Decree No. 52

[13th July 1966]

Commencement.

WHEREAS I, MAJOR-GENERAL JOHNSON THOMAS UMUNAKWE AGUIYI-IRONSÍ, Head of the National Military Government, Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces, am satisfied that the arrest and the detention of the persons specified in the Schedule hereto as at the date of commencement hereof are in the interest of the security of Nigeria and it is expedient to make this Decree accordingly:

NOW THEREFORE THE NATIONAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT hereby decrees that—

Power to detain persons.

1. The persons so specified shall be detained for a period not exceeding six months from the date of the commencement of this Decree in such place or places as the Head of the National Military Government may from time to time direct either generally or specifically, and the persons so detained shall be liable to be removed to and be detained there under conditions as to confinement including the like conditions as to maintenance, discipline and punishment for breaches of discipline, as may from time to time be imposed in respect of persons duly convicted of an offence by a court of law.

Application of certain provisions of the State Security (Detention of persons) Decree 1966, Decree No. 3.

2. The provisions of sections 2 to 6 of the State Security (Detention of Persons) Decree 1966 (which inter alia provide for representations by persons detained to tribunals specially constituted and for the suspension of certain provisions of the Constitution of the Republic) shall apply to this Decree as they apply to the aforesaid Decree of 1966, and they shall be construed accordingly.

Citation and Application.

3. This Decree may be cited as the State Security (Detention) of Persons (No. 10) Decree 1966, and shall be deemed to have come into operation on the 13th July 1966.
