Paragraph 1

*Name of Arbitration
Tribunal etc.*

Terms of Award

Ajuyah Arbitration Tribunal :
Niger River
Transport
Limited.

1. That there being no definite period of notice of retirement prescribed in the new Employees' Handbook, the notice of retirement given by the employers to the employees who were retired on 31st December 1968, was valid, it being the minimum period that could be given to determine the employment of a monthly paid worker.
2. That the Management's exercise of its discretion in the matter was however unreasonable having regard to what the practice had been notwithstanding what the circumstances surrounding the decision to retire the men might have been.
