And
National Transport Corporation (Respondent)

On 20th September 2016, the five Disputants reported to the President of the Commission for Conciliation and Mediation the existence of a labour dispute between themselves and the Respondent as per Section 64 (1) of the Employment Relations Act 2008, as amended. As no settlement could be reached, the Commission referred their dispute singularly to the Tribunal for arbitration “in terms of Section 69 (7) of the Employment Relations Act 2008 as per enclosed amended Terms of Reference”.

We vainly sought for enlightenment from the parties as to the reason the Commission used the word ‘amended’ in its referral when such word is not inclusive of that particular section. We stand puzzled by such referral.

The common point in dispute is as follows:-

“Whether my salary as Changehand be reviewed and aligned as to the salary scale of Workshop Supervisor taking into consideration all the duties and responsibilities attached to the post of Changehand at the National Transport Corporation or otherwise”.

The word “Changehand” does not exist in the dictionary and we believe the President of the Commission for Conciliation and Mediation meant it to read “Chargehand” as referred to in the various Statements of Case submitted.

Given the common dispute referred with a common employer, the cases have been consolidated.

Save and except for the different dates the Disputants joined the service of the Respondent and variation in their salaries, the averments in their Statements of Case are common to all. The averments are:-

- The post of Chargehand was introduced in 1989 at the Respondent only when the then Management introduced the post of: -
 - i. Chief Cleaner
 - ii. Chief Gateman
 - iii. Chief Fuel Issuer
- The fact that the post of Chargehand does not exist elsewhere except at the Respondent, the category of Chargehand does not figure in the Public Transport Remuneration Order.
- The proposed salary scale of a Chargehand when same was introduced was not less to that of a Workshop Supervisor. The close relation between the wages of a Chargehand and a Workshop Supervisor has been maintained in 2008 when the Public Transport Remuneration Order was amended as follows : -

Chargehand as per N.T.C

Year 1	Rs 12,438
Year 2	Rs 12,543
Year 3	Rs 12,629
Year 4	Rs 12,722
Year 5	Rs 12,827
Year 6	Rs 12,932
Year 7	Rs 13,018

Workshop Supervisor as per R.O 2008

Year 1	Rs 11,903
Year 2	Rs 12,006
Year 3	Rs 12,110
Year 4	Rs 12,213
Year 5	Rs 12,317
And thereafter

- In 2014, the Public Transport Remuneration Order was again amended. The prescribed wages for 2014 for Workshop Supervisor were again not more than the wages the Chargehand in post were earning as the disputants had over 5 years of service and their wages were over the prescribed top point.
- In July 2015, the second increases as per Public Transport Remuneration Order were again prescribed over and above what the disputants were earning.
- In July 2016, the Wage Structure in the Public Transport Remuneration Order was subjected to a major change in that almost all categories in that Structure were extended to 10 points with attractive wage increases for all.

The Disputants further aver that:-

- In August 2016, the new management at the Respondent decided to downgrade the wages of Chargehand as follows: -
 - (i) Wage scales for all categories were extended to 10 points except for the category of Chargehand.
 - (ii) The starting wage of Chargehand has always been superior to that of a Workshop Supervisor.

In August 2016, Management decided to reduce the starting wage of a Chargehand to Rs 15,210.00 whereas the prescribed wage of a Workshop Supervisor was Rs 19,710 in the Public Transport Remuneration Order 2014.

In 2016, Management advertised a vacancy for the post of Chargehand which is a glaring evidence for the downgrading of the post.

- (iii) In both notice of vacancy of 2008 and 2016, it is very important to note in clause 3 of both notices "CONDITION OF WORK: Governed by N.R.B Regulations".

When in August 2016 almost all employees of the Public Transport Sector Wage Structure were extended to 10 points, Management decided to freeze the Wage Structure of the Chargehand to 7 points.

- (iv) When the post of Chargehand was introduced, the wage scale was up to 7 points when at the same time the Wage Structure for Workshop Supervisor was up to 5 points only. Surprisingly when the Wage Structure of Workshop Supervisor has been extended to 10 points in 2016, the post of Chargehand instead of having a longer Wage Structure has been frozen to 7 points.

- Management has decided to downgrade the Wage Structure for the post of Chargehand by not aligning same in accordance to the prescription of the Public Transport Remuneration Order.
- In doing so, it has not only caused financial prejudice to the disputants, but has also downgraded the post of Chargehand which was at the top in the wage hierarchy in the Maintenance and Workshop Section until 30th July 2016 to the third position in the hierarchy.
- The above decision of Management is having a direct negative impact on the mental well-being of the disputant.

