PUBLIC HOLIDAYS—1968

In compliance with section 6 of the Public Holidays Act, Cap. 166 (which provides that if any day appointed to be a public holiday shall fall on a Sunday, the day next following not being itself a public holiday shall be kept as a public holiday in lieu thereof) the Ministry of Internal Affairs has declared March 11th as a Public Holiday, since the Greater Beiram, otherwise known as the Id-El-Kabir, falls on Saturday and Sunday 9th and 10th of March, this year. By this announcement, Saturday the 9th and Monday the 11th will be observed as public holidays.
