POLICE ACT (CAP. 154)

The Special Constabulary Regulations 1966

Commencement: 7th March 1966

In exercise of the powers conferred on the Federal Executive Council by section 47 of the Police Act and of all other powers enabling that Council in that behalf, the Federal Executive Council hereby, on the recommendations of the Nigeria Police Council and the Police Service Commission, makes the following regulations:-

Introductory

Citation. extent and commencement.

- 1.-(1) These regulations may be cited as the Special Constabulary Regulations 1966 and shall apply throughout the Federation.
 - (2) These regulations shall come into force on 7th March 1966.

Interpretation.

2.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them, that is to sav-

1966 No. 7.

- "competent authority" has the same meaning as in the Special Constables Decree;
 - "the Decree" means the Special Constables Decree 1966:
- "full time duty", in respect of any one period of 24 hours, means the performance of duty as a special constable for a total period of 4 hours;
- "police area", "police province" and "police division" have the same meaning as in the Decree:

"regular police officer" means a police officer who is neither a special constable nor a supernumerary police officer;

- "Standing Orders" means standing orders made under section 48 of the Police Act;
 - "territory" means a Region or the Federal territory.
- (2) Subject to the foregoing paragraph, expressions used in these regulations have the same meaning as they have in the Police Act.

Qualification for appointment

3. No person shall be appointed as a special constable unless he is a Only Commonwealth citizen, whether by virtue of his citizenship of Nigeria or of any other country.

Cap. 154.

Commonwealth citizens to he appointed.

Duties

4. With the approval of the Commissioner of Police for the territory, the superior police officer in charge of a police province or police division, if satisfied as regards any particular situation or occasion that it is necessary to do so for the maintenance of public order, may direct that any or all of the special constables appointed under section 2 of the Decree in respect of the province or police division under his command shall perform full time duty for such period as he may direct.

Full time duties.

5.—(1) Every special constable shall, if required to do so and not prevented by circumstances beyond his control, perform part time duty at least twice every month.

Part time duties.

(2) In this regulation "part time duty", in respect of any one period of 24 hours, means the performance of duty as a special constable for a total of not less than 2 hours and not more than 4 hours.

Precedence

6. A regular police officer shall, for police purposes, have precedence over a special constable of equivalent rank.

Precedence of regular police officers over special constables.

Operational over regular police

officers to be exercised

- 7.—(1) Save as provided in paragraph (2) below, no special constable shall exercise disciplinary control or operational direction over any regular direction
- (2) On specific occasions when it is considered necessary or expedient to do so, authority to exercise operational direction over regular police officers

by special constables in certain Cases

(a) by a commissioner of police to a special constable being a superior police officer; or

(b) by a chief superintendent being a regular police officer to a special constable being an inspector or non-commissioned officer;

Provided that such operational direction shall be exercised by a special constable by virtue of this paragraph only over regular police officers junior in police rank to himself.

Uniform and Equipment "

8. Special constables shall wear uniforms identical with those worn by regular police officers of equivalent rank except that, in the case of special constables, the colour green shall be adopted for the accessories, that is to say, for hose tops, the backing of the cap badge, badges of rank and Force

Green to be distinguishing ' colour of uniform and accessories.

9. The scale of issue of uniform and equipment shall be as laid down in Standing Orders.

Scale of issue of uniform.

10.-(1) A special constable shall not be issued with any uniform or equipment until he has completed a period of two months' satisfactory service but this requirement may be waived in any particular case by a

Special constables not to be issued with uniform until completion of two months' service.

(2) Where no uniform is issued to a newly appointed special constable he shall instead be issued with an arm-band of green cloth having the words "Special Constable" inscribed thereon in white and the arm-band so issued shall be worn on the left arm during duty or instructional periods.

(3) In this regulation and in regulation 12 and 13 below, the expression "equipment" includes an arm-band.

Uniform not to be worn except on duty or during training. 11. No article of special constable's uniform or equipment shall be worn by any special constable except when performing duty or undergoing instruction.

Replacement of articles of uniform and equipment. 12. An article of uniform or equipment issued to a special constable shall not be replaced free of charge unless it has become unfit for service as a result of damage in the course of duty, fair wear and tear or unavoidable accident.

Surcharges

Recovery of surcharges.

13. Where a special constable has been adjudged responsible for the loss of or damage to any government property, any sum adjudged to be paid in respect of the lost or damaged government property may be recovered in a summary manner before a magistrate on the complaint of a superior police officer.

(b) Foot Drill;

(c) Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure and Evidence;

(d) Practical Police-work;

(ε) Musketry and Revolver Training;

(f) Police Discipline;

(2) First Aid.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 7 of the Decree (which relate to the length of time that may be spent on instruction courses) every special constable shall attend courses of instruction in the prescribed syllabus of training, on such days and at such times as may be ordered by his superior officer.

Change of place of residence etc.

Change of place of residence or employment etc.

- 15.—(1) Any special constable appointed under section 2 of the Act who changes his place of residence or of employment to another place not within the boundaries of the police area in respect of which he is appointed shall forthwith give notice of the fact to his superior officer; and, whether or not such notice is given by him, his appointment shall as soon as possible be determined by the competent authority.
- (2) It is hereby declared that a special constable above the rank of constable who is reappointed in respect of a different police area has no claim to be reappointed in the particular rank held by him in his previous appointment.
- (3) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this regulation, where a special constable whose appointment is determined in accordance with paragraph (1) of this regulation is reappointed in respect of a different police area, his period of service shall be deemed to be continuous if his application for reappointment in that police area is made not later than two months after the date of the determination of his previous appointment.

Allowances

16. Any special constable called upon to perform full time duty shall receive as a compensatory allowance for any resulting temporary loss of earnings:

Allowance for temporary loss of earnings.

- (a) in respect of any period of full time duty of more than six consecutive days duration, pay at such rate as is at the time applicable to a regular police officer of equivalent rank and years of service in the rank held;
- (b) in respect of any period of full time duty of six consecutive days duration or less, the sum of fifteen shillings in respect of each 24 hour period during which such duty is performed.
- 17. Every special constable shall receive as reimbursement for out of pocket expenses the sum of fifteen shillings in respect of each month in which he has made satisfactory attendance at courses of instruction.

Out of pocket expenses during training.