In reply, the Respondent filed a Statement of Case averring that:-

- The five aforesaid cases raise similar legal and factual issues. For this reason, a single statement of case is being filed in respect of all those cases.
- The Disputants were employed as gatemen or cleaners on different dates and later employed as chargehand. They were no longer employed as gatemen or cleaners because the posts of gatemen and cleaners were eventually and gradually outsourced to independent private contractors.
- Although the post of chargehand is not regulated by the Remunerations Regulations, the Respondent has consistently increased the salary payable to the Disputants by an equivalent percentage received by other regulated posts in the same schedule.

- Contrary to what is stated in the Disputants' statements of case, the salary structure of a chargehand and Workshop Supervisor in 2008 were as follows:-

	Chargehand	Workshop Supervisor
Year 1	Rs 8,930/-	Rs 11,903/-
Year 2	Rs 9,015/-	Rs 11,400/-
Year 3	Rs 9,085/-	Rs 11,500/-
Year 4	Rs 9,160/-	Rs 11,600/-
Year 5	Rs 9,245/-	Rs 11,700/-
Year 6	Rs 9,330/-
Year 7	Rs 9,400/- (as per annexure 3 (a & b) and pay slips)

- As can be seen, the salary structure set out in the Disputants' statements of case is incorrect. The chargehand was not earning more than a workshop supervisor in 2008. In fact the chargehand was earning around Rs 3,000/- less than the workshop supervisor in 2008. The factual basis of the Disputants' case is therefore wrong and misleading.
- It is true that in year August 2016, the wage structure of almost all the categories of workshop were extended to 10 points. However, the salary and wage structure of a chargehand has remained at 7 points and there is nothing abnormal or irregular because:
 - there are other categories of workers whose wage structure has remained at 7 points, such as lorry helper, data input clerk, tyreman supervisor (5 points);

- the Respondent is not compelled to apply a new wage structure of 10 points on the one recommended by the National Remuneration Board and promulgated in the Remuneration order 2016;
- there is a difference between the scheme of duties of a chargehand and that of a workshop supervisor; the latter must always keep himself up to date with regard to new buses mechanical/macroelectronic systems and new technology, whilst the former does not have to. Furthermore, the responsibility of workshop supervisors is much heavier than that of chargehand : he must supervise the engine, the brakes and the equipment for the safety of passengers. The workshop supervisor is in charge of the workshop and leads a team of tradesmen (mechanic, electrician, coachbuilder, painter, blacksmith, welder); Supervises the efficient maintenance and repairs of vehicles and components; Ensures that workers under his responsibility work in a safe environment and comply with safety regulations; and is responsible for training workers on the job, job costing and keeping of records. On the other hand, a chargehand reports to the Regional Manager/STMO for cleaning and security services, receipt and issue of fuel, disposing of waste and scrap metal. He has no supervisory function.
- The workshop employees are skilled workers with IVTB NTC3 qualifications whilst the Disputants were appointed without such qualifications.
- It is false to say that in August 2016, the starting wage of a chargehand was reduced to Rs 15,210/-. In fact, the salary has always been increased since 2008.

- Finally, the Union representative of Respondent's workers, including chargehand, made representations to the National Remuneration Board in respect of their demands. However, the National Remuneration Board did not deem it fit and necessary to include chargehand in the National Remuneration Board report as the grade of chargehand exists only at the Respondent.

Disputant No.5, Mr Toolsy Bhobooty, who was called first, stated that the chargehand is responsible to liaise directly with the Senior Technical and Mechanical Engineer and the warehouse Manager. The chargehand supervisors do all the work done by cleaners, watchmen and gatemen as well as fuel attendant. Fuel attendants take orders and deliveries and keep accounts. They are also responsible for the cleanliness of the warehouse. Eventually, the post of Chief gateman, Chief fuel attendant and Cleaner Supervisor were merged into the post of Chargehand. The witness concedes that the post of Chargehand has never been included in any Remuneration Order. A proposal was made to a high powered committee for readjustment of salaries given that the Chargehand is not included in any Remuneration Order. Nothing was implemented to that effect. While Workshop Supervisors who were on a 5 year scale were leveled to 10 years, Chargehands remained at point 7. The witness added that in spite of stating in the advertised post that the conditions of work would be governed by the National Remuneration Board Regulations, there has actually been no change in their conditions of work save and except for a salary review. Given that a Chargehand does the same work as a Workshop Supervisor, he claims that the conditions of work ought to be the same.

