Customs Ordinance (Chapter 48)

PERMITS TO ENTER CUSTOMS AREAS AND TO BOARD SHIPS/AIRCRAFT

This Notice cancels Government Notices Nos. 1083 and 1118 of 1953 and Nos. 757 and 1279 of 1955.

Attention is invited to Parts XV and XIX of the Regulations made under the Customs Ordinance (Chapter 48) which govern the procedure to be observed by passengers and other persons embarking on or disembarking from ships and by persons wishing to enter a Customs Area.

1. Permits to enter a Customs Area.—(a) No animal or vehicle, other than an animal or vehicle intended to be loaded in a ship or aircraft and no person other than a person who can produce documentary evidence, if so required, that he is the owner, master, an officer or a member of the crew of a ship or aircraft or a passenger who has a passage in a ship or aircraft, for its outward voyage, shall enter a Customs Area except in accordance with and subject to any conditions contained in a permit issued by the proper officer in respect of the particular area.

(b) The proper officer for the issue of a permit to enter the Customs area specified in column I shall be the officer holding the post designated in column II, below, or any person authorised by him to act on his behalf:—

Column I	Column II
1. Customs Areas managed by the Nigerian Ports Authority.	The General Manager, Nigerian Ports Authority; or such officer of the Authority as he may depute.
2. Bota and Tiko Customs Areas.	The Shipping Manager, Cameroons Development Corporation, Bota.
3. Burutu Customs Area.	The General Manager, The Niger River Transport, Burutu.

Column I

Column II

4. Lagos, Calabar and Kano Airports:

(i) Baggage Hall and Transit Lounge.

(ii) Airport Parking Apron.

The Collector of Customs at the Airport.

The Commandant at the Airport and countersigned by the Collector of Customs.

5. All other Customs Areas. The Customs Officer-in-Charge of the port or place concerned.

Except that a person holding a permit to board a ship or aircraft (see paragraph 2 below) may enter the Customs Area in which the ship is berthed without obtaining a separate Customs Area pass.

(c) Permits may be:—

(i) permanent, authorising the person to whom it is issued to enter or take a particular animal or vehicle into a Customs Area or any specified part thereof at all times and subject to such restrictions and for such period (if any) as may be endorsed on the permit; or

(ii) temporary, authorising the person to whom it is issued to enter or take a particular animal or vehicle into a Customs Area or any specified part thereof on a specified day or days and during the hours (if any) indicated in the permit.

If so required there shall be affixed to any permanent permit a photograph of the person to whom it is issued supplied by such person.

2. Permits to Board a Ship.

(a) No person other than:—

(i) the owner, master, officers and crew of a ship;

(ii) the duly appointed agent of the owner or master and any person employed by the owner or master or his agent and proceeding on board with his authority;

(iii) any Government employee, official of the Nigerian Ports Authority, Consular Officer or member of Her Majesty's Armed Forces, wearing a uniform or in possession of an identity card, acting in the execution of his duty; or

(iv) any passenger who has a passage in a ship for its outward voyage;

shall go on board any ship which arrives in Nigeria unless that person is in possession of a permit issued by the owner, or his agent, of the vessel, countersigned by the Customs Officer in charge of the port concerned.

(b) A permit to board a ship may be:—

(i) general, authorising the person to whom it is issued to go on board any ship or ships; or

(ii) temporary, authorising the person to whom it is issued to go on board any particular ship on such days and at such times and subject to such other conditions as may be specified in such permit.

No permission given as aforesaid shall have effect in any case where the master of the ship is unwilling or refuses to allow the person concerned to go on board the ship.

(c) Every person intending to go on board a ship shall proceed to such ship by the most direct route from one of the places appointed for the landing of baggage, unless the proper officer otherwise directs.

3. Persons Disembarking from Ships.—(a) Every person disembarking from a ship shall proceed by the most direct route to the place appointed for the landing of baggage or such other place as the proper officer may direct and there disembark and proceed to the place appointed for the examination of baggage, or such other place as the proper officer may direct, and there remain until he receives permission to leave such place.

(b) Any person who brings any articles from a ship except such articles as he is expressly authorised so to bring by the customs laws renders himself liable to the penalties provided in the customs laws.

4. Conveyance to or from a Ship.—No boat, other than a ship's boat or a boat owned by Government when used in the service of Government, which is not licensed in accordance with the provisions of the Customs Regulations, 1945, may go or remain alongside or approach within fifty yards of any ship, except with the written permission of the Customs Officer in Charge of the port concerned and subject to such conditions and limitations as may be expressed therein.

5. The Comptroller of Customs reserves the right to cancel at any time without assigning reasons therefor, any issued permit to which this notice applies.
