GOVERNMENT COASTAL AGENCY, APAPA

EXPORTS FROM NIGERIA

The Crown Agents are experiencing great difficulties in clearing outward shipments of stores, despatched to the United Kingdom for repairs, etc., and sent through the Government Coastal Agency, because the consignors concerned do not supply all the necessary information.

2. In addition to the information requested at chapter 10, paragraphs 33-36 of the Handbook of the Government Coastal Agency of Nigeria, 1958, the following information also should be supplied:—

(a) Precise details of the contents of packages, and if more than one package, how the goods are distributed.

(b) Reason for return, i.e., repair, incorrect supply, or any other reason.

(c) Country of origin when known. This is important now that so many goods are obtained outside the United Kingdom.

(d) Indent numbers of reference of departmental correspondence to the Crown Agents.

3. For the benefit of those Ministry/Departments which are not in possession of the Government Coastal Agency Handbook, the information at Chapter 10 (Exports for Nigeria), paragraphs 33-36 is given hereunder:—

"Departments wishing to despatch abroad items for repair or for other purposes should see they are carefully packed to withstand the possibility of rough handling en route and mark the packages clearly with the name and address of the ultimate destination.

The packages should be delivered to the Government Coastal Agent at Apapa or consigned to the Coastal Agent at the Lagos Terminus (Idodo) if sent by rail. The number of the waybill and date of despatch should be telegraphed to "Coastagent Apapa" and the waybill forwarded to the Coastal Agent at Apapa by the quickest means, together with a letter giving full instructions as to disposal of the packages, their value and details of the contents.

Goods which are the subject of indents on Crown Agents (e.g., samples) or for repair through correspondence with Crown Agents will be consigned to them to handle in the United Kingdom. Other goods will be consigned to the addressee to whom will be sent the Bills of Lading and advices.

The Coastal Agent also despatches by sea route stores for other Government Departments in Nigeria. Such despatches are dealt with in the same manner as those mentioned above".

It will be appreciated if all Indenting and Stores Officers of all Government Departments, Native Administrations and Quasi-Government bodies, etc., would comply accordingly.