Mr Veejaye Callychurn (Disputant No. 1), deponed to the effect that his work as Chargehand is as important as that of a Workshop Supervisor.

Mr Anilrao Ittoo (Disputant No. 2), added that the work of a Chargehand carries a huge responsibility and that includes cleaning and security services.

Mr Parmessur Haulkhory (Disputant No.3) pointed out that a Chargehand deserves better considerations. According to him, in 2008 Management proposed to increase the salary of Chargehands to a higher level than that of Workshop Supervisors. There has been no implementation of the proposal.

Disputant No.4, Mr Sureshsing Kimcurran, stated that the post of Chargehand exists only at the Respondent and carries responsibilities that are equal to a Workshop Supervisor.

The Respondent's representative, Mr Satyam Bolah, Industrial Relations Officer, testified to the effect that a Chargehand has always earned less than a Workshop Supervisor and its post is not listed in any remuneration order given that such post exists only at Respondent's Company. The witness is aware that Chargehands had been making various representations to the National Remuneration Board. The Respondent had no objection to such course. Currently, Chargehands remain at 7 points. Workshop employees, as opposed to Chargehands require an NTC 3 qualification issued by the Industrial and Vocational Training Board and Workshop Supervisors have a greater responsibility than that of a Chargehand. The Supervisor is in charge of a team that attends to breakdown of vehicles and provides spare parts for damaged ones. Therefore, Workshop Supervisors bear the responsibility if anything goes wrong regarding the good running of the buses. They also look into health and safety and housekeeping issues. The witness added that as regard the Chargehands, they have over the years received pay increases. A newcomer Chargehand will now earn more than Rs 15,000 as starting salary. The witness does not agree to the contents of Annex 1 and the figures put in by the Disputants showing that Chargehands were earning more than a Workshop Supervisor in 2008.

The facts of this case speak for themselves. There is really no evidence supporting the contention that a close relation between the wages of a Chargehand and a Workshop Supervisor has been maintained in 2008. Indeed, the document (Annex 1) put in by the Disputants appears most misleading as its contents have never been recommended or approved or even promulgated. It is unacceptable that the Disputants could invite the Tribunal to surmise that Chargehands and Workshop Supervisors had that "close relation" regarding their respective wages. Everything points towards showing that the contents of the document were actually mere proposals which the Disputants wanted to bring forward at some point in time. We note from the evidence adduced that there has always been a difference between the Chargehand's salary and that of a Workshop Supervisor and that the Chargehand has always been earning some Rs 2 to 3,000 less than a Workshop Supervisor and the basis upon which the Disputants are now trying to ground their case is to our mind erroneous.

There is also the contention that the Disputants' work is to be of high importance. There is no doubt that the work of every single employee at the Respondent is to be considered important as each has duties and responsibilities to carry out. When we look at the hierarchy of posts in the relevant remuneration order, we find that the post of Workshop Supervisor to be at the top and he is the one who earns more and undoubtedly because his job is more important than that of the welder, the painter and the other 15 categories of workers which are described in the schedule. We should bear in mind that those who now work as Mechanics are required to furnish a certificate from the Industrial and Vocational Training Board (currently Mauritius Institute of Training and Development) while Chargehands are not required to do so and yet both Mechanics and Chargehands earn more or less the same salary.

Finally, we have not been convinced by the testimonies of the Disputants that they are doing similar type of work to that of the Workshop Supervisor that would justify our intervention to accede to their demand.

The five consolidated disputes are accordingly set aside.

In the matter of:-

Mr Iswarduth Guiness (Disputant)

And

Central Water Authority (Respondent)

i.p.o: 1. Ministry of Energy and Public Utilities

2. Ministry of Civil Service and Administrative Reforms

(Co-Respondents)

The present matter has been referred to the Tribunal by the Commission for Conciliation and Mediation (hereinafter referred to as "the CCM") under Section 69(7) of the Employment Relations Act (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"). The Disputant, Respondent and Co-Respondent No 2 were assisted by counsel whereas Co-

Respondent No 1 was not assisted by counsel. The amended terms of reference of the dispute read as follows:

"Whether the date of implementation of the post of Office Management Assistant, as per Recommendation EOAC 3 (15A) of Errors, Omissions and Anomalies Committee Report 2013 should be 01.07.2013."

