THE LEADERSHIP AND INTEGRITY ACT

(No. 19 of 2012)

PURSUANT to section 37 of the Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012, the National Intelligence Service issues the Leadership and Integrity Code of Conduct set out in the Schedule hereto, to be observed by and binding upon State officers of the National Intelligence Service.

SCHEDULE

CODE OF CONDUCT

THE LEADERSHIP AND INTEGRITY CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STATE OFFICERS IN THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE SERVICE

PART I—STATEMENT OF INTENT

This Leadership and Integrity Code is made pursuant to section 37 of the Leadership and integrity Act, 2012 and is intended to establish standards of integrity and ethical conduct in the leadership of the National Intelligence Service by ensuring that the State officers in the National Intelligence Service respect the values, principles and requirements of the Constitution in the discharge of their duties.

PART II—PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

1. This Code may be cited as the Leadership and Integrity Code for State officers in the National Intelligence Service and shall come into operation on the date of its publication in the gazette.

2. In this Code, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012;

“Bank account” has the meaning assigned to it under section 2 of the Act;

“Board” means the Intelligence Service Complaints Board established by section 66 of the National Intelligence Service Act, 2012;

“business associate” has the meaning assigned to it under section 2 of the Act;

“Code” means the Leadership and Integrity Code for State officers in the National Intelligence Service;

“Council” means the National Intelligence Service Council established by section 64 of the National Intelligence Service Act, 2012;

“Commission” means the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission established under section 3 of the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission Act, 2011;

“Director-General” means the Director-General of the National Intelligence Service appointed in accordance with section 7 of the National Intelligence Service Act, 2012;

“gainful employment” means work that a person can pursue and perform for money or other form of compensation or remuneration which is inherently incompatible with the responsibilities of the state office or which results in the impairment of the judgment of the state officer in the execution of the functions of the state office or results in a conflict of interest;

“General Code” means the Code prescribed under Part II of the Act;

“personal interest” means a matter in which a State officer has a direct or indirect pecuniary or non-pecuniary interest and includes the interest of his or her spouse, child, business associate or agent;

"Service" means the National Intelligence Service established by Article 242 of the Constitution;

"Spouse" has the meaning assigned to it under section 2 of the Act; and

"State officer" means a person holding the office of the Director-General of the National Intelligence Service and any other person holding a state office in the National Intelligence Service.

3. This Code shall apply to the Director-General of the National Intelligence Service and any other person holding a state office in the National Intelligence Service.

4. (1) The provisions of Chapter Six of the Constitution shall form part of this Code.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in this Code, the provisions of the Public Officer Ethics Act, 2003, shall form part of this Code in so far as they conform to the provisions of the Act.

(3) In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Code and the General Code in the Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012, the latter shall prevail.

5. The general objective of this Code is to give full effect to provisions of Chapter Six of the Constitution on leadership and integrity and the Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012.

6. The specific objectives of this Code shall include—

- (a) the ensuring of accountability to the public for decisions and actions taken;
- (b) the establishment of a strong moral foundation of values for actualization of the Service mandate;
- (c) the ensuring of objectivity and impartiality in decision making;
- (d) the ensuring political neutrality in the discharge of the Service mandate;
- (e) the ensuring of honesty and integrity in the execution of public duties;
- (f) the provision of mechanisms for the management of conflict of interest;
- (g) the protection of the integrity of the Service by building trust internally and externally; and
- (h) the provision of enforcement mechanisms and sanctions for breach of this Code.

PART II—REQUIREMENTS

7. (1) A State officer shall respect and abide by this Code, the Constitution and the law.

(2) A State officer shall carry out the duties of his or her office in accordance with the law.

(3) In carrying out the duties of his or her office, a State officer shall not violate the rights and fundamental freedoms of any person unless otherwise expressly provided for in the law and in accordance with Article 24 of the Constitution.

