THE NIGERIA POLICE

VACANCIES FOR CADET SUB-INSPECTORS OF POLICE

Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates for direct entry into the Nigeria Police Force as Cadet Sub-Inspectors of Police. Applicants must have a genuine desire for a career in the Police Force, and should satisfy the conditions laid down in the Police Regulations in respect of:—

(a) Age.—Not below 19 years or above 25 years.

(b) Height.—Not less than 5 feet 6 inches.

(c) Chest Measurement.—Expanded chest measurement must not be less than 34 inches.

(d) Physical Fitness.—Candidates must not suffer from any type of physical deformities, and they will be required to pass the Government Medical examination for physical fitness.

Scale of salary.—Scale NP.5—£348 p.a.

Qualifications.—Candidates must possess a General Certificate of Education with passes at Ordinary Level in at least four subjects which must include English Language and Mathematics or a West African School Certificate with Credits in at least four subjects including English Language and Mathematics. These are minimum requirements and candidates with Advanced Level passes in General Certificate of Education will be considered.

Training.—Selected applicants will be attested into the Force as Cadet Sub-Inspectors on probation, and will be required to undergo, in the first instance, basic and advanced training courses for twelve months at the Southern Police College, Ikeja. The training courses, which will include a Citizenship and Leadership Training Course, are strenuous and exacting. Cadets-in-training are expected to demonstrate a very high standard of physical fitness and mental alertness. There are excellent facilities at the Southern Police College for games, athletics and other forms of healthy recreation.

Candidates, who during the training courses, have made satisfactory progress and passed the prescribed examinations will be posted for duty as Sub-Inspectors (£381-468) and attached to Police formations at the discretion of the Inspector-General for further training in practical Police duties. If, within the probationary period, i.e. within three years from the date of enlistment, a Sub-Inspector-in-training is found unsuitable for his post in the Force, his appointment will be terminated under General Order 02303.

Promotion.—As Sub-Inspectors, they will be eligible for promotion within the Inspectorate ranks of the Force.

Opportunities will also exist for promotion to the rank of Assistant Superintendent of Police, such promotion, will, however, be on merit alone and will depend solely on a candidate showing that he is suitable for consideration for appointment as a Superior Police Officer.

Accommodation and Special privileges.—Cadet Sub-Inspectors are entitled to free quarters (or an allowance in lieu), free uniform and leave privileges as enjoyed by the Inspectorate of the Force, which include 24 to 35 days' leave per annum and free transport facilities to and from the normal place of residence.

Method of application.—application forms on which instructions are printed may be obtained at all Provincial and Regional Police Offices. Completed application forms must be forwarded to the Commissioner of Police of the Region in which the applicant resides.

Closing date for application is 24th April, 1967.

Suitably qualified candidates will attend a preliminary interview on 8th May, 1967 before a regional board appointed by the Commissioner of Police.
