

ROBBERY (SPECIAL PROVISIONS) EDICT 1968

Edict No. 1

[20th April 1968]

Commencement.

THE MILITARY GOVERNOR OF LAGOS STATE hereby makes this Edict as follows :—

1. This Edict may be cited as the Robbery (Special Provisions) Edict, 1968.

Interpretation.

2.—(1) In this Edict—

“armed patrol” means any patrol comprising either both armed members of the Nigeria Police Force and armed members of the Nigerian Army or only armed members of the Nigeria Police Force, according as may be directed by the Military Governor for the purposes of patrol duties in respect of particular areas of the State ;

“assault” means striking, touching, moving or otherwise applying force, including heat, light, electrical force, gas, odour, or any other substance or thing whatever, if applied in such a degree as to cause injury or personal discomfort to the person of another, either directly or indirectly without his consent, or with his consent if the consent is obtained by fraud, or any bodily act or gesture, amounting to an attempt or threat to apply force of any kind as aforesaid to the person of another without his consent, in such circumstances that the person making the attempt or threat has in fact or apparently a present ability to effect the purpose ;

“firearm” includes any canon, gun, rifle, carbine, machine-gun, cap-gun, flint-lock gun, revolver, pistol, or other firearm, whether whole or in detached pieces ;

“offensive weapon” includes an air gun, air pistol, bow and arrow, spear, cutlass, matchets, dagger, cudgel, or any piece of wood, metal, glass or stone capable of being used as an offensive weapon, but does not include a firearm ;

“robbery” means stealing anything, and at or immediately before or after the time of stealing it, using or threatening to use actual violence to any person or property in order to obtain or retain the thing stolen or to prevent or overcome resistance to its being stolen or retained ;

“steal” means to take or convert to one's use or the use of any other person, anything other than an immovable property, with any of the following intents :—

(a) an intent permanently to deprive the owner of the thing of it ;

(b) an intent permanently to deprive any person who has any special property in the thing of such property, the term ‘special property’ here including any charge or lien upon the thing in question and any right arising from or dependent upon holding possession of the thing in question, whether by the person entitled to such right or by some other person for his benefit ;

(c) an intent to use the thing as a pledge or security ;

(d) an intent to part with the thing on a condition as to its return which the person taking or converting it may be unable to perform ;

(e) an intent to deal with the thing in such a manner that it cannot be returned in the condition in which it was at the time of taking or conversion ;

(f) in the case of money, an intent to use it at the will of the person who takes or converts it, although he may intend afterwards to repay the amount to the owner ;

“the tribunal” means a tribunal constituted under section 6 of this Edict for trial of offences.

1964 No. 1.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1964 shall apply for the interpretation of this Edict as it applies for the interpretation of an enactment.

Punishment
for robbery.

3.—(1) Any person who commits the offence of robbery shall be liable upon summary trial and conviction under this Edict to imprisonment for not less than twenty-one years.

(2) If—

(a) any offender mentioned in subsection (1) above is armed with any firearms, or any dangerous or offensive weapon or instrument or is in company with any other person so armed ; or

(b) at or immediately before or immediately after the time of the robbery, the said offender wounds or uses any other personal violence to any person, the offender shall be liable upon summary trial and conviction under this Edict to sentence of death.

Punishment
robbery.

4.—(1) Any person who, with intent to steal anything, assaults any other person and at or immediately after the time of the assault, uses or threatens to use actual violence to any other person or any property in order to obtain the thing intended to be stolen shall be liable upon summary trial and conviction under this Edict to imprisonment for not less than fourteen years.

(2) If—

(b) at or immediately before or immediately after the time of the assault, the said offender wounds or uses any other personal violence to any person, the offender shall be liable upon summary trial and conviction under this Edict to imprisonment for life, with whipping in such manner and to such extent not exceeding twenty-four strokes of the whip, as the tribunal may decide.

