Government Notice No. 1173

NOTICE BY THE BOARD OF CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE NOTICE No. 20

Government Notice No. 2118 published in Official Gazette No. 64 of 15th October, 1959 (Customs and Excise Notice No. 20) is hereby cancelled and replaced by the following new notice.

IMPORTATION OF GOODS BY PARCEL POST

The purpose of this Notice is to draw attention to the procedure governing:—

- (a) normal duty assessment on goods imported by parcel post—both surface and air mail—and the delivery of such parcels to the owners; and
 - (b) the refund of import duty overpaid on parcels.
2. The requirements of paragraphs 11 to 15 and 21 to 27 of Customs and Excise Notice No. 13 (Government Notice No. 702 of 1959) apply to trade goods imported by parcels post, but it should be noted that the importer is not at present required to enter such goods.

3. Customs Declaration Form.—The precise contents of each parcel should be accurately stated on the Customs Declaration form or green label affixed to the parcel in order that the amount of duty—if any—may be readily assessed.

4. Invoices.—Each parcel should be accompanied by a copy of the relevant invoice(s) securely attached to the outside of the parcel in an envelope prominently marked "Invoice." When several parcels are sent in one consignment by one mail, one invoice will suffice provided all the parcels are numbered, the number of the parcel to which the invoice is attached is clearly shown on every parcel in the consignment, and the invoice itself clearly indicates the parcel to which it relates.

5. "Produce Invoice."—Where any Delivery Notice is stamped "Produce Invoice" it must be returned by the Postmaster with the invoice to the office of original assessment for re-calculation of the duty, except that where the delivery office has a Customs Officer in attendance the duty may be re-assessed at the delivery office.

6. Goods liable to Ad Valorem Duty.—The value for duty purposes is defined in the Second Schedule to the Customs and Excise Management Ordinance No. 55 of 1958, and is, in practice, normally taken to be the full invoice price of the goods, less any allowable deductions such as trade discount, but plus postage, insurance, and all other similar charges which are not included in the invoice price. (See Customs and Excise Notice No. 13 for full information).

Details of the invoice price, deductions, charges, etc., should be clearly shown on the Customs Declaration form affixed to each parcel and, where the invoice price includes postage, or where the goods are not insured, the facts should be stated on the Declaration form.

7. Goods liable to a Specific Rate of Duty.—The quantity of the goods, expressed in the unit upon which duty is chargeable should, in addition to the details mentioned in paragraph 6 above, be clearly stated on the Declaration form.

8. Gift Parcels.—Bona fide unsolicited gifts forwarded by parcels post are admissible under open general import licence, but it is emphasized that there are no special provisions in the Customs Tariff Ordinance, No. 60 of 1958, for gifts, and any article—whether a gift or not—can be admitted without payment of duty only if it comes within one of the items in the Second Schedule to that Ordinance.

9. Educational Materials.—(a) Any educational establishment which desires to claim exemption from duty under item 65 of the Second Schedule to the Customs Tariff Ordinance (No. 60) 1958 is required to return the relevant delivery notice to the Postmaster, at the delivery office of the parcel(s), together with a certificate that the goods in that particular consignment are for use only in educational establishments. The certificate must be signed by one of the following signatories:—

Lagos—Senior Assistant Secretary on behalf of the Permanent Secretary—Federal Ministry of Education

Northern Region—Provincial Education Officer

Eastern Region—Provincial Education Officer

Western Region—Senior Assistant Secretary on behalf of the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Education.

Southern Cameroons—Inspector of Education

Nigeria College of Technology:—

Headquarters—The Registrar

Ibadan—Assistant Secretary

Zaria and Enugu—Branch Principal

University College—The Bursar

University College Hospital—Chief Stores and Supplies Officer

(b) It is emphasized that:—

(1) the certificate must include sufficient details to identify it clearly with the relevant consignment;

(2) the Postmaster will deliver without payment of duty only such goods as the proper officer of Customs and Excise has indicated on the delivery notice as deliverable without payment of duty on production of the certificate prescribed in this notice, and for which a satisfactory certificate is produced by the addressee;

(3) the certificate will be retained by the Postmaster who will attach it to the relevant delivery notice.

10. Conditionally Free Goods.—In cases where exemption from duty is claimed under one of the conditional exemptions contained in the Second Schedule of the Customs Tariff Ordinance No. 60/58 the importer is required to return the relevant Delivery Notice to the Postmaster at the delivery office of the parcels together with a certificate in the following form: "I hereby claim exemption from duty under the provisions of Item _____ of the Second Schedule to the Customs Tariff Ordinance on the goods covered by this Delivery Notice on the grounds that _____". The grounds on which exemption is claimed must be clearly stated.

The Postmaster will return the Delivery Notice with the certificate attached to the office of original assessment for re-calculation of the duty except that where the delivery office has a Customs Officer in attendance the duty may be re-assessed at the delivery office.

11. Claims for Refund of Duty.—Where an importer has paid on a parcel an amount of duty which he considers to be excessive he should lodge a claim in writing, supported by whatever evidence he possesses, with the Postmaster at the office where the duty was paid.

Such a claim should invariably contain particulars of the relevant delivery notice as well as the date of delivery of the parcel(s) and be accompanied whenever possible, by the wrapper in which the goods were received, with the relevant Customs Declaration form intact and the receipt portion of the delivery notice.

The claim will be forwarded to the appropriate Collector of Customs and Excise by the Postmaster. Repayment, where authorised, will be effected by the Department of Posts and Telegraphs.