8. A State office is a position of public trust and the authority and responsibility vested in a State officer shall be exercised by the State officer in the best interest of the office and the people of Kenya.

9. Subject to the Constitution and any other law, a State officer shall take personal responsibility for the reasonably foreseeable consequences of any actions or omissions arising from the discharge of the duties of his or her office.

10. (1) A State officer shall in accordance with the National Intelligence Service Act, 2012, and to the best of his or her ability—

- (a) carry out the duties of the office in a way that maintains public confidence in the integrity of his position in the service;
- (b) be true and faithful to the oaths or affirmations taken, as required under the Act and any written law;
- (c) carry out the duties of his office efficiently and honestly;

(d) give accurate, impartial and honest advice;

(e) carry out the duties of his or her office in a professional and accountable manner; and

(f) report truthfully on all matters of the Service.

11. A State officer shall —

- (a) carry out duties of the office in a manner that maintains public confidence in the integrity of the office;
- (b) treat members of the public and other State and public officers with courtesy and respect;
- (c) not discriminate against any person nor practice tribalism, nepotism or favouritism;
- (d) to the extent appropriate to the office, maintain high standards of performance and level of professionalism in the Service; and
- (e) if a member of a professional body, observe and subscribe to the ethical and professional requirements of that body in so far as the requirements do not contravene this Code, the Constitution and any other law.

12. (1) A State officer shall not use his or her office to unlawfully or wrongfully enrich himself or herself or any other person.

(2) A State officer shall not seek or accept a personal loan or benefit in circumstances that may compromise his or her integrity.

(3) A State officer shall submit a declaration of income, assets and liabilities of self, spouse and dependent children under the ages of eighteen years in accordance with Part IV of Public Officer Ethics Act, 2003.

13. A State officer shall observe and maintain the following ethical and moral requirements—

- (a) demonstrate honesty in the conduct of his or her public affairs;
- (b) not engage in activities that amount to abuse of office;
- (c) accurately and honestly represent information to the recipients of such information;
- (d) not engage in wrongful conduct in furtherance of personal benefit;
- (e) not misuse public resources;
- (f) not engage in actions which may lead to the state officer's removal from the membership of a professional body;
- (g) not sexually harass or have inappropriate sexual relations with other state officers and members of the Service;
- (h) not commit a criminal offence.

14. (1) A gift or donation given to a State officer on a public or official occasion shall be treated as a gift or donation to the Service.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), a State officer may receive a gift given in an official capacity, provided that—

- (a) the gift is within the ordinary bounds of propriety, a usual expression of courtesy or protocol and within the ordinary standards of the gift is not monetary; and
- (b) the gift does not exceed the value prescribed in the Regulations under the Act or any other law.

(3) Without limiting the generality of subparagraph (2), a State officer shall not—

- (a) accept or solicit gifts, hospitality or other benefits from a person who—
 - (i) is under investigation by the Service;
 - (ii) has an interest that may be achieved by the carrying out or not carrying out of the State officers duties;
 - (iii) carries on regulated activities with respect to which the Service has a role;

(iv) has a contractual or legal relationship with the Service; or

(v) is an agent of a foreign power.

(b) accept a gift which has the potential of compromising his or her integrity, objectivity or impartiality;

(c) accept or offer gifts of jewellery or other gifts comprising of precious metal or stones ivory or any other animal part protected under the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species or Wild Fauna and Flora; or

(d) accept any type of gift prohibited by the Act or regulations made thereunder.

(4) A State officer shall not receive a gift which is given with an intention of compromising the integrity, objectivity, impartiality or security of the State officer or Service.

(5) Subject to subparagraph (2), a State officer who receives a gift or donation shall declare the gift or donation to the Service within seven days from the date of receipt.

(6) The Service shall maintain a register in a form specified under Appendix I of this Schedule of all gifts received by State officers and gifts given by the Service as provided for in the Act and Regulations made thereunder.

