- (2) POST No. 6313-1105 VA. No. 1310—FISHERY OFFICER P-3

Duties and Responsibilities.—Under the direct supervision of the Chief, Fishery Intelligence and Reports Office, and in close collaboration with the technical units of the Department of Fisheries, the incumbent will participate in the development and operation of an intelligence system for the collection and compilation of information on fishery situation and prospects in particular countries and regions. Development of this system will involve, inter alia—

(a) Co-operation with regional offices, field experts and others in developing an effective network for the speedy reporting to FAO headquarters of important items of current information.

(b) Development of procedures and techniques for dissemination of relevant intelligence information to headquarters and field staff.

(c) Development of procedure for classifying, storing and retrieving current information.

The incumbent will participate in all phases of this operation, but will have particular responsibility for the reporting phase.

Qualifications—Essential.—University degree in a relevant discipline, which may include natural sciences, fisheries food technology or economics.

Three years' experience in fisheries and/or technical documentation work, including experience in searching technical literature and compiling summary reports.

Very good knowledge of English.

High degree of adaptability as well as ability to write lucid and concise reports, and to co-operate effectively with people of different nationalities and of various social and educational levels.

Emoluments.—based on US $ equivalents, are net of national income tax. They are payable in the currency of the Duty Station and, on request, partially in the currency of the Home Station:

Salary.—Gross: $11,270-15,590 (Net: $8,889 to $11,913).