Respondent had raised two points in limine and the Tribunal after hearing arguments delivered a ruling setting aside the points taken. Mr Imrith, the President of the Federation of Public Sector and Other Unions (FPSOU), deponed before the Tribunal and he stated that the Pay Research Bureau (PRB) Report 2013 was released on or about October 2012 and implemented as from January 2013. He stated that the Errors, Omissions and Anomalies Committee Report 2013 (EOAC Report 2013) forms an integral part of the main report and that when one accepts the main report by signing the option form, this will include the anomalies report that follow. He referred to the streamlining of procedures and consolidation of schemes of service and averred that there should be a gradual reduction in the processing time for the prescription of schemes of service from six to four months. This would be in line with a recommendation of the PRB Report 2013. Mr Imrith also stated that when the effective dates for the implementation of certain recommendations are not complied with, there are negotiations whereby some form of compensation is granted for the prejudice suffered by the workers. He referred to a previous case involving the Rodrigues Regional Assembly where workers who suffered a similar 'prejudice' were given two increments instead of one increment.

In cross-examination, Mr Imrith agreed that when a new grade is created, the worker must accept to join the new grade. In this case, he added that the option did not tally with the relevant recommendation and that Disputant's acceptance was conditional to Disputant having an option to join as from July 2013. He stated that in the civil service, the Office Management Assistants did not wait for the prescription of the scheme of service since there was a restyling of the post.

Disputant then deponed and he solemnly affirmed to the truthfulness of the contents of his statement of case. He stated that he satisfied the conditions mentioned in Recommendation EOAC 3 (15A) of the EOAC Report 2013. He stressed on the fact that the recommendation constituted a binding contract between his employer and himself and that he had to be given the option to join the grade of Office Management Assistant on 1 July 2013. He also suggested that there was an agreement between the relevant trade union and management for the effective date to be 1 July 2013.

Disputant suggested that the Respondent referred the matter to Co-Respondent No 1 (the parent Ministry) which would have taken much time to seek advice from Co-

Respondent No 2. He maintained that he had accepted the post of Office Management Assistant (by way of a letter, the copy of which was at Annex 7 to his statement of case). He argued that if he had instead accepted the date mentioned as per Annex D to the Reply of Respondent to his Statement of Case, this would have been irrevocable and he would then have had no ground at all for disputing the date of implementation. Disputant stated that he cannot be prejudiced for the delay taken to prescribe the scheme of service. He also suggested that there was a previous "same" case where an additional increment was paid for the delay to implement a recommendation.

In cross-examination, he confirmed that he is still an Executive Officer. He agreed that he had to exercise the option to join the grade of Office Management Assistant but he maintained that the effective date should have been 1 July 2013. He agreed that it was only in August 2015 that the Board of the Respondent approved the post of Office Management Assistant.

Mrs Surfraz deponed on behalf of the Respondent and she solemnly affirmed that the contents of the Reply of Respondent to the Statement of Case of Disputant are true. She stated that the said post of Office Management Assistant did not exist at the Respondent and there was no scheme of service for that post. The scheme of service for the post was finalized on 6 May 2014 in the civil service. Respondent obtained a copy of the scheme of service and from then on, the Respondent embarked on a process which she described to prescribe its own scheme of service for the grade of Office Management Assistant. She stated that all other officers concerned exercised the option except for Disputant.

In cross-examination, Mrs Surfraz agreed that as per Recommendation 15A of the EOAC Report 2013, the employer must give the qualified officer the option to join the new grade of Office Management Assistant on 1 July 2013. This was not done in this particular case. She was then cross-examined on the time taken for the different steps leading to the prescription of a scheme of service. She averred that it was not possible for the Respondent to start drafting his scheme of service first and then later align same with that of Co-Respondent No 2. She stated amongst others that the scheme remained at the parent Ministry for some eight months and that she would not be able to say what they did there. She stated that they did send reminders and that at the level of the Respondent, they tried to act as promptly as possible.

The representative of Co-Respondent No 1 chose not to adduce evidence before the Tribunal.

Mr Ramsooroo, Assistant Manager, Human Resources at Co-Respondent No 2 then deponed on behalf of Co-Respondent No 2 and he stated that Co-Respondent No 1 sought an advice as to whether Disputant could be compensated by the provision of two increments. Co-Respondent No 2 then advised that the question of compensation by way of two increments did not arise since the scheme of service for the post at the Respondent was prescribed in 27 August 2015.