15. A State officer shall not use the office to wrongfully or unlawfully acquire or influence the acquisition of property for self or any other person.

16. (1) A State officer shall use the best efforts to avoid being in a situation where personal interests conflict or appear to conflict with his or her official duties.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subparagraph (1), a State officer shall not hold shares or have any other interest in a corporation, partnership or other body, directly or through another person, if holding those shares or having that interest would result in a conflict with the state officer's personal interests and official duties.

(3) A State officer whose personal interests conflict with his or her official duties shall declare the personal interests to the Council in the case of the Director-General and to the Commission or Director-General in the case of any other State officer.

(4) The Commission, Director-General or Council, as the case may be, may give directions on the appropriate action to be taken by the State officer to avoid the conflict of interest and the State officer shall—

(a) comply with the directions; and

(b) refrain from participating in any deliberations with respect to the matter.

(5) Notwithstanding any directions to the contrary under subparagraph (4), a State officer shall not award or influence the award of a contract to—

(a) himself or herself;

(b) the State officer's spouse or child;

(c) a business associate or agent; or

(d) a corporation, private company, partnership or other body in which the State officer has a substantial or controlling interest.

(6) In this section "personal interest" includes the interest of a spouse, child, business associate or agent or any other matter in which the State officer has a direct or indirect pecuniary or non-pecuniary interest.

(7) Where a State officer is present at a meeting, where an issue which is likely to result in a conflict of interest is to be discussed, the state officer shall declare the interest at the beginning of the meeting or before the issue is deliberated upon.

(8) A declaration of a conflict of interest under subparagraph (7) shall be recorded in the minutes of that meeting.

(9) The Service shall maintain a register of conflicts of interest in a form specified under Appendix II of this Schedule in which an affected State officer shall register the particulars of registrable interests, stating the nature and extent of the conflict.

(10) For purposes of subparagraph (9), the registrable interests include—

(a) the interests set out in Appendix III of this Schedule.

(b) any connection with a person or a company, whether by relation, friendship, holding of shares or otherwise, which is subject of an investigation by the Service;

(c) any application for employment or other form of engagement with the Service, by a family member or friend of the State officer or by a company associated with the State officer;

(d) any application to the Service, by a family member or friend of the State officer, for security clearance with respect to appointment election to any public office;

(e) any other matter which, in the opinion of the State officer, taking into account the circumstances thereof, is necessary for registration as a conflict of interest.

(11) The Service shall keep the register of conflicts of interest for five years after the last entry in each volume of the register.

(12) The Service shall prepare a report of the registered interests within thirty days after the close of a financial year and submit the same to the Council.

17. (1) A State officer shall not participate in a tender for the supply of goods or services to the Service.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), a company or entity shall not be construed as trading with the Service unless—

(a) the State officer has controlling shareholding in the company or entity; or

(b) the State officer is a Director of the Company.

18. (1) A State officer shall not solicit for contributions from a member of the Service or any person for a public purpose unless the President has, by notice in the Gazette, declared a national disaster and allowed a public collection for the purpose of the national disaster in accordance with the law.

(2) A State officer shall not participate in a public collection of funds in a way that reflects adversely on the State officer's integrity, impartiality or interferes with the performance of the official duties.

(3) Subject to subparagraph (2), a State officer, may with the approval of the Council or Director-General, as the case may be, participate in a collection involving a private cause.

(4) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as prohibiting a State officer from making a personal and voluntary contribution.

19. (1) A State officer shall not maintain a bank account outside Kenya except with the approval of the Commission.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), a State officer may in the performance or furtherance of the functions of the Service maintain an account outside Kenya.

20. (1) A State officer shall not act for, be an agent of, or further the interests of a foreign power or otherwise act in manner that compromises the national security interests of Kenya.

(2) For purposes of this section, foreign power includes—

(a) a foreign government;

(b) a foreign organization;

(c) a person who is not a Kenyan citizen; or

(d) any entity that is directed or controlled by a foreign government, foreign organization or non-Kenyan citizen.

