 EXAMINATION FOR ADMISSION OF ARMY AND NAVY CADETS

An examination for admission of Army and Navy cadets into the Nigerian Defence Academy will be held in the third week of September 1965 at LAGOS, ENUGU, ILORIN, JOS and KADUNA.

2. A candidate who wishes to take the examination should satisfy the following conditions:—

(i) Must be an unmarried male. He must have attained the age of 16 years and must not have attained the age of 22 years on 1st April, 1966.

(ii) Must have passed the West African School Certificate examination or the G.C.E. Ordinary Level examination. However, a candidate who intends to appear for the West African School Certificate examination in November 1965, or the G.C.E. Ordinary Level in January 1966, will be eligible to apply for admission if his Principal or Headmaster certifies that the candidate will take either of the examinations stated above and that he stands a fair chance of gaining a Certificate. Private candidates must forward an attested true copy of the Examination Fee Receipt.

3. A candidate seeking admission to the examination is required to submit his application on the prescribed form obtainable from:—

(i) Ministry of Defence, P.M.B. No. 12590, Lagos;

(ii) Nigerian Defence Academy, P.M.B. No. 2109, Kaduna.

4. All completed application forms must be returned to the Commandant, Nigerian Defence Academy, P.M.B. No. 2109 Kaduna, not later than 10th May, 1965.

MID-WESTERN NIGERIA POST SECONDARY SCHOLARSHIP AWARD: 1965-66

Applications are hereby invited from students of Mid-Western origin for the Mid-Western Nigeria scholarship awards for undergraduate studies and for Technical training. The purpose of the scholarship awards is to train Mid-Westerners to fill administrative, technical and professional posts in the Region's Public Service, and to provide qualified staff for Industries which are essential for balanced Economic Development.

2. Awards will be made tenable in any of the West African Universities. However, where the Scholarship Board is satisfied that institutions for courses of study or training are not available in Nigeria or West Africa, awards for such courses may be made tenable overseas.

3. Official application forms are available in this Ministry and our London Office. Completed application forms which must reach this Ministry not later than 30th April, 1965, must be accompanied by

(i) Photostat (not original) copies of candidate's certificates;

(ii) Two passport size photographs showing candidates' full face and shoulders;

(iii) Three copies of Sworn Declaration of Age sworn before a Magistrate.

4. It is the duty of applicants to acquaint themselves with the conditions of admission to the courses of study or training they wish to pursue. For University degrees, however, the qualifications required are the General Certificate of Education at the Advanced Level or the Higher School Certificate at Principal Level in the subjects appropriate to the candidate's course of study, in addition to the evidence of a general education to the level of the West African School Certificate, Division II or its equivalent. Candidates with less than Division II in West African School Certificate are not eligible to apply unless they had subsequently passed the General Certificate of Education examination in at least two subjects, relevant to their proposed course of study, at one sitting. For non-university courses the requisite qualifications are the West African School Certificate or an equivalent qualification obtained through the General Certificate of Education at the Ordinary Level or Officially recognised certificates in subjects related to the proposed courses of study.

5. Candidates whose proposed courses of study are available in West African Universities are advised to apply for admission direct to the institutions of their own choice as they would be required to produce evidence of admission before their applications for scholarships are finally considered. Evidence of admission, however, is not a guarantee that the applicant would, in fact be awarded a scholarship. Arrangements will be made by this Ministry to place in overseas institutions, successful candidates whose courses are not available in West African Universities.

6. All applicants in the Government Service must submit their applications through their Ministries or Departments.

7. The following are the courses for which scholarships may be awarded:—

Architecture
 Veterinary Science
 Surveying — Land and Quantity
 Pharmacy
 Radiography
 Estate Management

VACANCIES

The posts mentioned below are vacant. Further details of each post will be made available by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Economic Development, Lagos, on request. All persons making enquiries about the post should state their qualifications and experience.

Applications must be addressed to Chief, Recruitment Section, Personnel Branch, F.A.O., Via delle Terme di Caracalla, Rome, Italy.

(i) POST.—VA. NO. 1023 CHIEF, TERMINOLOGY AND REFERENCE SECTION P-2

Under the linguistic guidance of the Chief of the Translation Sections, but with considerable latitude for initiative and resource, the incumbent directs the work of the Terminology and Reference Section, so as to provide assistance in terminology and reference problems in the official languages to FAO staff members such as translators, revisers, interpreters, editors, authors, and occasionally outsiders consulting FAO as authority. To this end :

Collects and searches documentation and other sources of authoritative terminology and references, such as treatises, textbooks, technical journals, technical, economic, and administrative working papers of FAO and related organisations, and selects equivalents of accepted terminology in the three official languages. Classifies and retains near at hand source documentation acquired in the course of such search, so as to facilitate reference by translators and editors, but without duplicating fundamental Library functions. Performs related duties as required.