In cross-examination, Mr Ramsoorooop stated that the Respondent has to align the scheme of service with that of the civil service and that it is the board of Respondent which has to approve the scheme of service. He acknowledged the recommendation of the PRB to review the process for the prescription of schemes of service so that the period for prescription is reduced to four months. He however suggested that in practice and in view of the large number of schemes of service which may be involved following a PRB report, this is almost impossible. He went on to say that there is flexibility. He was not aware of exchanges between Respondent and Co-Respondent No 1. Co-Respondent No 2 was involved in the case when Co-Respondent No 2 was asked if two increments could be paid. He maintained that a post exists as from the date of prescription of that post.

The Tribunal has examined all the evidence on record including the submissions of counsel. The relevant recommendation EOAC 3 (15A) of the EOAC Report 2013 is the recommendation which is at the root of the dispute between the parties. It reads as follows:

15A The Committee further recommends that:

(a) Higher Executive Officers and Executive Officers in post as at 31 December 2012 be given the option to join the new grade of Office Management Assistant on 1 July 2013 and on joining be granted one additional increment subject to the top salary of the new grade; and

(b) the grades of Higher Executive Officer and Executive Officer be made evanescent.

The bone of contention is that the recommendation mentions specifically that the option to join the new grade of Office Management Assistant should be given to the relevant qualified officers on 1 July 2013. This date is in fact not denied at all before us and even Mrs Surfraz agreed that the option had to be given on that date and that this was not done. However, a careful reading of the terms of reference before us reveals that the dispute as referred to us does not correspond to the matter in dispute before us. Indeed, the Tribunal is, from the evidence adduced, being asked whether Disputant should be given the option to join the grade of Office Management Assistant on 1 July 2013 whereas as per the terms of reference, the Tribunal is to enquire whether the date of implementation of the post of Office Management Assistant should be 1 July 2013. The date of implementation of a post may be different from the date an option has to be given to a particular grade of employees to join the said post, and other recommendations may come into play. We may, for instance, refer to Recommendation EOAC 1 in the same EOAC Report 2013 (Vol 2 Part II – Parastatal & Other Statutory Bodies and the Private Secondary Schools) which reads as follows:

Recommendation EOAC 1

12. The Committee, therefore, recommends the creation of the grades of Management Support Officer and Office Management Assistant on the establishment of all parastatal organisations on a needs basis and depending on operational requirements only.

Recommendation EOAC 3 (15A) (above) however does not refer to “the date of implementation of the post of Office Management Assistant” but applies only and restrictively (underlining is ours) to specific grades of “qualified” employees. The dispute which the Disputant has tried to canvass before us does not tally with the terms of reference.

The Tribunal will refer to the often quoted case of S. Baccus & Ors vs. The Permanent Arbitration 1986 MR 272 where the Supreme Court stated the following in relation to the jurisdiction of the Permanent Arbitration Tribunal (renamed under the Act as the Employment Relations Tribunal) under the then (and now repealed) Industrial Relations Act:

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 85(1)(b) relied upon by learned Counsel for the respondent one must in order to decide whether the order complained of was ultra petita or not look at the terms of reference of the dispute.

Proceedings before the Permanent Arbitration Tribunal in respect of a dispute voluntarily referred to the Tribunal under section 78 of the Industrial Relations Act do not differ materially from proceedings before a Tribunal set up under the provisions of the Code de Procédure Civile and the rules concerning the “compétence” of the Tribunal must be the same.

An award of the Permanent Arbitration Tribunal which goes outside the terms of reference will be ultra petita and may be quashed just as any other award.

The Tribunal will not proceed to determine the “date of implementation of the post of Office Management Assistant” when Disputant all along referred to the date the option under Recommendation EOAC 3 (15A) of the EOAC Report 2013 had to be given. This could at the same time provide substance to the first point in limine taken by the Respondent to the effect that the Disputant has no locus standi “to pray for any order from the Tribunal as per the aforesaid Terms of Reference”. The Tribunal ruled in its earlier ruling that the first point in limine was at best premature and it was set aside.

Also, it is clear that the Tribunal will go outside the terms of reference if it were to pronounce itself on any issue pertaining to compensation or additional increment (if applicable).