21. (1) A State officer shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that public property in the State officer's custody, possession or control is taken care of and is in good repair and condition.

(2) A State officer shall not use public property, funds or services that are acquired in the course of or as a result of the official duties, for activities that are not related to the official work of the State officer.

(3) A State officer shall return to the Service all the public property in their custody, possession or control at the end of the appointment term.

(4) A State officer who contravenes subparagraphs (2) or (3) shall, in addition to any other penalties provided for under the Constitution, the Act or any other law be personally liable for any loss or damage of the public property.

22. (1) A State officer shall not directly or indirectly use or allow any person under the State officer's authority to disclose any information whether classified or otherwise obtained through or in connection with the office, which is not available in the public domain, for the furthering of any private interest, whether financial or otherwise.

(2) A State officer shall not be deemed to have violated the requirement of subparagraph (1), if the information is given—

- (a) in accordance with the National Intelligence Service Act, 2012;
- (b) pursuant to a court order; or
- (c) in compliance with Article 35 of the Constitution.

23. (1) A State officer, shall not, in the performance of his or her duties—

- (a) act as an agent for, or take active part in the affairs of a political party;
- (b) indicate support for or opposition to any political party or candidate in an election; or
- (c) engage in political activity that may compromise or be seen to compromise the political neutrality of the Service.

24. A State officer shall not hold citizenship of another country during and after expiry of his or her term of appointment.

25. A State officer shall—

- (a) at all times, carry out the duties of his or her office with impartiality and objectivity; and
- (b) not practise favouritism, nepotism, tribalism, cronyism, religious bias or engage in corrupt or unethical practices.

26. A State officer who has a duty to give advice shall give honest, accurate and impartial advice without fear or favour.

27. A State officer who is serving on a full time basis shall not participate in any other gainful employment.

28. (1) A State officer shall not allow himself or herself to be influenced in the performance of his or her duties by plans or expectations for or offers of future employment or benefits.

(2) A State officer shall disclose, in writing, to the Council or Director-General, as the case may be, all offers of future employment or benefits that could place the State officer in a situation of conflict of interest.

29. A former State officer shall not be engaged by or act for a foreign power or private person or entity, in a matter in which the State officer was originally engaged in as a State officer for the rest of his or her life.

30. A State officer shall not knowingly give false or misleading information to the public or public authorities.

31. A State officer shall not falsify any records or misrepresent information to the public or public authorities.

32. A State officer shall conduct his or her private affairs in a manner that inspires public confidence in the integrity of his or her office.

33. (1) A State officer shall pay any taxes due from him or her within the prescribed period.

(2) A State officer shall not neglect his or her financial or legal obligations.

34. (1) A State officer shall not bully another State or public officer.

(2) For purposes of subparagraph (1), "bullying" includes sexual harassment, repeated offensive behaviour which is vindictive, cruel, malicious or humiliating and is intended to undermine a person.

35. (1) A State officer shall not—

- (a) cause anything to be done through another person that would constitute a contravention of the Code if done by the State officer; or
- (b) allow or direct a person under his or her supervision or control to do anything that is in contravention of this Code.

(2) Subparagraph, (1)(b) shall not apply where anything is done without the State officer's knowledge or consent if the State officer has taken reasonable steps to prevent it.

(3) A State officer who acts under an unlawful direction shall be responsible for his or her action.

36. (1) If a State officer considers that anything required of him or her is a contravention of the Code or is otherwise improper or unethical, he or she shall report the matter to the Council.

(2) The Council shall investigate the matter reported or refer the matter to a competent authority for investigation.

(3) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, a State Officer who considers that anything required of him or her is in contravention of the Code or is otherwise improper or unethical, he or she may report the matter to the Commission and the Commission shall investigate the matter and take appropriate action within ninety (90) days.

