CHAPTER THREE

INSTITUTIONALIZATION OF NATIONAL VALUES AND PRINCIPLES OF GOOD GOVERNANCE AND OF PUBLIC SERVICE

3.1 Institutionalization of National Values and Principles

As stipulated in Article 59 (1) (e) of County Governments Act, 2012, the CPSB is mandated to promote in the county public service, the values and principles referred to in Articles 10 and 232 of Kenya Constitution, 2010. section 59 (1) (f) of the County Governments Act, No. 17 of 2012 mandates the Board to carry out evaluation on the extent to which the values and principles have been complied with in the county public service. Thus, the Board embarked on this noble task at the onset of 2018.

As stipulated in section 104 (4) of the County Governments Act, No. 17 of 2012 the Board is required to incorporate non-state actors in planning processes of activities in which the public is expected to participate. Bearing this in mind, the Board developed modalities of working with non-state actors. This was done after gathering background information, such as registration, area of operation, membership, objectives, activities, successes and challenges to mention just but a few. The Board also conducted a situational analysis by evaluating its strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats (SWOT). Besides, it also evaluated the political, economic, social, technological, environmental/ecological, and legal factors (PESTEL) that could affect its operations.

The Board engages the non-state actors through informing and educating the public on the values and principles after which they are deployed in the collection of data used by the County Government in its service delivery. They are useful in determining the effectiveness of educating the citizens and the impacts it will have on them in addition to identifying the value champions who would be recognized as good examples to others. During and after election campaigns, they are expected to preach and maintain peace.

Leaders of the main non-state groups in all the five Sub-counties of Nyandarua County were invited for discussions during the year under review. The groups included faith based organizations and civic advocacy groups. The discussions were centered on how they would collaborate with CPSB in educating the public on National Values and Principles.

The groups and the Board resolved to register one umbrella body, namely, Nyandarua Integrated Community Association (NICA). The registration process was completed in October 2018.

Earlier, the CPSB had held a workshop at Sweet Lake Hotel, Naivasha from 29th January, 2018 to 2nd February, 2018 in which it was resolved that there is a need for the Board to have a greater understanding of the non-state actors' involvement in the civic education on values and principles. Some of the observations that require to be clearer include:

1. The need to clearly define non-state actors
2. Structures and framework of engaging non-state actors
3. Laws that guide the engagement of non-state actors
4. Point of convergence between the CPSB and the County Executive to avoid conflicts
5. The modalities of involvement of non-state actors without compromising the operations of the Board
6. The role of the Board in civic education

As the registration of the group was going on, the Board, through its representative (Co-ordinator), held a number of meetings with the interim officials as discussed in Naivasha workshop. The action areas were identified as:

- (a) Definition of Non-State Actors: The members agreed that the non-state actors were going to be the registered groups in the County that deal with civic education and any other related objectives, geared towards promotion of values and principles. These are preferably groups that deal with governance matters.
- (b) Structure of engagement: The members agreed to engage a lawyer for the purpose of drafting a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the CPSB and NICA (originally NYAFOD) before the month of March, 2018. Though this is yet to be done, the matter is still on course. On the signing of the MOU, the members agreed to consult the Speaker of the County Assembly for legal advice and input.
- (c) Financing of activities of Non-State Actors: The members agreed to mobilize resources for the planned activities from well-wishers, NGOs, service providers, donors, County and National Governments and business fraternity among others. It was emphasized that non-state actors ought to assist in resource mobilization.

The Board members also identified some of the possible supporters of the aforementioned activities. They include: National Hospital Insurance Fund (NHIF), NSSF, NATIONAL MEDIA GROUP, FAULU, KENYA, County Pension Fund (CPF), LAPFUND, URAIA TRUST, The Special Directorate of National Cohesion and Values, EACC, National Anti-Corruption Campaign Steering Committee (NACCSC), World Wildlife Fund (WWF), KUPPET and SBM Bank among others.

The co-ordinator was requested to start making correspondences with the prospective sponsors straightaway with the aim of planning a meeting with them as expeditiously as possible. Letters requesting for partnership and sponsorship were written to the prospective partners. Some of them responded for more enquires and as a result, the coordinator has either paid visits to their offices or contacted them by making calls. The feedback was positive since some cited it as a noble activity and expressed their wish to be part of the arrangement. Majority of them promised that they would deliberate the matter in their respective institutions/organizations.