The Tribunal will thus merely highlight what is not challenged, that is, that the option under Recommendation EOAC 3 (15A) of the EOAC Report 2013 had to be given to the qualified officers on 1 July 2013. In the case of Disputant, this was not done. The date on which the scheme of service for the post of Office Management Assistant has been approved at the Respondent, that is, 27 August 2015, is also admitted. Evidence has been adduced to try to explain the delay in the prescription of the relevant scheme of service. At the same time, we have a disputant who, no doubt, could legitimately rely on the recommendations of the EOAC Report 2013. The Tribunal will draw the attention of all parties to the recommendations of the PRB Report 2013 in relation to the need to reduce the time taken for the prescription of schemes of service. The Tribunal is also confident that with effective communication and consultation among all relevant parties including trade unions, just solutions which are acceptable to all parties may yet be found in a spirit to maintain and reinforce good employment relations.

For all the reasons given above, the dispute is otherwise set aside.

Mrs Sonia CHOWREEMOOTOO

Disputant

and

Mauritius Mental Health Association

Respondent

The present matter has been referred to the Tribunal by the Commission for Conciliation and Mediation ("CCM") pursuant to section 69 (7) of the Employment Relations Act. The Terms of Reference of the dispute read as follows:

Whether the job title of Sonia Chowreemootoo be renamed as Daycare Supervisor.

The Disputant was assisted by Mr Reeaz Chuttoo, Industrial Relations Advisor. Whereas the Respondent was assisted by its representative and Manager Mrs Naddy Coowar. The Disputant and the Respondent have each respectively submitted a Statement of Case in the matter.

THE DISPUTANT'S STATEMENT OF CASE

It has been averred that the Disputant has been employed as Carer at the Mauritius Mental Health Institute (the "MMHA") as from 1 July 1996. In August 2014, she was promoted to Daycare Supervisor. In January 2016, the MMHA unilaterally decided to change her job title from Daycare Supervisor to Carer justifying that she was not qualified for the job of Daycare Supervisor. However, her scheme of duties remained same as that of Daycare Supervisor. In August 2016, the matter was referred to Rose Hill Labour Office but no settlement was reached between the parties. The matter was then referred to the CCM as an individual trade dispute on 22 September 2017. Before the CCM, the MMHA refused to accede to her request and proposed her the post of Assistant Teacher in the Daycare Centre, which she did not accept. The Disputant avers that she is performing the job and responsibilities of Daycare Supervisor and there is no justification for her job title not to be changed to that of Daycare Supervisor.

THE RESPONDENT'S STATEMENT OF CASE

It has been averred that the Disputant was a Carer at the Daycare Centre in 2008 when Mrs P. Atchia, now Acting President of the MMHA, was invited to look into the working of the Centre. It was decided to offer the Disputant "additional responsibility for the running of the Daycare section" with a small increase in salary. Since 2008, her salary has risen yearly though she has not upgraded her qualifications.

It has also been averred that prior to June 2014, the job title was not disclosed in the employees' payslip. In June 2014, the MMHA started to record the job title which was wrongly entered, by Ms Helene de Cazanove, as Supervisor on the Disputant's payslip. It was only in July 2015 that it was noted that Disputant has mistakenly been referred to as Supervisor and remedial steps were taken to rectify this mistake. The Disputant was informed of the error, which she duly accepted. The Disputant did not lodge any grievance complaint to either the Manager of the Centre or Mrs Atchia. In August 2016, a summons was issued for a representative of the MMHA to present at the Rose Hill Labour Office.

The Disputant has recently been offered the post of Assistant Teacher. The Disputant does not appear to have any formal qualifications which will justify awarding her the post or title of Supervisor. Mrs Atchia is prepared to consider her for this post if she could upgrade herself in some way. Annexed to the Respondent's Statement of Case is a donation list (Annex 1) and a contract of employment (Annex 2).

THE EVIDENCE OF WITNESSES

The Disputant, Mrs Sonia Chowreemootoo, was called to adduce evidence. She works at the MMHA since 1996 having joined as a Leather Craft Teacher. She is before the Tribunal as she works in the Daycare Centre as Supervisor, post which she obtained in 2014, and management has removed her title labelling her as Carer. She explained that she was called to replace Sister Lizzy as Supervisor by Mrs Atchia and Miss de Cazanove for which she received an allowance of Rs 500 and would receive another Rs 500 after 3 or 6 months. The nature of her work changed as she prepares the weekly report, the money report, time table and activities for the adults aged above 20 years in the Daycare Centre. She refused the post of Assistant Teacher as this post does not exist in the Daycare Centre. Her title of Supervisor was changed to Carer in 2016, however her work has remained same as that of Supervisor. She maintains that she should regain her title of Daycare Supervisor. She also related that she sees the Manager asking for what work to do and also teaches dancing and tenders to activities without any gratification.

