ADDENDUM TO CIRCULAR A18/1959

It is notified for general information that General Order 03203 was inadvertently omitted from the annexure to Circular A.18/1959. It should be included as follows :—

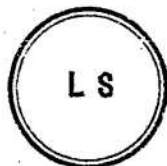

"General Order 03203.—Expatriates. An expatriate woman officer who marries must resign her appointment and shall by marrying be deemed to have done so with effect from the day immediately preceding the marriage. She must notify her marriage (and in effect her resignation) to her Head of Department who will thereupon notify the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Pensions, the Accountant-General and the Director of Federal Audit.

In notifying the Ministry of Pensions the Head of Department may recommend that the officer be re-engaged on temporary agreement, without expatriation pay, with effect from the date of her marriage until such time as a replacement can be found or the officer proceeds on vacation leave (whichever is the sooner). If re-engagement on this basis is approved the salary of the officer for the period of her engagement will be the same basic salary, with incremental date unchanged, as she enjoyed prior to marriage."