(3) Any person found in any public place in possession of any arm, whether real or toy or imitation, and in circumstances reasonably indicating that the possession of the arms is with intent to the immediate or eventual commission by that person or any other person, of any offence under section 3 or 4 of this Edict, shall be liable upon summary trial and conviction under this Edict to imprisonment for not less than fourteen years.

5. An armed patrol may arrest without warrant any person reasonably suspected of having committed or attempting to commit any offence under this Edict, and the armed patrol may use such force, including the use of firearms, as may be reasonably necessary to effect the arrest of that person or to prevent his escape.

Power to arrest by force without warrant etc.

6.—(1) The Military Governor may, either generally or in respect of offences committed in particular areas or in respect of particular offences, constitute a tribunal or tribunals for the trial of offences under this Edict.

Constitution of tribunals for trial of offences.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) below a tribunal constituted under subsection (1) above (hereafter in this Edict referred to as "the tribunal") shall consist of—

(a) an officer of the Judicial Department of Lagos State not below the rank of a Chief Magistrate, (who shall be chairman),

(b) an officer of the Nigerian Army not below the rank of Captain ;

(c) an officer of the Nigeria Police Force not below the rank of Superintendent of Police ; as the Military Governor may designate.

(3) No officer of the Nigerian Army or of the Nigeria Police Force who has taken part in the search for, pursuit or apprehension of, any person to be tried under this Edict or who has taken part in the investigation of the offence committed by that person shall sit as a member of a tribunal constituted for the trial of that person for that offence.

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Edict, the trial of offences under this Edict shall commence by way of application made to the tribunal in that behalf by the Director of Public Prosecutions of Lagos State, or by such officer of Public Prosecutions Division of the Ministry of Justice of that State as he may authorise so to do.

Procedure for the trial of offences.

(2) An application, under subsection (1) above shall be supported by evidence on affidavit.

(3) Where after perusal of the application and the evidence on affidavit or any further evidence in such form as the tribunal may consider necessary, the tribunal is satisfied that any person appears to have committed any offence under this Edict, it shall cause notice to be served on that person calling upon him to show cause why he should not be punished for that offence.

(4) Where no cause or no sufficient cause under subsection (3) above is shown by the person on whom a notice is served under that subsection, to its satisfaction the tribunal may after such inquiry as the tribunal may consider necessary, convict that person of the offence and impose upon him an appropriate sentence in accordance with the provisions of this Edict.

(5) The procedure to be followed upon an application to the tribunal under subsection (1) of this section shall be in accordance with such rulings as the tribunal may make either generally or for the purpose of a particular trial ; and in relation to and for the purposes of the proceedings of the tribunal the tribunal shall have the same powers, whether of compelling the attendance of persons and the production of documents or otherwise, as the High Court of the State has in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that any person charged with an offence under this Edict shall be entitled to defend himself either in person or by persons of his own choice who are legal practitioners, and to examine in person or by his legal representative, if he or they so wish, any person whose evidence, whether on affidavit or otherwise, forms part of the case against the first mentioned person.

Conviction or sentence subject to confirmation or disallowance.

8.—(1) The Military Governor shall have power to confirm or disallow any conviction, or sentence, imposed by the tribunal ;

(2) Any sentence imposed under this Edict shall not take effect unless and until the conviction and sentence are confirmed by the Military Governor, under subsection (1) above, and pending such confirmation the convicted offender shall be kept in such place of safe custody as the tribunal may decide.

(3) Where under subsection (1) above the Military Governor disallows—

(a) a conviction, whether upon representation made by the convicted offender or from other circumstances, he shall order the release of the person convicted by the tribunal ;

(b) a sentence, he may substitute a less severe form of punishment for any punishment imposed on an offender by the tribunal.

MADE at Lagos this 20th day of April 1968.

COLONEL MOBOLAJI O. JOHNSON
Military Governor,
Lagos State

LAGOS STATE (APPLICABLE LAWS) EDICT 1968

Edict No. 2

[1st May 1968]

Commencement.

THE MILITARY GOVERNOR OF LAGOS STATE hereby makes this Edict as follows:—