Upon questions from the representative of the Respondent, Mrs Chowreemootoo notably stated that since 2014, her title was Supervisor on her payslip. She produced a table of employees titled "MMHA 2014 GOVT. INCREMENT" together with an official payslip (Documents A and A₁). She received no official letter naming her as Supervisor, she was simply called by Mrs Atchia and Miss Helene de Cazanove telling her what activities to do in the Daycare Centre. She explained what goes on in the Daycare Centre during the day. She works in the Daycare Centre as Supervisor but she also performs activities at the School. She also stated that she is forged for the job and has 20 years' experience.

Following questions from the Tribunal, Mrs Chowreemootoo identified her contract of employment as Annex 2 to the Respondent's Statement of Case. She received same in 2012 and it shows her job title to be Care Giver, which is more associated with the work she had to do. In 2012, at the time of the contract dated 20 April 2012, she was performing activities as Supervisor in the Daycare Centre but her title was Carer. She also explained that she reports to her Manager on the work she has done and she is told what activities to do and also proposes work. When there is a problem in the Daycare Centre, the Carers come to her and she tries to deal with the problem and if she can't, she goes to the Manager Mrs Coowar.

Miss Helene de Cazanove, ex-Education Director at the MMHA, was called as a witness on behalf of the Disputant. She notably stated that Sister Lizzy worked in the Daycare Centre as Supervisor and then left to join her mission in Bangalore, India; as Mrs Chowreemootoo was her right hand person, it was natural that she would take the position of Sister Lizzy. She prepared the timetable and gave the activities, educational programmes and living skills programmes to Sonia (Chowreemootoo), who assured that the staff puts all in place. She recognised Sonia's authority over the staff as Supervisor and the staff acknowledged Sonia's authority as Supervisor. She was the Education Director at the MMHA. In response to the fact that it is stated that the title of Supervisor was wrongly given to Mrs Chowreemootoo in the Respondent's Statement of Case, she stated that she cannot understand how a title can be given by error when the person is doing the work of Supervisor. She was administering the school and could see that Sonia was doing her work of Supervisor. She no longer works at the MMHA since 16 July 2016.

Miss de Cazanove was questioned by the representative of the MMHA. She notably stated that there has never been any letter stating that Sonia had the title of Supervisor as there was no letter stating that one has been appointed to a post at the time. According to her, Sister Lizzy was Supervisor of the Daycare Centre. The title of Sonia was not changed, she remained Supervisor in the Daycare Centre. She recognised that in the Daycare Centre, there has always been a post of Supervisor.

Mrs Nicole Beeharee, Carer, was called to depose. She has worked 24 years at the MMHA as Carer in the Daycare Centre. Mrs Chowreemootoo is the Supervisor; she goes to see the Manager for work and comes to tell them what to do. Mrs Chowreemootoo supervises them. Under cross-examination, the witness notably stated that Sonia goes to see the Manager every morning and gives them their work and activities. Each Carer has her own responsibility. The timetable is adhered to every day. They come to work and Sonia tells them what to do.

Mrs Sahib Bibi Sk Heerah was also called to depose. She works since 17 years at the MMHA as a Carer in the Daycare Centre with Sonia as her Supervisor. Sonia gives them orders on what to do and before they do something, they must tell her. They do several activities. She was not cross-examined by the representative of the MMHA.

The representative of the MMHA did not adduce any evidence nor call any witnesses. Mrs Coowar made a statement to the Tribunal notably stating that the position of Supervisor does not exist at the MMHA. The Disputant is the only person at the MMHA who supports her. The Disputant was put on the list of the Ministry of Education to protect her, for her security and to look after her best interests. There has never been any letter and the MMHA needs proof. The Disputant is very dedicated towards the children. If the Disputant is insisting on the title of Supervisor, that is the call of the Tribunal as she cannot justify it. Being offered the post of Assistant Teacher does not mean that the Disputant will be out of the Daycare Centre, which is not separate from the MMHA; the MMHA is one. They have created boundaries within themselves and she is trying to break those boundaries. She is trying to make the MMHA something recognisable, a jewel in Mauritius. They should be fighting for funds and not things like this. This is not for the benefit of the children.