In September, 2018, the Board held a meeting with the prospective partners at Eastmark Hotel, Nakuru. The meeting was attended by: NHIF, FAULU, NATION MEDIA GROUP, NSSF, CPF URAIA TRUST, non-state actors and the Directorate of National Cohesion and Values. Some of those who did not attend sent apologies but expressed unwavering commitment to participate in the planned activities. The Board's secretary took the partners present through the issue and expectations of the planned activities. The following is a highlight of the issues that the secretary addressed.

- (a) He read Article 10 of the Constitution of Kenya that binds all state organs, state officers, public officers, and all persons whenever any of them:
 - (i) applies or interprets this Constitution;
 - (ii) enacts, applies or interprets any law; or
 - (iii) makes or implements public policy decisions.
- (b) On the national values and principles of good governance, the secretary took the participants through the following:
 - (i) patriotism, national unity, sharing and devolution of power, the rule of law, democracy, and participation of the people;
 - (ii) human dignity, equity, social justice, inclusiveness, equality, human rights, non-discrimination and protection of the marginalized;
 - (iii) good governance, integrity, transparency and accountability; and
 - (iv) sustainable development
- (c) Further, emphasis was placed on the need of educating the society about values. Apparently, erosion of values has led to an ever rising cases of seemingly runaway corruption earning the country negative image globally. Pilferage of public resources has become common in many public institutions and it's now not a preserve of the officers holding high offices only.

The prospective partners were each given some time to comment on the programme and the role they would play in the civic education:

1. NSSF: The opportunity for them to reach the public and educate them on the services they offer. One thing is that, they will explain the beneficiaries of their services on how to claim their loved ones benefits. They would also sell their new products like voluntary contribution. They pledged to support the programme.

2. Nation Media Group: They saw an opportunity to sell their products through research on what is ailing the society and what they hope to gain from interested organizations. Thus, they would help in building bridges for capacity – building. They would also create awareness through dissemination of information. They also saw an opportunity for growth through networking, by covering the events on civic education by offering their services on reduced costs.
3. Faulu – Kenya: They saw an opportunity to educate the public on the products they offer to finance their activities such as farming, processing and businesses. They would also offer financial management as they recruit new customers.
4. NHIF – They saw an opportunity to sensitize the public on the NHIF services and the need to pay monthly contributions to cover their medical costs and reduce the heavy financial burdens that befall their families. They will sell their products such as: Edu Afya, Linda Mama and 70+ for the elderly.
5. CPF – Their role in managing workers' pension funds will be well explained to the members. They will sell their other products and recruit new members. They pledged support for the planned activities.
6. URAIA TRUST – Since they train and educate the society on democracy and constitutionalism, they pledged to assist in the training and preparation of training materials.
7. Non-State Actors – They were enthusiastic that they would get trained and facilitated for their outreach programmes and were also enlightened on the different roles of the stakeholders. They particularly singled out capacity-building and networking with other stakeholders.
8. The Directorate of National Cohesion and Values: The P.A.S., Mr. Ndung'u promised his support as the Head of the Directorate that established the National Values and Principles. He promised to assist in resource mobilization and training by supporting by seven (7) team leaders at the Kenya School of Government who will be supervising the ToTs.

The participants were taken through the following thematic areas to undertake:

- (a) National Values and Principles of good governance and of Public Service, to be handled by the Directorate in the office of the Presidency, and NACCSC;
- (b) Devolution: Principles and Practices – Board Secretary;
- (c) Role of the County Assembly and CASB in enhancing the values and principles – County Assembly;
- (d) Role of County Government in championing the values and principles – County Secretary;
- (e) Role of CPSB in enhancing Public Service and the Public – CPSB Chairperson;
- (f) Role of Non-State Actors – CPSB Vice-Chairperson, Jane Maina;
- (g) Role of public and private sector in enhancing positive impact of National Values and Principles in service delivery – FAULU, NHIF, NSSF, LAPFUND, CPF, etc;
- (h) Role of the Public in enhancing National Values and Principles – CPSB Member, B.M. Mukuriah;
- (i) Role of Public Officers Ethics, Act – EACC; and
- (j) Communication and Leadership Skills – CPSB Member, Eddah.