Qualifications.—Essential : University degree, preferably in fields underlying or related to linguistics. Some formal training at University level in scientific fields related to FAO's work.

Three years of professional experience involving research activities into scientific or technical literature, preparation of reference abstracts and notes for authors, cataloguing and indexing ; familiarity with international organizations and particularly with FAO.

Thorough command of one of the official working languages of the Organization (English, French or Spanish), and familiarity with the other two.

Initiative, diligence, ability to do linguistic research thoroughly and profitably. Ability to work in harmony with persons of different nationalities. Aptitude for languages.

Qualifications.—Desirable : Experience in lexicography. Familiarity with technical terminology relating to one or more of FAO's fields of subject matter and of the nature and purposes of the Organization. Previous work in an international organization, preferably in languages. Familiarity with other languages useful, in particular knowledge of Latin and Greek roots of scientific terms.

The incumbent is expected to develop a systematic program of preparation and publication of terminology bulletins and glossaries, and organise and maintain an adequate reference service for all three Translation Sections designed to secure an increase in the translators' output.

Emoluments based on US $ equivalents, are net of national income tax. They are payable in the currency of the Duty Station and, on request, partially in the currency of the Home Station :

Salary.—Gross $7,500 to $9,900 (equivalent to a 'Net' range of $6,130-$7,880).

Family Allowance.—Spouse $400, Child $300, Secondary dependent $200.

Post Adjustment per annum variable according to cost of living and to dependency status, at present, from $736-$1,440. Other benefits subject to specific terms of appointment.

Type of Appointment.—Permanent.

Location.—Rome.

Closing Date.—26th April, 1965.

(ii) POST.—VA. NO. 1024: TERMINOLOGY AND REFERENCE OFFICER P-1

Under the supervision of the Chief, Terminology and Reference Section, but with considerable latitude for initiative and resource, provides reference and terminology service in the working languages to translators and revisers. To this end :

Collects and classifies an adequate depository of publications and other reference material often needed in the work of the Translation Sections, so as to facilitate reference by translators and revisers, but without duplicating fundamental Library functions.

Maintains routine contact with the originators of documents and with the translators, so as to secure any necessary source documentation in the three languages ; develops and applies procedures designed to maintain such liaison, to avoid delays in obtaining reference information, and to make full use of the experience and data acquired by translators, revisers, interpreters and technical staff as suppliers and consumers of such information. Performs related duties as required.

Qualifications.—Essential : University degree, preferably in fields underlying or related to linguistics. Two years' professional experience in several fields of scientific or technical literature, preparation of reference abstracts and notes for authors, cataloguing and indexing.

Excellent knowledge of one official language (English, French, Spanish) and familiarity with the other two. Initiative, diligence, ability to do linguistic research thoroughly and profitably. Ability to work in harmony with persons of different nationalities. Aptitude for languages. Familiarity with international organizations and particularly with FAO.

Qualifications.—Desirable : Training in one or more of the sciences within FAO's fields, to university level.

Familiarity with technical terminology relating to one or more of FAO's fields of subject matter and of the nature and purposes of the Organization. Previous work in an international organization, preferably in languages.

Emoluments.—based on US $ equivalents, are net of national income tax. They are payable in the currency of the Duty Station ; and on request, partially in the currency of the Home Station :

Salary.—Gross $5,750 to $7,750 (equivalent to a 'net' range of $4,800-$6,410).

Family Allowance.—Spouse $400, Child $300, Secondary dependent $200.

Post adjustment.—p.a. variable according to cost of living and to dependency status, at present, from $576-$1,152. Other benefits subject to specific terms of appointment.

Type of appointment.—Permanent.

Location.—Rome.

Closing date.—26th April, 1965.

(iii) POST : VA. NO. 33-PL-4 : AGRICULTURAL OFFICERS (FODDER AGRONOMY) 5 POSTS

Under the immediate supervision of the Project Manager, the incumbents will :

Assist the Government of India in conducting operational research and demonstrations in the developments and utilization of pasture and fodder crops ; promote the multiplication and distribution of seeds and planting material ; collaborate with State Agriculture Colleges and Experiment Stations and maintain close working relations with officers in the fields of dairy development, agriculture, animal husbandry, forestry, irrigation, etc. ; and generally promote the correct cultivation of fodder crops and their utilization in combination with concentrates and crop residues according to the targets set for each dairy development district.

Qualifications.—Essential : University degree in agriculture or biological science. At least five years' experience in general crop agronomy and in grassland, pasture and fodder development and utilization. Knowledge of the basic principles of animal management and nutrition with particular reference to bovines for milk production.