THE MERITS OF THE DISPUTE

The Tribunal, in the present matter, is being asked to enquire into whether the job title of the Disputant Mrs Sonia Chowreemootoo should be renamed to Daycare Supervisor.

The Disputant has been working at the MMHA since 1996 having joined as a Leather Craft Teacher. According to her, in 2014, she was promoted to Supervisor in the Daycare Centre by the Acting President of the MMHA Mrs P. Atchia together with the then Education Director Miss H. de Cazanove. The duties she performed changed accordingly. However, her title of Supervisor was changed to that of Carer in 2016, although her work has remained the same as Supervisor. The Disputant is therefore asking for her job title to be renamed as Daycare Supervisor.

The Disputant, as may be noted from her evidence, has maintained that she is the Daycare Supervisor and has been performing as such in the Daycare Centre at the MMHA. Despite, that there is no letter to demonstrate that she was appointed as Daycare Supervisor at the MMHA, the Disputant has explained that she was called by Mrs Atchia and Miss de Cazanove telling her what activities to do in the Daycare Centre. Her version on this issue is supported by Miss de Cazanove, who also confirmed that there was no letter appointing the Disputant as Daycare Supervisor.

The Disputant has also produced two documents in support of her contention to be renamed as Daycare Supervisor. The first is a table of employees headed "MMHA 2014 GOVT. INCREMENT" which shows her "Current Job Title" to be "Supervisor Daycare" on the list. The second document produced is a payslip, bearing the seal of the MMHA, for the period May 2015 which shows that her title was "Daycare Supervisor".

The Disputant was also shown a contract of employment, as annexed to the Respondent's Statement of Case. The aforesaid contract, which is dated 20 April 2012, shows that she is being employed as Care Giver as from 1 May 2012. It is also mentioned in handwriting "special responsibility for the running of the Daycare Centre". It must be noted that the contract dates to before her promotion to the post of Daycare Supervisor in 2014.

The evidence of Miss Helene de Cazanove has also been supportive of the Disputant's cause. The witness clearly explained in what circumstances the Disputant came to be made Supervisor at the MMHA with the departure of Sister Lizzy, the former Supervisor. In the mind of the witness, there is no doubt that the Disputant is the Daycare Supervisor and she confirmed that the Disputant was working as same while she was administering the MMHA. Miss de Cazanove has even denied that the Disputant was wrongly given the title of Supervisor.

Moreover, the evidence adduced by Miss de Cazanove has contradicted the averment of the Respondent in its Statement of Case to the effect that she wrongly entered the job title of Supervisor on the Disputant's payslip. It may also be noted that no questions were directly put to her by the representative of the MMHA on this issue.

The evidence of the two Carers called on behalf of the Disputant cannot be left unnoticed. Both have stated that the Disputant is their Supervisor and they explained the working custom at the Daycare Centre of the MMHA as well as the role of the Disputant as their Supervisor.

The Respondent on the other hand has chosen not to adduce any evidence in relation to the dispute, with its representative opting to make a statement before the Tribunal. It may be noted from the statement that Mrs Coowar holds the Disputant in high regard and recognises the support and effort she provides in the running of the MMHA. It would also be pertinent to note that the representative chose not to call any witness in support of its case.

The Tribunal, having duly considered the evidence on record, has found that the Disputant was called upon to become the Supervisor of the Daycare Centre in 2014 and as the title was removed from her in 2016, she has brought the present dispute against the MMHA. The Disputant has worked and is still working as Daycare Supervisor at the MMHA as per her own unshaken evidence as well as that of Miss de Cazanove and the other witnesses.

Although, the representative of the MMHA has stated that the position of Supervisor does not exist at the MMHA, no sworn evidence has been adduced to this effect nor has this been averred in the Respondent's Statement of Case. In fact, it has been averred in the Respondent's Statement of Case that the Acting President of the MMHA would be prepared to consider Disputant for the post of Supervisor if she would upgrade herself in some way. It must also be noted that the job title of "Daycare Supervisor" has been clearly mentioned in the two documents produced by the Disputant. The Tribunal can only therefore find that the job title of the Disputant be renamed as Daycare Supervisor in accordance with the Terms of Reference of the dispute.

The Tribunal therefore awards accordingly.
