No airmail service for parcels to South Africa.

Namibia Post introduced an overnight road transport distribution system to South Africa which means that no letters or parcels are conveyed via air transport to South Africa anymore. This was necessitated to eliminate mail violation as far as possible and to decrease transit times - the overnight road service is quicker than next day passenger airplane service. With our new transport system the mail stays only in possession of the two Postal Administrations.

International telephone calls (automatic exchanges) 45c per unit.
