IMPACT OF TARIFF CHANGES ON PRICES

It has been reported from time to time that local producers and/or distributors often taken advantage of tariff changes to increase the selling price of locally manufactured goods at the expense of the unprotected consumers.

It is hereby notified for general information that Government may take punitive measures against any trader, firm, company or group of companies taking action to increase prices unjustifiably following any tariff changes.

It is therefore important for members of the public to be alert to changes in the price of goods after these changes and to report suspected cases of arbitrary increases to the Permanent Secretary, Federal Ministry of Finance, Mosaic House, Lagos, who has set up a machinery for investigating such cases. Every information will be treated as confidential.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTICE

Candidates who are seeking admission for an award tenable in a Nigerian or a West African university are strongly advised to make sure that they possess all entry requirements. Their passes at the Higher School Certificate or General Certificate of Education advanced level must be such that they will be able to fulfil entry requirements in respect of subject combinations for the courses of study for which they have got awards.

2. Candidates who are seeking admission for an award tenable in United Kingdom institutions must do so early enough in order to get placed in the year of award. Such applications are expected to be submitted to the Universities Central Council on Admission through any of the Students Advisory Committees or the Nigeria High Commission in London. At present the last date for receiving applications by the Universities Central Council on Admission for courses starting in September-October is 15th of December of the previous year. Where students fail to get admission, the Ministry of Education will help in doing the placement but no guarantee can be given that this will be done in the year of award.

3. ESTATE MANAGEMENT previously advertised as a course tenable overseas is now tenable in Nigeria. For MEDICAL/LABORATORY TECHNOLOGY preference will be given to those who have passed the preliminary stages and who possess the basic entry requirements for the remaining part of the course. For POLITICAL SCIENCE there will be no award at the undergraduate level, there might be later at the Post-graduate level. There will be awards for B.A. or B.Sc. EDUCATION. The closing date for receiving applications is now 23rd April, 1966 and not 16th April as previously announced.
