DRIVING LICENCES—USE OF IN U.K.

It is notified for general information that persons in possession of a valid driving licence in Nigeria may now use this licence in the United Kingdom, so long as it remains valid for the purpose of driving a vehicle of a class or description for which the licence was originally issued. There is in these circumstances no longer any need to apply for a British driving licence or an international driving permit but

(a) this concession is only applicable for a period of twelve months from the date of the person's last entry into the United Kingdom;

(b) the provisions of section 9 of the Road Traffic Act 1930 (which imposes age limits on young persons driving motor vehicles) still apply to all drivers in the United Kingdom and

(c) no person is authorised to drive a motor vehicle of any class or description if, in consequence of a conviction, he has been disqualified from holding a driving licence either in Nigeria or in the United Kingdom.
