ACCOUNTANCY (FINALS) COURSE, 1960-62

A Course leading to the Final Examinations of the Association of Certified and Corporate Accountants will be conducted at the Ibadan Branch of the College.

The Course will commence on the 6th October, 1960, at the beginning of the Session 1960-61. Students will be prepared with a view to taking Stage I of the examination in June 1961. Successful students will then be prepared with a view to taking Stage II in June 1962. It is possible, however, that some variation may be necessary in the times the examinations are taken, in order to allow students to obtain the periods of practical experience necessary to support applications for permission to take the examinations.

The Tuition Fee for the Course will be £48 per annum, and the Boarding Fee £63 per annum. During the vacations a charge at the rate of £2 per week or part of a week is made for Boarding. The fees are exclusive of those for Games, membership of Students Societies, examination fees and expenses and the cost of books and stationery necessary for the Course.

Applications for consideration for places on the Course are invited from candidates who have passed the Intermediate Examination of the Association of Certified and Corporate Accountants. They should be made as soon as possible by letter addressed to the Acting Branch Principal at the Ibadan Branch of the College.