3.2 Way Forward

Most of the pledges have not been honored although CPF has already given a cheque worth KSh.100,000. LAPFUND also called to inform of a drawn cheque worth KSh.150,000. The members agreed to follow up on those who had made pledges so that training of the Trainers of Trainers could commence. The training will then be followed closely by the rolling out the Civic Education Programmes.

It is the expectation of the members of the board that the said rolling out or launching of the above programme will be a great achievement to the county and the country as well.

3.3 Impacts of Relationship between the Board and Stakeholders on the National Values and Principles

The National Values and Principles are meant to enhance behavioral change in the manner in which operations in both public and private institutions take place. A breakdown of communication, normally as a result of lack of these values and principles, has a detrimental effect to everyone in an institution. The CPSB has not been spared backlash owing to its operations or even some strenuous relationships with its stakeholders all which have negative effect on the values and principles. Highlighted below are some of the aforementioned relationships between the Board, the public and other entities.

3.3.1 CPSB and the Executive

The Board's functions and powers as stipulated in Section 59 of the County Governments Act, 2012, have a direct bearing in the way the Members of the Board transact business with the County Executive. As a result of poor relationship between the two offices, there were minimal activities undertaken by the Board during the entire year. Mistrust and suspicion have typified this relationship – the reason the Chief Officers' recruitment process was not concluded as expected. It is apparent that lack of communication and consultations caused a lot of anxiety in the public service and the County at large although the Board tried unsuccessfully to reach out to the County Executive through writing.

The two entities ought to work harmoniously for good governance to be realized within the county. In fact, lack of adequate staff members in some departments is a direct result of antagonistic working relationship that exists. Besides, a number of senior positions are held by persons in 'acting capacity' who have not been appointed by the Board as the norm dictates. Some of the staff working in the Office of the Governor have also not been regularized as required by law. Requests for their documents to determine their qualifications have not borne fruits. Moreover, the Board made several requests for some reports such as the skills audit and head-count of public service that were carried out by the County Executive with no response.

For the Board to recruit public officers into the county public service, the County Executive ought to give a justification which is only possible if the requests are accompanied by departmental organograms and staff establishment. Sadly, this has not been the case and it poses a threat of a bloated workforce which could lead to unsustainably high wage bill compromising expenditure towards development and service delivery.

The County Executive has, in numerous occasions, failed to follow the Board's advice. The infamous ECDE report, which had a lot of action plans by the department that were mainly drawn from observations CPSB Members is just an example. It had been observed that some of the teachers were found teaching in the primary schools they were posted in to work as ECDE instructors. In addition, teachers who had exited had not been replaced and relationship between ECDE teachers and the school heads was discordant. These issues are yet to be addressed.

The haste in which the County Executive recalled the Board's secretariat and reduced its (Board's) budget manifested great misunderstanding and antagonism between the two entities. The actions almost crippled the Board's operations and created a huge wedge in the public service. Although the Board has tried to work with few members of staff on contract, their exit from the Board impacted negatively on the operations of the Board.

3.3.2 Public Service

Majority of the public officers have had their concerns regarding promotions and confirmation of employment addressed. Those others who had queries have had them attended to their satisfaction. The relationship could be greatly improved if the Human Resource Manual is approved and implemented.

3.3.3 County Assembly

Lately, there exists a cordial relationship between the County Assembly and the Board, particularly, the Office of the Speaker as is evident in the correspondences between the two offices. The Board is however wary of the political differences that are occasionally in existence between the County Executive and the County Assembly as they could affect it either directly or indirectly. This is in regards to Board's budget, which as earlier mentioned, was greatly reduced, affecting the Board's operations adversely.

The issue of the Board's office is a challenge that the Board has had to contend with since it assumed office. So much so has been the challenge that it has attracted the notice of some Members of County Assembly who have been accused of leading some youth groups to evict the Board by interrupting its activities and operations. It is important to note that despite a budgetary allocation for leasing alternative offices, it has not been possible to utilize the funds due to procurement rules and policies that require Boards to manage their own budget. Therefore, there is a need to establish working relationships with various Committees of the County Assembly with an aim of understanding various shared roles and thereby chart the way forward.

3.3.4 The Public

At the beginning of the year, there was a negative image of the Board prevalent in the public as could be seen in the social media platforms and other outlets of information. This was mainly attributable to change in leadership. However, this has greatly improved as the Board has consistently attempted to demystify misconceptions about its modus operandi. The public has been very receptive of the information and gradually, the perception has changed and there has been an appreciation of the Board's professionalism especially during recruitment. Importantly, civic education activities are necessary platforms to disseminate information and sensitize the public on values and principles.