37. Subject to the National Intelligence Service Act, 2012, a State officer shall not disclose or cause to be disclosed any information in his or her custody to any unauthorized persons.

38. A State officer who believes or has reason to believe that a corrupt act or unethical malpractice has occurred or is about to occur in the Service, shall take all necessary measures to prevent it from continuing or occurring in addition to any other appropriate action.

39. State officers shall collectively and individually take measures to ensure that members of the Service uphold and practice the highest attainable degree of integrity in the performance of their duties.

40. A State officer shall maintain appropriate standard of dress and personal hygiene at all times.

PART III—ENFORCEMENT OF THE LEADERSHIP AND INTEGRITY CODE

41. (1) Upon appointment, a State officer shall sign and commit to the Leadership and Integrity Code at the time of taking his or her oath of office or within seven days of assuming office in a form specified under Appendix IV to this Schedule.

(2) A State officer who was appointed before the coming into force of this Code shall sign and commit to the Code within seven days upon publication of the Code in the Gazette.

42. (1) Subject to subparagraph (2), a breach of the Code amounts to misconduct for which a State officer may be subjected to disciplinary proceedings, including removal from office.

(2) Where an allegation of breach of this Code has been made against a State officer, the disciplinary action, question of removal or dismissal shall be determined in accordance with the National Intelligence Service Act, 2012, and applicable Regulations made thereunder.

43. (1) A person who alleges that a State officer has committed a breach of the Code, may lodge a complaint with the Council in the prescribed form as specified under Appendix V of this Schedule.

(2) The Council shall—

- (a) in the case of the Director-General, forward the complaint to the President who shall refer the matter to the Board for investigation or take such action as the President deems appropriate;
- (b) in the case of any other State officer, investigate the matter.

(3) The Council may request any competent authority to inquire into a complaint on its behalf and determine whether a State officer has contravened the Code.

(4) A State officer being investigated under this paragraph shall be informed of the complaint made against him or her and shall be given a reasonable opportunity to make a representation relating to the issue, before the investigation is concluded.

(5) A person who has lodged a complaint against a State officer shall be entitled to be informed of any action taken or to be taken in respect of the complaint and shall be afforded a hearing.

(6) Where an investigation under this paragraph is initiated while a State officer is in office, it may be continued even after the State officer under investigation has ceased to be a State officer.

(7) Subject to the National Intelligence Service Act, 2012 and any other laws and Regulations for the enforcement of the Code, a State officer may be suspended from office pending the investigation and determination of allegations made against the State officer where such suspension is considered necessary.

(8) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, the Director-General may in consultation with the Council take disciplinary action against any other State officer for breach of the Code.

44. (1) If upon investigation under this Part, the Council is of the opinion that civil or criminal proceedings ought to be preferred against the respective State officer, the Council shall refer the matter to—

- (a) the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission or the Attorney-General, with respect to civil matters;
- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions, with respect to criminal matters; or
- (c) any other competent authority.

45. (1) The Service shall promote compliance with the provisions of this code by regularly sensitizing State officers on the standards and principles prescribed in the Code.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), each State officer shall take personal responsibility for compliance with the provisions of the Code.

PART IV—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

47. A State officer violating the provisions of this Code is liable and may be penalised in accordance with the provisions of Part V of the Act.

48. Subject to the approval of the Commission, this Code shall be reviewed at such intervals as the Council may determine.

