EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the above Decree but is intended to explain its purpose)

The Decree amends the National Provident Fund Act 1964 and the National Provident Fund (Management Board, etc.) Decree 1974 to give full powers of management to the Board and to abolish the Investment Committee and its Sub-Committee which before this Decree had been solely responsible for the control of the investment of the Fund.

The Decree also amends the National Provident Fund Act 1961 to waive the limitation of age imposed by section 21 in respect of officers affected by the recent 'clean up' exercise in the Public Services of the Federation and of the States