CHAPTER FOUR

CHALLENGES IN FINANCING THE COUNTY PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD'S STRATEGIC PLAN

4.1 Introduction

County Public Service Boards are creations of the law which gives them a host of mandatory duties and responsibilities that ought to undertake.

Among these responsibilities are implementation of Articles 10 and 232 of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010 on National Values and Principles in the county government. This is designed to be done through preparation of training materials on topical issues and thereafter carrying out civic education to the county public service and the public.

The importance of carrying out of this civic education on National Values and Principles cannot be over emphasized. It is a legal requirement that the county public service boards should report to the county assembly at the end of every calendar year the extent to which this has been undertaken during the year. At the same time, this report should be submitted to the Office of the Presidency which feeds into the Presidential Speech to Parliament sometime in April of every year on the extent to which National Values and Principles has been carried out in the counties and nationally.

This analogy of one mandatory duty and responsibility among the many that the county public service board is supposed to undertake just demonstrates the importance of such undertakings in the county and nationally. The County Governments Act provides a host of numerous duties and responsibilities that county public service boards are expected to perform.

Nyandarua County Public Service Board has however not undertaken most of such duties and responsibilities. This is mostly where finances are required to perform the duties and responsibilities.

All the same, the board has acted on matters that do not require finances to undertake such duties responsibilities. They include preparation of training materials on National Values and Principles and now waiting for funding to roll them out to the county public service and the public, recruitment as requested by departments during the year, promotions, re-designations, confirmations and issued necessary advisories to mention just but a few.

4.2 Activities the Board had Planned to Undertake in Year 2018

The Board has a strategic plan whose activities are derived from the expected duties and responsibilities as spelt out in both the Constitution and the County Governments Act. These modest activities were then designed to be undertaken in chronological order during each fiscal year. Some of these activities are supposed to be done annually.

The planned Board activities are presented in Table 4.1. The table is an extract of activities that were expected to be undertaken during 2018. The county assembly was involved during its preparation and made valuable contributions.

The 2017/2018 approved budget to undertake the activities as required by law are as shown in Table 4.2. The inadequate allocation of budget to the County Public Service Board from 2013/2014 to 2018/2019 explains this sorry state. The allocation is way below the funding of expected legal mandates of the County Public Service Board.

4.3 Challenges of Financing the County Public Service Board Mandates as Required by Law

A comparison of the proposed activities during the 2017/2018 in monetary terms and the actual budget that was allocated testifies the challenges the Board went through during 2018, which is the year under review. The strategic plan had budgeted for KSh.93.2 million. However, the amount that was allocated to the board during this period was a paltry KSh.14.168 million.

This has been a trend even in the previous years as indicated in table 2. The Board, for example, planned activities during the 2016/2017 fiscal year with a total cost of KSh.176.1 million. However, the allocation during this period was only KSh.14.168 million.

The Board usually presents to the County Executive Member in charge of Finance, at the beginning of every budget-making cycle, its planned activities and the expected costs. This has been the case from the 2013/2014 budget to 2018/2019. From table 2, it will be noted that the budget allocated has always been inadequate to carry out expected legal duties and responsibilities. Whenever the board has been invited by the County Assembly during the discussions of budget allocation, the subject of inadequate funding is regularly highlighted.

If the trend persists, the problem of financing the activities is projected to continue bedevilling the Board. There is no legal basis as to the amount the county public service board is supposed to be allocated although there is a claim that the Controller of Budget has placed a ceiling of KSh.30 million to be allocated to county public service boards. The approved budgets from Table 2 indicate the allocation to the board is way below this directive. Budget allocation is therefore left to the good will of the County Executive and the County Assembly. Interestingly, the two understand and appreciate the activities of the Board. However, the competing needs the county budget is proposed to fund have always left out the county public service board in a disadvantaged position.

There is need to legislate a definite process of financing county public service board's activities. This matter has been discussed frequently in national forums. A national debate of analysing the functions of the board and thereafter assign them finances seems to be the best option so that boards across the country perform evenly, unlike what is currently happening.

