SELECTION OF POTENTIAL OFFICERS FOR THE ROYAL NIGERIAN ARMY

1. Applications are invited from persons wishing to be considered for Commissions in the Royal Nigerian Army. The selection for Regular Commissions will be competitive, and candidates who fail to obtain a Regular Commission may be offered a Short Service Commission. A limited number of those obtaining a Short Service Commission may be considered for a Regular Commission at a later date.

2. Exemption from qualifying examination.—Applicants holding West African School Certificate with credits in English Language, Mathematics and three other subjects, or the General Certificate of Education 'O' Level, in five subjects, two of which must be English Language and Mathematics, may, provided they passed the examination in question in one sitting, be granted exemption from the qualifying examination provided they satisfy the other requirements given below.

3. All other applicants must sit the qualifying examination.

4. Conditions of entry for the qualifying examination: Applicants must fulfil the following conditions.—

(a) Age (i)—For Regular candidates—over 17 years 2 months and under 22 years of age as at 1st November, 1962.

(ii)—For Short Service—under 25 years of age on 1st November, 1962.

(b) Medical.—No physical disability and be at least 5 feet and 2 inches in height.

(c) Education.—(i) The General Certificate of Education or the West African School Certificate with a pass in the English language and three other subjects.

(ii) Applications will be accepted from candidates who have not yet been notified of their W.A.S.C. or G.C.E. results, provided a certificate is produced from their Headmaster stating that they have sat the examination in question and, in his opinion, have a good chance of passing in the necessary subjects. Should it be found subsequently that a candidate who has been accepted for Military Training has failed his G.C.E. or W.A.S.C., his training will be terminated.

5. Qualifying examination.—The next qualifying examination will be held on Tuesday 3rd and Wednesday 4th July, 1962, at the following centres—LAGOS, KADUNA, ENUGU, IBADAN. Candidates will be examined in General Knowledge, English and Mathematics.

6. Selection and Medical Boards.—Candidates who passed the qualifying examination, or were exempted therefrom, will be required to appear before a Force Selection Board at IBADAN or KADUNA, followed by a medical examination at LAGOS or KADUNA.

7. Training.—Those candidates who are selected for training will be enlisted into the Royal Nigerian Army and, provided they are not disqualified as in the last sentence of paragraph 4 (c) (ii) above, will attend a 20 weeks course at the Nigerian Military Training College, Kaduna. If successful in obtaining a nomination, they will proceed abroad for further Military Training. On the successful completion of this training, cadets will be commissioned into the Royal Nigerian Army and will receive an initial salary of £768 a year. Cadets who fail to be selected will be given the option of continuing to serve as Other Ranks or taking their discharge.

8. Method of application.—(a) Applicants will apply in writing to Headquarters, Royal Nigerian Army, Ministry of Defence, Lagos, by 20th May 1962, stating their age and educational qualifications and enclosing, where available, supporting education certificates. Applications received after this date will NOT be entertained.

(b) Applicants will also enclose a recommendation from a person in authority (e.g., District Officer, Minister of religion, doctor, solicitor or officer in the Royal Nigerian Army not below the rank of Major). An application form, together with the examination syllabus, will then be sent to applicants.

(c) Applicants claiming exemption from the qualifying examination must enclose an original or photostat copy of their W.A.S.C. or G.C.E. with their original application.

Scale of salary.—C(E) 1, 2: £450, £468, £489, £510, £537, £564, £594, £621, £648, £675, £702, £786, £822.

Qualifications required.—Applicants should possess a minimum qualification of:

(a) Higher School Certificate with three principal passes on one occasion or four principal passes on two occasions; or

(b) General Certificate of Education with three passes at Advanced Level on one occasion or four passes on two occasions.

Candidates must be able to speak and write English fluently. It will be an advantage if they have some experience in industry or commerce or comparable employment and a knowledge either of Government or of Commercial accounting procedure and office organisation. Candidates should be prepared to show that they have made some study of social, labour and economic conditions.

Duties.—Selected candidates will be required to work in any part of the Federation of Nigeria, assisting Labour Officers generally in securing the observance of labour legislation by inspection, the maintenance of good industrial relations, collecting and collating information, giving advice to employer and workers and dealing with matters affecting employment and unemployment generally.

Special circumstances affecting office.—Special consideration will be given to any existing Government employees of Assistant Executive Officer grade who have a desire to broaden the scope and prospects of their careers by undertaking such duties in the Ministry of Labour as are outlined above. If a candidate selected is in Government employment he will be seconded to the Ministry of Labour for a period not exceeding one year during which time his suitability (or otherwise) for the post will be assessed. If he is not considered suitable after that period he will revert to his substantive appointment. Promotion to higher posts in the Ministry will be made, in due course, strictly on merit and as vacancies occur.

Method of application.—Applications should be addressed in the candidate's own handwriting to reach the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour, Lagos, not later than 30th April, 1962. They must be submitted on the proper forms obtainable from any Labour Office. A candidate in Government service should submit his application through the Head of his Department or Ministry. Heads of Departments are requested to forward only those applications which they are able to recommend.
