that priority of access for reception of import cargo is given to the successful bidder for the crude oil import tenders and petroleum product import tenders under the terms and conditions of the Open Tendering System.

7. A marine petroleum jetty operator shall not discriminate between importers or exporters regarding access, tariffs, prices and conditions of service.

8. (1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision or action of the operator of a marine petroleum jetty may lodge a complaint with the Commission or its agents.

(2) A complaint contemplated under this Regulation shall be submitted in the manner prescribed by the Act and these Regulations and shall be accompanied by:

(a) Any information in support of the complaint; and

(b) A description of efforts made to resolve the dispute before making the complaint to the Commission or its agents.

(3) The Commission or its agents shall determine a complaint in any matter falling within the ambit of the Act.

(4) A person aggrieved by the decision of the Commission or its agents on a complaint may appeal to the Tribunal.

9. (1) A marine petroleum jetty licensee may enter into contractual arrangements with petroleum business licensees regarding the marine petroleum jetty services.

(2) The contractual arrangements between a marine petroleum jetty licensee and petroleum business licensees shall be subject to the approval of the Commission or its agents.

10. Any person who contravenes any of the above regulations commits an offence under Section 80(5) of the Act and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one million shillings or to a maximum term of imprisonment of one year, or both.

Appendix VIII

THE ENERGY ACT, 2006

(No. 12 of 2006)

IN EXERCISE of powers conferred by Section 102 of the Energy Act 2006, the Minister for Energy makes the following Regulations:

THE ENERGY (PETROLEUM INFORMATION AND STATISTICS) REGULATIONS, 2011

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Energy (Petroleum Information and Statistics), Regulations 2011.

2. These regulations will come into operation on the date on which they are published in the Gazette.

3. These Regulations shall not apply to the Kenya Defence Forces.

4. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

THE ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT AND CO-ORDINATION ACT

(No. 8 of 1999)

THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT STUDY REPORT FOR THE PROPOSED UPGRADING OF KENYA PETROLEUM REFINERIES IN CHANGAMWE, MOMBASA

PURSUANT to regulation 21 of Environmental (Impact Assessment and Audit) Regulations, the National Environmental Management Authority (NEMA) has received an Environmental Impact Assessment Study Report for the implementation of the proposed upgrading of Kenya petroleum refineries in Changamwe, Mombasa.

Kenya Petroleum Refineries Limited herein referred to as the Proponent of the proposed project in Changamwe, has proposed to upgrade its facility to comply with emission requirements of the future produce products and meet AFRI IV specifications and achieve improved refining margin. Currently the refinery consists of two crude processing Trains, complex I and complex II. The configuration of the refinery is a Hydro-skimming type processing medium sulphur crude oils such as Murban and Arab Medium. All power for the refinery is imported from the Kenyan national grid.

The proposed upgrading is aimed at achieving improved refining margin; full capacity utilization of the existing facilities; product qualities to meet current and future specifications; comply with current and future environmental emission, standards and regulations; fully utilize current excess fuel gas; become self-reliant in electrical power and water; and upgrade residue to high value products. A desalination plant is also proposed at the Port Reitz KPRL tank farm.

The following are the anticipated impacts and proposed mitigation measures:

Anticipated Environmental Impacts	Mitigation Measures
Air quality and health degradation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dust suppression by regularly spraying water on roads and work sites.</li> <li>Activities generating dust (excavation, handling and transport of soils) to be carried out in calm weather.</li> <li>The contractor should provide dust masks to all personnel on dust-prone work sites.</li> <li>Undertake regular air quality monitoring and conduct corrective adjustments where necessary.</li> </ul>
Noise pollution	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Noise levels at the construction site boundary should be kept within acceptable limits of 60 dB(A) during the day and 35 dB(A) during the night as stipulated within the Environmental Management and Coordination (Noise and Excessive Vibration Pollution) (Control) Regulations, 2009.</li> <li>The noise level immediately outside the refinery plant building wall must be maintained within the limit of NEMA of 50 dB (A) during the day and 35 dB (A) at night and WB Health and Safety guidelines which is 55 dB (A) during the day and 45 dB (A) at night.</li> </ul>
Biodiversity Loss	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>After completion of construction process, remaining sites should be re-vegetated with locally occurring grasses, shrubs and trees or other fast growing trees and grass in strategic areas as part of the landscaping activities.</li> <li>Have a green buffer zone of suitable area as guided by the zoning regulations for tree planting around the site.</li> </ul>
Degradation of marine ecosystems	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Minimize the quantity of dredging, back filling and reclamation activities</li> </ul> involved.

- The duration of offshore works execution should be minimized.
  - Oil and fuel leaks will be prevented by strict observance of all relevant laws and regulations by the contractor.
- Land and groundwater pollution
- Workers should be trained on standard operating procedures in the event of a spill.
  - Undertake soil and groundwater remediation after screening of the extent of contamination.
  - Oil contaminated soil should be bio-remediated before disposal.
- Emergence of Occupational health and safety risks.
- Contractor to adhere to KPRL Safety Policy Handbook.
  - All construction sites should be registered as construction sites with the Directorate of Occupational Health and Safety Services (DOHSS) and contractors abide by the regulation of OSHA 2007.
  - KPRL to adopt strict construction practices to ensure safety of local communities and construction workers.
  - The community should be notified in advance of possible activities that may cause disturbance.
- Waste management
- A waste tracking system should be adopted to detail quantities generated, collection and final disposal of all waste.
  - The disposal site need to be more than 100 meters from watercourses and in a position that will facilitate the prevention of storm-water runoff from the site from entering the watercourse.
  - Off-site transportation of wastes should be conducted so as to minimise or prevent spills.
  - Hazardous wastes should be properly collected, segregated, stored on-site in a designated area for disposal through authorized vendors.
  - The wash water should be disposed off to council storm water drainage system after oil-water separation in a settling pit or interceptor.

The full report of the proposed project is available for inspection during working hours at:

- (a) Director-General, NEMA, Popo Road, off Mombasa Road, P.O. Box 67839 - 00200, Nairobi.
- (b) Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Environment and Mineral Resources, NHIF Building, Community, P.O. Box 30521, Nairobi
- (c) Provincial Director of Environment, Coast Province.
- (d) District Environmental Officer, Mombasa District.

The National Environment Management Authority invites members of the public to submit oral or written comments within thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice to the Director-General, NEMA, to assist the Authority in the decision making process of the plan.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains Notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this, they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the Notice is, each page being numbered and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain no alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be supported by rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signatory in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to Notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D 34. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m. on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) Ministries will be required to pay for the Kenya Gazette and to meet the cost of advertising in it.

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