THE ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT AND CO-ORDINATION ACT

(No. 8 of 1999)

THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC TO SUBMIT COMMENTS ON AN ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT STUDY REPORT FOR THE PROPOSED GREAT WALL GARDENS MIXED USE DEVELOPMENT, ON PLOT L.R. NO. 27317/2, IN MAVOKO OF MACHAKOS COUNTY

INVITATION OF PUBLIC COMMENTS

PURSUANT to Regulation 21 of the Environmental Management and Co-ordination (Impact Assessment and Audit) Regulations, 2003, the National Environment Management Authority (NEMA) has received an Environmental Impact Assessment Study Report for the above proposed project

The Proponent, Erdemann Property Limited, is proposing Great Wall Gardens Mixed Use Development, on Plot L.R. No. 27317/2, in Mavoko of Machakos County. The project comprises, residential units: 2000 units (1000, 2-bedroom and 1000, 3-bedroom units), ground floor + 5 floors, parking on ground floor, a commercial centre comprising a supermarket, ATM lobby and shops, a nursery school, commercial and residential parking slots of 229 and 4449 slots respectively, a new boundary wall to match the existing one, development utilities (water, sewer line, drainage, pavements, connection to Kenya Power grid) among others. This development will be in three phases.

The following are the anticipated impacts and proposed mitigation measures:

Possible Impacts	Mitigation Measures
Construction Phase
Air pollution and dust generation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Spraying of water during construction work. Control of speed and movements of construction vehicles. Building a buffer fence around the construction site. Use of low-sulphur diesel for diesel-operated construction machinery. Provision of PPE.
Noise pollution	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No unnecessary hooting by project and building occupants vehicles. Use of ear protection aids by construction workers. Use of attenuated equipment. Temporarily fencing off noisy machinery such as vibrators.
Generation of solid waste	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Re-use of soil for landscaping. Re-use of construction debris as basement for parking yard.

Health and safety

- Proper containment and disposal of solid waste.
- Contracting a licensed waste collection and disposal company at operation stage.
- Use of soil and construction debris for rehabilitation of quarry pits.
- Sensitizing construction workers and building occupants on proper waste disposal and material re-use.
- Re-use of timber off-cuts and wooden supports for fuel.
- Construction workers to be provided with appropriate PPE.
- Site to be sprinkled with water to minimize dust.
- Use of stable ladders and other climbing/support structures.
- Sensitize workers in construction safety measures.
- Cleanliness and organization at the construction site.
- Fencing or covering of risky areas such as deep pits.
- Safety signage.
- Use of permit-to-work authorizer for risky jobs.
- Engagement of skilled labourers.
- Insurance of workers.

Fire hazards and accidents

- Acquire fire fighting facilities.
- Sensitize workers in fire safety.
- Proper disposal of solid waste.
- No storage of inflammables on site.
- Keep well stocked first aid box.
- Proper handling and use of tools and machinery.
- Use of correct PPE.
- Ensure that the site is always guarded by a reputable security firm.
- Constant site patrol.

Security

- Adequate screening of visitors to the site.
- Collaboration with existing security machinery.
- Partnership with neighbours and police in community policing.

Decommissioning Phase

Decommissioning
(Demolition Waste)

- Use of an integrated solid waste management system.
- Where recycling /reuse of the machinery equipment, partitions and other demolition waste is not possible, the material should be taken to a licensed waste disposal.
- Implement an appropriate re-vegetation landscaping programme to restore the site to its original status. Consider planting of indigenous species when restoring the site to its original status.

The full report of the proposed project is available for inspection during working hours at:

- (a) Principal Secretary, Ministry of Environment, Natural Resources and Regional Development Authorities, NHIF

Building, 12th Floor, Ragati Road, Upper Hill, P.O. Box 30126-00100, Nairobi.

(b) Director General, NEMA Popo Road, off Mombasa Road, P.O. BOX: 67839-00200, Nairobi.

(c) County Director of Environment, Machakos County.

The National Environment Management Authority invites members of the public to submit oral or written comments within thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice to the Director General, NEMA, to assist the Authority in the decision-making process for this project.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains Notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this, they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the Notice is, each page being numbered and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain no alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be supported by rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signatory in capital letters.
- (ii) must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to Notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—Kenya Gazette

"D 34. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m. on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) Ministries will be required to pay for the Kenya Gazette and to meet the cost of advertising in it.

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