The Commission on Revenue Allocation appears to have also come to terms with this reality. Most of the parameters it has included in the current proposals designed for the 3rd formula on sharing of transfer of funds from the national to the counties are the fourteen (14) devolved to the counties as stated in the Fourth Schedule of the Constitution.

On the other hand, the County Assembly is expected to design a checklist against which to measure effectiveness of utilization of the funds allocated to the board against the already clearly understood and listed functions.

CHAPTER FIVE

OUTLOOK FOR THE INCOMING COUNTY PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD

5.1 Success Story of the Outgoing County Public Service Board's (CPSB) Members

5.1.1 Introduction

In order to appreciate the achievements made by the outgoing Board Members it is important to understand the Power, Functions, and Mandate of the Board as contained in sections 57 to 86 of the County Governments Act, 2012. The outgoing members came into office on 5th August, 2013. Since then the Board has endeavoured to fulfil its mandate as contained in the Act.

5.1.2 Board's Achievement since August 2013

The major success of the Board is finding and getting office space. Initially, the CPSB Members were housed at the County

Commissioner's board room and within a short period was ordered to vacate the office. The Board proceeded to the current Youth Centre block which lacked in most basic items like toilet /bathroom facilities and water. Board Members had to raise funds to fix not only the lacking facilities but to also secure the new offices by fixing the door locks, security grills and also, construct a sewer system. This was the first major success story.

Besides, the speed by which the Board came with criteria for recruitment process noting the County Government was relatively new and needed some personnel to be in office at the earliest for them to start functioning. Of immediate need were the public service officers and Governor's Staff.

As mentioned above, there was a prevailing notion that CPSB was an extension of the County Executive among senior officers of the County Government. This was due to lack of understanding of the roles of the Board in a devolved unit.

The CPSB also established, fairly fast, a cordial working relation with the County Executive as well as the County Assembly. This was critical since there was a lot of recruitments going on hence, there was a need for goodwill from all the parties.

Recruitment of 400 ECD teachers was a big success story being one of the single largest hiring by County Government. It involved many stakeholders and above all ensuring fair distribution in all the wards. Other success stories include—

- (i) recruitment for Health Department in the first County Government;
- (ii) submission of annual reports to the County Assembly on 31st December of each year as per County Governments Act;
- (iii) issuing advisories to the County Executive whenever need arises;
- (iv) at national level, the CPSB Members have participated either as group or individually at County Public Service Boards National Consultative Forum (CPSBNCF) in which their contributions have been immensely valuable. CPSBNCF is an umbrella body that brings together all the forty seven (47) County Public Service Boards; and
- (v) the completion of the CPSB Strategic plan for 2018-2022 is not only a milestone but a huge success story.

5.2 What Could CPSB Members have done better

Upon being sworn-in into office, CPSB Members could have cleared first with housekeeping issues before commencement of recruitment processes or other major duties. By failing to start by developing procedures and regulations for performing major tasks, the CPSB started on a wrong footing. Moreover, the Board was underfunded and had to find its way to fix office premises. To date, the Board has never been provided with official means of transport and Members have to either rely on own means or request other departments to provide with transport when attending to official duties. Lack of official means of transport members of the Board has been detrimental in that it is very challenging to monitor public servants in different wards.

The issue of office would have been settled as it remains not only a major challenge but an embarrassment to the Board. There have been various attempts to evict the Board from the current premises that ought to be a youth resource centre under management of National Government.

Whenever the County Executive (during the first and second governments) has felt peeved by CPSB in carrying its mandates as stipulated in the law, they have used the office premises as a means for harassing the Board with threats of eviction.

Other areas the Board could have done better relates to the relationship with non-state actors especially the civil society. This is an area the Board left out during the first government but partly due to delay in implementation of training on national values and principles.

The CPSB could have done better by getting a way of communicating with the public on its roles by developing an interactive media platform.

There should have been better communication between the Board and the Executive by way of informal engagements between the Board Chairperson and the Governor where areas of mutual interest of the Board and Executive could be agreed upon before being brought up for official discussion.

5.3 Outlook for the Incoming Board

The following issues have been addressed and therefore the incoming Board will be able to execute its mandate more efficiently:

1. There is an established office.
2. A few secretarial staff in place (secretariat has not been established fully);
3. The incoming Board will find also find the Strategic Plan 2018-2022 implying that they will have a clear road map.
4. The incoming Board will be able to carry out functions not carried out by the outgoing Board either due to time constraints or lack of resources.
5. The incoming Board should have a cordial relationship with the County Executive given that its appointment will be by the second government.

