You are hereby summoned to appear at a Court No. 1 to be holden at Aba on the 19th day of December, 1957, at the hour of 8.30 in the forenoon to answer the plaintiff's claim for forfeiture of lease the particulars of which are hereto annexed.

If the claim is for money only and you pay into Court the total amount of the claim and costs within 8 days after the service on you of this summons you will incur no further costs.

If you dispute the claim or have a counter claim you should, within 8 days inclusive of the day of service, send to the Registrar a defence or counter-claim for which the form below may be used. If you dispute part only of the claim you may pay into Court the amount admitted.

If you admit the whole or part of the claim and desire time for payment you should within the said 8 days send to the Registrar an admission (for which the form below may be used).

Sending the form to the Registrar does not relieve you from appearing in Court on the day named but delay in sending a defence or admission or in paying into Court may add to the cost.

To the Defendant Victor S. Johnson c/o J. W. Pepple, U.A.C., Umuahia.

Between 16 years and 17 years	4 10 0 per month
Between 17 years and 18 years	4 15 0 per month
18 years and over	5 0 0 per month

BASIS OF REMUNERATION

4. (1) The minimum remuneration specified in paragraph 2 of this Schedule relates, in the case of a worker other than a watchman or a petrol station attendant, to a week of 45 hours exclusive of overtime, but such that the normal working hours shall not exceed eight hours in any five working days and five hours on the shorter working day.

(2) The minimum remuneration of a watchman shall be paid in respect of hours of work which amount in the aggregate to twelve hours in any turn of duty, subject to a maximum of seventy-two hours in any week.

(3) The minimum remuneration of a petrol station attendant shall be paid in respect of a maximum of fifty-six hour-week on a daily shift not exceeding ten hours.

(4) In calculating the remuneration for the purpose of this schedule recognised breaks for meal-times shall be excluded.

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

5. (1) Work performed by a worker on any day after he has completed the hours in respect of which the minimum wage is payable to him shall be overtime work and shall be remunerated on such days at a minimum rate of one and a quarter times the normal minimum rate of wages of such worker.

(2) Work performed by a worker on a Sunday shall be remunerated at a minimum rate of one and a half times the normal minimum rate of wages of such worker.

(3) Work performed by a worker on a public holiday shall be remunerated at a minimum rate of twice the normal minimum rate of wages of such worker.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph—

(a) the normal minimum rate of remuneration of a worker shall be calculated as an hourly rate and, where the minimum remuneration of the worker is a daily wage, shall be equal to two-fifths of such daily wage, or where the minimum remuneration of the worker is a monthly wage, shall be equal to 1/195th of such monthly remuneration.

(b) all work performed by a watchman in any turn of duty which begins on a Sunday shall be deemed to be work performed on a Sunday.

PART II.—CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

HOLIDAYS WITH PAY

6. An employed person, after a period of twelve months in the continuous employment of an employer, shall be given a holiday with full pay at his normal rate, and shall be given a similar holiday with respect to every successive such period; and the duration of the holiday shall in the case of each worker be in accordance with the following table:—

Type of employment	Duration of annual holiday
(i) daily-rated worker	One week a year
(ii) monthly-rated worker in receipt of a salary less than £20 per month	Two weeks a year
(iii) monthly-rated worker in receipt of a salary of £20 per month and over	Four weeks a year

7. (1) Any holiday required to be given in pursuance of paragraph 6 or any part of this paragraph may, by agreement between the employed person and the employer, be deferred and, similarly, may be taken separately or conjointly with any other such holiday or part thereof.

(2) A person who ceases to be employed after having completed—

(a) less than twelve but not less than six months in the continuous employment of an employer, or

(b) not less than six months in the continuous employment of an employer since he last qualified for holidays in accordance with paragraph 6, shall, with respect to such period of employment, be paid an amount which shall bear the same proportion to full pay for the period of leave to which he is entitled under paragraph 6 at his normal rate as the said period shall bear to twelve months.

WEEKLY DAY OF REST

8. (1) In every week a worker shall be entitled to a rest day which shall be Sunday or such other day as may be agreed by the employer and the worker.

(2) Any worker who works for and at the request of his employer on a rest day shall be paid for such work at a rate not less than his ordinary rate of pay and a half of such rate unless the worker and the employer shall have agreed that a whole day within three days immediately before or after the rest day shall be substituted therefor;

Provided no worker shall be compelled to work on four successive rest days.

SICK LEAVE AND MEDICAL ATTENTION

9. (1) An employed person, after a period of six months in the continuous employment of an employer, shall, on the production to the employer of a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner stating that in consequence of illness he is unfit for work, be allowed sick leave with full pay at his normal rate.

(2) Sick leave allowable in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) shall not be less than seven days in any period of six months.

10. An employed person, after a period of six months in the continuous employment of an employer, shall be entitled to receive, at the expense of the employer, medical attention and hospital treatment from a qualified medical practitioner approved by the employer as and when such attention and such treatment are required;

Provided that—

(a) the employer shall be liable only for the expenses of such periods of medical attention and of hospital treatment as shall not exceed in the aggregate four weeks in any period of twelve months continuous employment; and

(b) the disability of the person is not attributable to his own neglect or fault.

11. The provisions of paragraphs 9 and 10 shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Ordinance, Cap. 234.

CALCULATION OF EMPLOYMENT

12. For the purpose of calculating continuous employment qualifying a worker for an annual holiday or sick leave or medical attention, the worker shall be deemed to be in the continuous employment of an employer for any period during which he is employed by the said employer on each successive normal working day without interruption otherwise than by way of public holidays, holidays with pay, sick leave and any periods of medical attention and hospital treatment allowed in accordance with this Order, or any other absence approved by the employer.

CONDITIONS OF PREMISES

13. In all premises in which workers are engaged in the retail and ancillary trades there shall be provided—

- (a) sufficient and suitable sanitary convenience,
- (b) adequate supply of wholesome drinking water ;

(c) for use of all female employed persons whose work is done standing, suitable facilities for sitting sufficient to enable such persons to take advantage of any opportunities for resting which may occur in the course of their employment.
