Prohibition of Importation.

2. This Order may be cited as the Criminal Code (Prohibited Importations) Order, 1965, and shall come into force on the 16th day of February, 1965.

Citation and commencement.

MADE at Lagos this 16th day of February, 1965.

ABUBAKAR TAFAWA BALEWA,
Prime Minister of the Federal Republic of Nigeria

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Order has effect of prohibiting the importation into Nigeria of the magazine entitled "Peking Review".

L.N. 28 of 1965

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE MANAGEMENT ACT 1958

(No. 55 of 1958)

Open General Export Licence (Goods and Produce of Nigerian Origin) No. 2 of 1960 (Amendment)
Notice, 1965

Commencement : 18th February, 1965

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 4 of Export Prohibition Order, 1959, the Export Licensing Authority hereby gives the following Notice—

1. This notice may be cited as the Open General Export Licence (Goods and Produce of Nigerian Origin) No. 2 of 1960 (Amendment) Notice, 1965 and shall apply throughout the Federation.

Citation and application.

2. The Schedule to the Open General Export Licence (Goods and Produce of Nigerian Origin) No. 2 of 1960 is hereby amended by the deletion of item 4 of the Schedule and the insertion therefor of the following :

Export Group	List No. Item
"4. Goods made wholly or partly of imported components (excluding imported containers or containers manufactured wholly or partly of imported materials used for the purpose of conveying goods made in Nigeria)".

MADE at Lagos this 11th February, 1965.

J. B. ELUMEZE,
Export Licensing Authority,
Federal Ministry of Commerce and Industry

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The effect of this amendment Notice is that it is not now necessary for exporters to obtain specific export licences for goods manufactured in Nigeria merely because they are packed in imported containers or containers manufactured wholly or partly of imported materials.
