- (b) not acted within the time limit set out in the relevant statute, or within a reasonable period; or
- (c) where required by law, unreasonably refused to use ADR, or failed to respond to an invitation to do so.

27. The court will consider the effect of any non-compliance when deciding whether to impose any sanctions which may include—

- (b) an order depriving a successful party of interest on that sum for a specified period and/or awarding interest at a lower rate than would otherwise have been awarded; and

Cause Lists

28. The cause list shall be prepared by the Deputy Registrar weekly in advance and posted on the internet by 1.00 pm every Friday. Additions may be made by way of a supplementary cause list. There will however be a cause list generated for each day denoting what cases are before which Judge or Deputy Registrar.

THE JUDICATURE ACT

(Cap.8)

THE COMMUNITY SERVICE ORDERS ACT

(Cap. 93)

PENAL CODE

(Cap. 63)

SENTENCING GUIDELINES (2016)

PRACTICE DIRECTIONS BY THE HONOURABLE CHIEF JUSTICE ON THE APPLICATION OF COMMUNITY SERVICE ORDERS BY THE MAGISTRATES' COURTS

These practice directions are issued pursuant to the provisions of Act 159, 165(7) and 49 (2) of the Constitution of Kenya, section 10 of the Judicature Act Chapter 8, section 24 (b) of the Penal Code Chapter 63, section 3 and 8 (2) of the Community Service Orders Act, Chapter 93 and the application of the Sentencing Guidelines (2016) with reference to determination of fines (11.1) and imposition of alternatives to imprisonment and custodial sentence.

1. These practice directions are issued with a view to increase the number of offenders placed on Community Service Orders with the aim enhancing the usage of alternative criminal justice sanctions.

2. As far as possible for all offences that qualify for Community Service Orders, a referral should be made to the Community Service officer to generate a pre-sentence report.

3. Where a court intends to pass a custodial sentence in relation to any offence that falls within the ambit of Section 3 of Community Service Orders Act CAP 93, a referral shall be made to the Community Service Officer and such a custodial sentence shall only be passed if the offender is found unsuitable for Community Service Orders or Probation orders. The court shall record reasons for such finding.

4. In cases where a written presentence report may not be available in a timely manner, a verbal report should be sufficient.

5. Where the court intends to pass a sentence where a custodial sentence is an alternative to a fine, and the intended sentence does not exceed six (6) months imprisonment, a referral shall be made for a pre-sentence report with a view to ascertaining an appropriate non-custodial sentence.

6. If an offence is not serious enough to warrant a Community Service Order, a suspended sentence, a fine, (where the court is certain as to the means of the accused person), conditional discharge or absolute discharge would be appropriate. For a Community Service Order to be passed, an offence should be serious enough to warrant one.

7. Where the court intends to impose a fine, the purpose of such fine shall be to inflict a financial loss to the offender and not to unintentionally subject the offender to the default custodial sentence.

8. Where a court imposes a fine on a non-serious offence punishable by up to six (6) months imprisonment and such fine/s is/are not paid by the offender within two (2) weeks and appears punitive as to cause miscarriage of justice and render the offender to serve custodial sentence, the trial magistrate shall forward the file to the Deputy Registrar of the High Court within the jurisdiction of that court for an appropriate intervention by the Judge where Community Service Order or any other alternative non-custodial orders may be considered

9. The fine fixed by the Court should not be excessive as to render the offender incapable of paying thus liable to imprisonment. In determining such a fine, the means of the offender as well as the nature of the offence should be taken into account. Except in petty cases and in which case the necessary information is within the Court's knowledge, a pre-sentence report should be requested from the probation officer to provide information which would assist the Court in reaching a just determination.