5.4 Transition Issues

During the Board Planning workshop held in Nakuru between 17th December, 2018 and 21st December, 2018, various transitions issues were discussed, among them—

- (i) advisory to the Governor to start recruitment process of the new Board members in time;
- (ii) if possible, the new Board should be in office by 1st August, 2019
- (iii) the outgoing Board should be entrusted with the task of inducting the incoming one; and
- (iv) outgoing Board should hand over to new Board, all the reports of work accomplished and pending before they exit.

Population/ Demographic movement and employment	Prioritizes job opportunities for the local community first then compensate the deficit with the influx population.
Surface and Groundwater pollution	- Develop traps, barriers, vegetation planting, terracing and leveling the project site to reduce run-off velocity. - Construction vehicles to be restricted to designated areas to avoid soil compaction within the project site, while any compacted areas will be ripped to reduce run-off. - Develop a site-specific construction environmental management plan (CEMP).	Public and workers health and safety	- Developing standard operating procedures for landfill management. - Enclosing waste on transit. - Implement all necessary measures to ensure health and safety of workers and the general public during operation of the project as stipulated in OSHA 2007. - Ensuring strict access to site to authorized personnel only. - Compacting and applying cover on waste daily to minimize odor and prevent

The proponent, Khalala Hydropower Kenya Limited, is proposing to construct a 28 MW Hydropower plant 19 km from Webuye Town in Sitikho and Khalala Msabale villages, Sitikho Sub-location, Webuye West Sub-County in Bungoma County. The proposed project will comprise of; weir and intake structure, desander/desilting tank and headrace channel, forebay, spillway, penstock pipe, power house, tailrace water discharge, 6No. access roads and a construction workers camp site.

The following are the anticipated impacts and proposed mitigation measures:

Impacts	Proposed Mitigation Measures
Noise and excessive vibration	• Noise events will be scheduled for appropriate times of the day to avoid disturbances. • Construction activities will be limited to only day time hours; • Community awareness of the project activities. • Noise monitoring will be undertaken within the area and at nearby receptors. • Use well maintained and serviced equipment that generates low noise levels. • Noisy equipment will be sited away from sensitive receptors whenever possible.

Impacts	Proposed Mitigation Measures
	• Only monitoring site visits necessary for proper running of the hydropower project will be conducted.
Air quality	• Watering of unpaved access roads and restrict clearance. • All truck loads that enter or leave the site will be covered. • All vehicle movements will be subject to risk assessment. • Community awareness and sensitization about the project. • Vehicles and machinery will be fitted with appropriate exhaust systems. • All emission-producing equipment will be operated only when necessary. • Staff working in dust generating activities e.g. site preparation, excavation, concrete mixing, stone dressing should be provided with personal protective equipment (PPE) the use of PPE shall be enforced. • Strict adherence to Air Quality Regulations, 2014.
Soil and water pollution	• All the waste collected from the headrace system at the time of cleaning will be disposed of appropriately at designated waste disposal sites. • A site operation waste and wastewater management plan in order to minimize environmental damage. • All machinery and equipment be regularly maintained and serviced to avoid leak oils. • Maintenance and servicing of vehicle, machinery and equipment must be carried out in a designated area (protected service bays). • Oil interceptors shall be installed along the drainage channels leading from such areas. • All applicable national laws, regulations and standards for the safe use, handling, storage and disposal of hazardous waste to be followed. • Implementation of erosion and sediment control measures such as silt fences.
Impacts on fauna	• Monitor operation activities at the open headrace.
Floods	• Minimize cut and fill for new development. • Respect natural contours so that new development follows natural contour. • Construct project access roads parallel to the contours of the land to minimize erosion and to reduce the runoff rate more effectively.

Impacts	Proposed Mitigation Measures
	• Adhere to Nairobi County Government Traffic By-Laws and National Traffic Laws. • Designation of vehicle registration and checkpoint inside the premise to avert unnecessary traffic snarl up along adjacent roads.
Water Management	• All waste generated should be sorted and disposed of appropriately. • Toilet facilities for use by the construction personnel will be in place at the construction sites and the work camps. • Anti-vermin safeguards should be issued. • Waste management in line with the waste hierarchy.
